SILVER JUBILEE OF FATHER CIACCIO

Marked by Children Of St. Anthony's

A former war chaplain, one who knew native service with the Italian forces in the thick of World War fighting, the Rev. Paul M. Ciaccio, pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Church was honored by children of the school on Friday to mark the 25th anniversary of ordination to the Priesthood.

With the children present, Father Ciaccio celebrated a special anniversary high Mass on Friday, assisted by the Michael Tydings, Assistant Pastor, as deacon, and the Rev. Augustine Varricchio, C. SS. R., of Pittsburgh, subdeacon.

In the evening the children gave a Silver Jubilee program and presented their pastor with a spiritual bouquet and a gift.

On the program were the following: "Welcome," M. Triano; "Greetings", Our Little Ones; "Dutch Dance," Third Grade; "When I Grow Up," Fourth Grade; "Siciliano," Fifth Grade; Violin Solo, E. Falcone; "Paris Angelicus," M. Borrelli; Tap Dance, J. Canzano; Jubilee Chorus, Grammar Grades; Jubilee Greetings, A. Joseph; "Santa Lucia," Student Body.

Father Ciaccio has been pastor of St. Anthony's since 1922. He taught Italian at St. Bernard's Seminary for two years while pastor here. For several months he served at Mt. Morris on coming here from Italy where he was ordained.

RETREAT FOR LAYMEN FOLLOWS ONE FOR PRIESTS

The Priests' retreat being conducted this week will be followed on Friday evening, June 17 by the first of two for laymen of the diocese at St. Bernard's Seminary.

Giving the meditations at the retreat for diocesan officials and pastors this week was the Rev. Peter A. Crumley, O. F. M., of Chicago.

The laymen's retreat will be conducted by the Rev. Albert Murray, O. S. F.

A meeting of the Layman's Retreat League will be held on Sunday afternoon. On Monday morning His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, will celebrate a low Mass to close the laymen's retreat.

Missionaries Depart

QUEBEC—Five Religious of the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary have left for Rome to receive from the superior-general, the Very Rev. Mother Marguerite of the Sacred Heart, their respective obediences for distant missionary fields.

Seminarians To Get Diplomas In Pro-Cathedral

Commencement exercises for graduates of St. Andrew's Seminary will be held Sunday afternoon, June 19, at the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart instead of at St Patrick's Church as was announced in last week's CATHOLIC COURIER.

The exercises will bugin at 4 o'clock and His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney will address the class and confer the awards, assisted by the Rev Edward M. Lyons, rector, and members of the faculty.

The commencement exercises will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Relatives and friends of the young men are invited to attend the ceremonies.

YOUNG DOMINICAN

To Celebrate First Solemn Mass Here

Solemnly ordained Thursday, June 16, the Rev. Thomas A. Morrison, O.P., son of former Public Works Commissioner Thomas J. Morrison and Mrs. Morrison of 373 Grand Ave., will return to Rochester and his home parish, Corpus Christi, to celebrate his first Solemn High Mass Sunday, June 19, at 11 a. m.

Father Morrison's ordination in the Dominican Order took place in Washington at St. Dominick's Church before relatives and friends from Rochester. Besides his family, the ceremonies were attended by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, Vicar General of the Rochester Diocese, and Representative and Mrs. George B. Kelly.

The Sacrament of Holy Orders was bestowed by the Most Rev. John M. McNamara, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Baltimore.

Father Morrison first studied at St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester, later transferring to Aquinas Institute from which he graduated. He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Manhattan College in 1930 and the following year entered the University of Buffalo Law School.

A year later, however, he decided to enter the Dominican Order and, giving up his law career, began studies at St. Joseph's College, Summerset, Ohio, and the Dominican House of Studies in River Forest, Ill., and Catholic University, Washington.

Father Morrison, who will be accompanied to Rochester by a group of Dominican priests, will be at home Monday and Tuesday next week.

NEWLY ORDAINED PRIEST

Returns To St. Andrews For First High Mass

The Rev. William Merchant will celebrate his first Solemn High Mass in St. Andrew's Church, Sunday, June 19, at 11 a. m. The Rev. George W. Eckl, pastor of St. Andrew's Church will preach the sermon.

Father Merchant received the Sacrament of Holy Orders Saturday, June 11, in St. Joseph's new Cathedral, Buffalo. The Most Rev John A. Duffy performed the ordination ceremonies.

After graduating from St Andrew's Parochial School, Father Merchant attended St Andrew's Seminary in this city, later completing his studies at St Bonaventure's Seminary, Allegany

Commercial School At St. Joseph's To Carry On

St. Joseph's Commercial School will carry on at its present site on Franklin Street, it is announced today by the Rev. Nastvogel, C.SS.R., rector of St. Joseph's Church.

The false impression has got around that since St. Joseph's Asylum will be merged with St. Mary's Boys' Home and St. Patrick's Girls' Home after July 1, that this would mean the end of St. Joseph's Commercial School.

Father Nastvogel announces that the Commercial School will continue to function in the future as in the past.

The Asylum and the Commercial School are separate institutions.

Fruits of SAVINGS

Into the Colonial history of our country is woven the story of that beloved character, Johnny Appleseed. Fifty years of his life he wandered through the country from east to as far west as Missouri, planting appleseeds. Many of today's apple orchards came from nurseries he planted a century ago. As Johnny Appleseed's trees yield their bounty year after year, the fruits of early purposeful savings are annual yields in dividends. Take a tip from the foresight of Johnny Appleseed and begin saving today.
