MERCY SENIOR WINS Two Tickets For Dragonette Concert

Miss Dorothy A. Melsbach of 70 Coventry St., a senior at Our Lady of Mercy High School, will be the special guest of Miss Jessica Dragonette at her concert at the Auditorium in E. Main St. tomorrow night.

Of the many replies received in the contest calling for the selection of the three songs Rochester wants Miss Dragonette to sing most with the winners for the selection, Miss Melsbach's entry was adjudged the best.

None of the contestants agreed on the songs which received the greatest number of votes. The song selections were Indian Love Call with 187 votes, Ave Maria with 143 votes and Alice Blue Gown with 83 votes.

The works of Victor Herbert were adjudged far and away the most popular of any composer. Citing her reason for the selection of Ave Marie, Miss Melsbach wrote:

"I believe Miss Dragonette's lyric soprano is especially suited to this beautiful, religious melody. Her high notes are a treat for any singer and I would like Miss Dragonette to justify my opinion of her voice."

Our Social Swirl

Catholic Rochester Society finds itself well in the social swing this weekend. Jessica Dragonette, sponsored by the Mercy Guild, will be heard at the Auditorium on Friday evening, Saturday, May 13.

Among items brought to our attention this week, which really catch our attention and gain our whole-hearted support is the program of the Women's Field Army of the New York State Society of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

Women of the local staff will be seated at tables in various banks and stores in the city next week to enlist members in the Women's Field Army.

Actively participating in this work are members of the Catholic Women's Club, Mrs. Leo P. Elliott, in president of the organization, has appointed the following to assist by their presence at the stores and banks.

more urgent need for this Catholic influence and I pray that these works may be continued and increased in accordance with the wishes of the Holy Father. I urge you to carry on your activities in collaboration with their Excellencies the Bishops the successors of the Apostles in authority and ministry in collaboration with the parish priests to the Bishop and the Holy See. I am the more pleased to speak of the good done by the Catholic women of America because their work is both individual and social but above all because it affects the very foundation of human society in the family. It is only through the Catholic conception of the family that it can remain holy and sacred, and that its members will exercise its influence chiefly through the intelligent faith and the high virtue of Catholic women." A. G. CICOGNANI, Archbishop of Louisville, Apostolic Delegate.
