HOLY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION

Rev. John S. Randall, Director

I thought that I might have the space this week to tell you all about the Mission Day May 26

However, glancing over the report from the schools I fear that we will be forced to take nearly a full page of the paper

I will simply point to the importance of this day and encourage you boys and girls, whose good work during the year makes real home missionaries to be there

And here are the babies names: Kureus James Edward and Margaret Frances Africans George Vogt Rose Ann and Elizabeth Ann Christine Bernadette Marie and Mildred Irene Indians Herbert Baker Sarah Marie Joseph and Edward James McElroy

With great pleasure we are sending you thirty dollars which was raised on a Sister Doll

You will remember that some few weeks ago I reported my visit to St. Peter and Paul's Rochester

The boys and girls had planned on my coming. They had made up their mind to send me away with another ransom. But unfortunately I was unable to make all the class rooms. The children wanted positively for my return but I have not yet found the time to get back. I tried to find time to get back during the past week and here it is

The Seventh Grade calls for Thomas a Japanese boy

The boys are not the only ones. We want a little Japanese baby girl to be named Mary

We are happy to tell you that the Twelve Apostles Club has adopted a little Indian baby named Joseph

Please ransom Chinese twins for us. They are to be named Gerard and Geraldine in memory of the Rev. Gerard Donovan Mary Knoll's first martyr

Two schools descended upon us last week and insisted that I pay them a visit. The boys and girls were anxious to be enrolled as full fledged Holy Childhood members

We want to ransom a Chinese baby. The girls were again in a hurry to go home. Please name her Mary Theresa

From St. Joseph's First Grades comes the ransom of a little Chinese baby girl named Mary, when they wish to be their First Communion gift to our Blessed Lady

St. Joseph's Wayland are here again this week with the ransom of a Chinese boy named Joseph by the pupils of the Seventh and Eighth grades

To complete a beautiful record for this week we have a ransom of a pagan boy named Edward Joseph by the pupils of the Fifth and Sixth grades of St. Mary's School, Danville

Pat and Paul $1.00; St. Patrick, Mt. Morris, $1.85. How about you?

MISSION INTENTION: That the students may be taught about the missions

And right in line with the Holy Father's intention for the month of May the Catholic Students Mission Crusaders of the High Schools and Colleges in the Diocese will unite their efforts on Ascension Thursday for a giant Mission Rally to be held on the campus of Aquinas Institute

Members of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith are asked to offer their prayers not only for the success of the Rally but that as a result the students may be infused with a greater knowledge and deeper love of mission work

Catholic Education Catholics of the Philippine Islands are being denied the God given right of educating their children in the knowledge and love of God

More than twelve years the public school system has been used with a direct still to smother the Catholic religion. Teachers and officials may ridicule and discredit Catholic doctrine and customs with impunity

Pat and Paul $1.00; St. Patrick, Mt. Morris, $1.85. How about you?

Panel Talks Set For Mission Rally

Five panel discussion meetings are scheduled to take place simultaneously at the Catholic Students' Mission Rally at Aquinas Institute on May 26.

Catholic Neo-Paganism and Veteran Units will be discussed by Monsignor Edward Freking from Cleveland, Edward Murphy and Miss Anne Daily are the speakers in this discussion.

Under the chairmanship of Miss Rita Miller of Our Lady of Mercy High School, the Negro question will be discussed from all angles. Student speaker will be Austin Whalen from Niagara University.

The work done by the Medical Missionaries in India will make up the third panel meeting. Miss Frances Glatzel from the Academy of the Sacred Heart is the chairman. Miss Margaret Wegman from Nazareth Academy and Mario Caney from St. Mary's Commercial School are the student speakers.

Other students participating in the panel discussions will be Miss Ruth Stouder from Our Lady of Mercy High School; Miss Dorothy Hosenfeld from Nazareth Academy and Charles Langworthy, Aquinas Institute. This group will discuss the importance of Mission activities in the school.

Those taking part in the fifth panel meeting will discuss the scope of the Missions. Miss Betty Schaeffer from St. Mary's Commercial, Miss Dorothy Rice, Nazareth Academy, Vincent Porter, St. Andrews Seminary, and Joseph Conway, Aquinas Institute, will form this meeting.

In the morning, the rally will open with a Pontifical Mass celebrated by Missionary Bishop John Collins. Delegates from the various Catholic colleges and high schools will accompany the Bishop from the front door of Aquinas to the company place.

The Aquinas gymnasium will be open to the public for the inspection of the various booths displaying the work that is being done in the school.

GENEVA 4th Degree Hear of Missions Members of the Fourth Degree of the Geneva Council Knights of Columbus held their monthly meeting on Monday evening, May 2, at the K. of C. home with Rev. Edward K. Ball, principal of DeWitt High School, as the principal speaker.

NO NEWS IS GOOD NEWS

FIFTY years ago, Rochester was all agog over the revelation that the famous Fox sisters had "assisted" the spirits in the "rappings" that had made the city front page news all over the world.

Today the topics of the hour are the "recession," politics, labor troubles, and the old Central Bank, now the Central Trust Company.

No, the Central Trust type of banking, sound, conservative, un sensational, doesn't make good "copy." But it does make for a satisfied clientele and community, and it builds the solid foundation for un spectacular success that we want. We've been doing it for fifty years; we plan to keep on doing it for at least fifty more.
