School Razed by Fire To Open in New Quarters

The disastrous fire which completely ruined St Charles Borromeo School at Maiden Lane and Dewey Avenue, Greece on last Thursday evening causing damage estimated at $22 000 will not prevent the resuming of classes on Monday, April 25.

This is announced by the Rev William A. Doran, pastor who said that temporary quarters will be provided for pupils in the recreation hall connected with the church, and in two houses on the neighboring George H. Clark estate.

Father Doran has taken steps to replace the books, desks and supplies destroyed in the fire, but said the reconstruction of the school building will not be completed until fall.

The fire which broke out in the school on Holy Thursday afternoon blazed quickly and the smoke poured into the Church. Father Doran fighting his way through the smoke brought out the Blessed Sacrament. Sisters of Mercy ran to the school in an effort to salvage some books and supplies before the blaze became too great Firemen from three Greece companies and one from Rochester responded. Greece Councilman Andrew J Schell came from Braddock's Heights with the fire apparatus from that point.

Following the fire, Father Doran told the CATHOLIC COURIER that he was intensely grateful to the police and firemen for their excellent work at the fire and to friends in the community for offers of assistance.

He said that offers for temporary school rooms were made by the Rev. Arthur Tallman, of Bethany Presbyterian Church, and managers of the Dutch Mill and Lake Avenue Theater.

To all who cooperated with him during the trying time of the fire and after in cleaning up the water-soaked Church which was reopened on Good Friday for services, Father Doran said he was truly grateful.

SODALTALK

By Margaret Worthington

The young man's fancy takes the same turn spring after spring, but the Sodalist is ever finding a new one. Sodality Union Apostolic Committee, for instance, is this week in the show business. Director Father Morphy and Chairman Eleanor Collins, who have been scouting around for talent within and without the Sodality, will take a group of entertainers to the County Home on May 9, to present a variety program. There's a rumor afoot that "nosey" old S. U. is planning to "knot-hole" it.

• • •

We're sniffing S.S.C.A. in the air already, although we can't detect whether it's blowing in from Boston, St. Louis, St. Paul, Washington or New Orleans. Blessed Sacrament Sodalists are conducting a campaign to send delegates two, they hope; while SS. Peter and Paul's are cashing in on labels in an I.G.A. contest for summer school funds.

• • •

And incidentally, all you "up and doing" prefects, if you want a real peppy Sodality next year, an easy way to get it is to have a representative at the S.S.C.A. All the thrilling and magnificent Sodality plans learned in one week will be brought home and worked out for a year's program. Start now, get busy, and raise money to have your Sodality represented when the Roll is called this Summer

• • •

Talk about your probation programs! We've just hit upon an ideal set-up It was discovered that St Michael's Sodality has its Junior group in training for a while year before their reception into the Sodality The young ladies who constitute the Junior Sodality are organized in the eighth grade with officers, committees, etc and are instructed regularly throughout the Sodality year in Sodality set-up and practice by their director, Father Donald Lux Splendid, St Michaels' We see you believe that Sodalists, too, are made and not born

• • •

The Sodalists of St Bridget's Parish, with their mothers will receive Communion in a body on May 8, Mothers Day A Communion Breakfast for the mothers and Sodalists will follow, at which Father Orrin Feller of Aquinas Institute and Eileen Leary Gibson will be guest speakers.

The following committees are making preparations Reception, Rita Malamphy Rita Flemming and Josephine Lambarde, tickets, Helen Carroll, Angelina and Antoinette Costello, Josephine Bato, and Maryanne Francione menu, Helen Levis, Katherine Smith Beatrice Burke and Doris Dierdorf

• • •

How we love to hear the encouraging reports that Prefects bring in to Sodality Headquarters Prefect Anne Dolan of St. Jerome's, East Rochester, was in the other day and gave us a glowing account of how St. Jerome's Sodality has grown in leaps and bounds, both in membership and activities The Sodality and the Holy Name Society held a joint Easter Ball on Monday night. The Sodality is busy right now with preparations for May Day and rumor has it that Catherine Cannan was elected May Queen

• • •

Mary Katherine Sharpe, prefect of St Michael's Sodality, has announced that the Sodalists will have their annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday morning She also reports the fine news that Eileen Leary Gibson is going to be their guest speaker.

• • •

Request Directors, prefects, and committee chairmen, kindly wend their way to the Edinburgh Street entrance of Immaculate Conception School on Wednesday evening, April 27, at 8 o clock for Sodality Union meeting

• • •

Sodalists! Keep June 6 Open—Sodality Union Dinner with Bishop Kearney as Guest of Honor.
