The Rochester Catholic League after a week of idleness due to rain last Sunday will attempt to play a full schedule on the various fields of play. Feature game of the weekend is the Mt. Carmel and St. Margaret Mary encounter on the Armory diamond.

Mt. Carmel, with but one loss, has to beat the strong "Saint" team in order to remain behind the league leader St. Andrew ten games to win the Ontario Street boys, while Jim Champagne is expected to use his ace righthander, Tommy Hastings, on the hill. Both teams need this game to stay in the first division.

Night baseball is something new for the Grammar League, but both division leaders have worked out under the lights during the past week and players and coaches of both teams are ready to go.

Priests Lose To Protestant Clergy Ball Team

RALEIGH N.C. The Protestant team without protest. The Catholics lost on errors, but they were errors of omission rather than commission. They overlooked four runs they had intended to commit in the ninth inning.

All of this happened when the softball team composed of priests of this diocese, which only last week had demonstrated triumphantly to a team of State officials what occurred when Church and State are in conflict, went down in defeat before a team of Protestant clerics.

Let on by their capable manager, the Most Rev. Eugene J. McGuinness, Bishop of Raleigh, it seemed the Catholic team once more would triumph, but this a world of war and often the best man is guilty of error.

The process of returning included the act of giving the umpire a Protestant, a cleric, an assistant, too, it is alleged.
