IN ONE WE ARE

By ART KELLY
 The complexion of WHAM's program schedule will get a good rubbing over on May 30 with a general make-up of program changes. Foremost is the addition of a full hour program, Monday through Friday, featuring five outstanding radio features. The sixty-minute General Mills program will bring to WHAM listeners a headline list including: "Betty and Bob," "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," "Valiant Lady," "The ABC Churches" and "Betty Crocker."

Comparable to a huge stock company with stars, electricians, stage hands and directors, the new NBC broadcast will require the daily services of more than half a hundred people. In addition, to the costs of these various shows produced each day, the program will require a full company of engineers, announcers, directors and sound technicians, since each one of the portions of the broadcast must be produced as an individual entity.

One of the most unusual ventures in the field of radio entertainment, the broadcast will include three dramatic shows, a choral concert of sacred music and a program of up-to-the-minute information on household helps. Other changes in WHAM's schedule slated for May 30 are as follows: The Gospel Singer continues his broadcasting for the summer and his spot on the network, 10:45 A. M., will be taken by a new NBC program titled "Getting Some Fun Out of Life." Ma Perkins has a time change. She is to be heard each morning, Monday through Friday, at 7:45.

A new program, "Jane Arden," also starts on WHAM on May 30 and will be heard Monday through Friday at 9 o'clock. Women on WHAM's program for the ladies, also finds a new spot. Hazel Cowles with her news of food, fads, fashions and advice, will be heard each morning at 9:15.

In past weeks much has been said and written about swing music and swing bands. Whether you do or do not like swing music is beside the point in this case. If you just like modern music, play in a band or just continue reading. Each Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the NBC-Red network carries a program titled "Trio Time." During its thirty minutes, music takes on a new style under the arranged leadership of a gentleman named Milt Herth.

Herth is nationally renowned for his ability at making an electric organ at up and take notice. His speed and technique is absolutely unbelievable. In every part of the word, Herth is an artist. With him are married Frank Froeba, pianist, Dick Ridgely, drummer, and the vocal sensations, "The Tune Twisters." Herth's arrangements avoid over-ornamentation and he refuses to call his music "swing."

A Memorial Day story concerning a grave in an abandoned desert cemetery, which after more than a quarter of a century of neglect, suddenly became decorated with a blanket of roses and lilies, will be told by the Old Ranger during the Death Valley Days program over WHAM tonight (May 27) at 7:30.

Dimitri Mitropoulos, distinguished young Greek conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, will be guest conductor of the NBC Symphony Orchestra tomorrow night (Saturday, May 28) from eight to nine-thirty, NBC net.

BLOCK-BOOKING OF MOVIES BILL Passes Senate Ending Practice

WASHINGTON (NC) The Senate passed the newly bill designed to prohibit block-booking and blind-selling of motion pictures. The legislation provides that motion picture theaters will no longer be required to accept allotted objectionable films in order to obtain special featured programs.

Efforts to pass the legislation, Senator Neely said, have been made for the last ten years. He wanted the Senate not to underestimate "the moral or numerical strength of the millions of fathers, mothers, teachers, parents, teachers and social workers who have vainly urged the passage of the bill." The importance of the measure, he added, "is identical with that of the religious, the moral and the mental instruction of the men and women and children of this country."

Of the 77,000,000 people who witness at least one moving-picture performance every week, the Senator said, 28,250,000 are under 21 years of age and 1,000,000 are 13 years or younger. He quoted the Motion Picture Research Council as authority for the statement that out of 115 motion pictures shown in one theatre "the heroes alone were responsible for 13 murders, 17 rapes, 11 kidnappings, 11 adulteries and 11 incests. In all 54 murders were committed, 59 cases of felonious assault, 17 hold-ups, 21 kidnappings, to say nothing of the numerous other crimes."

Reference also was made by Senator Neely to the good efforts obtained in improving the moral tone of certain motion pictures. "The Legion of Decency, sponsored by the Catholic Church," he said, "has been a constant force for the better, but it is not proper to place on exhibitors, where it belongs."

ENGLERT AGAIN HEADS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
 With Joseph Englert unanimously elected to succeed himself as president, the Holy Redeemer Athletic Association has entered a new year of activity.
 The club was founded 22 years ago by the Rev. William W. Herth, pastor of St. Joseph's Church of Wayland, who was guest of honor and principal speaker at the annual banquet held Wednesday evening of last week at Holy Redeemer parish hall.

At the banquet the Association presented a substantial check to the Rev. F. William Stauder, spiritual moderator and pastor of Holy Redeemer Church.
 More than 75 members were present to greet their new officers and to hear plans for the coming year. Increased activity in bowling will be a major project this year.

Other guests included the Rev. A. Schneider, the Rev. Walter Carmo, Thomas H. O'Connor, new editor, CATHOLIC COURIER, and Fred Schmidt, publisher of the North Rochester News.
 Besides Father Stauder, who was hostmaster, at the dinner and President Englert, other officers named are: Vice-president, George Scheid, recording secretary, James Maloy, membership secretary, John A. Wala, financial secretary, Arthur Keller, treasurer, Joseph Brocletta, director, John C. Wink, John Knapp, Ray Warr, John Muller, Arthur Englert and John Lavonia.

Of the Captain of our salvation, the inspired word says: "He was made perfect through sufferings. There is indeed no other way that leads to moral excellence. Arch-bishop J. L. Spalding.

 BOSTON (NC)—The third issue of the magazine "Ken" was banned here by the Police Commissioner because, he asserted, it contained an article dealing with vice.

 Catholic personalities without demanding that the charge be proven. When the charge is proven, we ask them to remember that for nineteen hundred years this divine Church has been a bulwark against the forces of evil and to operate through human agencies and through human instruments, and that in her human sphere, as distinct from the divine, the Catholic Church, like any other organization in life, has the right to be judged on the basis of her average and never on the basis of her worst."
 Expressing his belief that sinister forces in the United States are seeking to entangle our Government in the Spanish situation, the convention went on record as opposing "any action of conduct on the part of Government, groups or individuals tending to involve us in affairs of any foreign government."
 This resolution, one of a group adopted at the closing session was taken to be aimed at the Spanish situation which recurrently injected itself into the convention.

Former General In Chinese Army Becomes Trappist

PEKING (NC)—An unusual vocation at the Trappist monasteries is that of a former Chinese general who during a revolution some years ago was made prisoner and condemned to be shot. During the night preceding the date fixed for his execution there came to him in his cell three persons who told him: "Tomorrow you will be saved." The prediction came true.
 He returned to Shensi, his native Province, and chanced one day to enter a Catholic Church where, he said, he recognized in a picture of the Holy Family the three persons who had visited him in prison. He took instruction in the Faith and became an excellent Catholic. He later became a Trappist, following the example of the famous Chinese Benedictine monk Lu Tsing-haiang, former Foreign Minister of China, he joined the Trappists and is now among the novices.
