HOLY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION

Rev. John S. Randall, Director

You will recall that I sounded a warning last week, namely, that you take special care of your daily mission prayer. Nothing counts like prayers. Remember an English poet once wrote, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of" Never were truer words written, especially regarding the missions The success which our priests and sisters have enjoyed in mission countries is due in part to your pennies, but their greatest help has been your prayers Prayer is just the difference between Catholic mission work and non Catholic mission work Let's be real Catholics all summer long then, and make it a daily and monthly Holy Communion for the Missions of God's Church.

Weekly Report

Perhaps you have noticed in the daily papers that the performers of Ringling Brothers Circus have gone on a strike That, at least for a time makes the Circus Parade an impossibility Yet the Holy Childhood parade continues, despite the close of school and the beginning of that deserved vacation It keeps right on marching by Perhaps this will be the last week, but not because you're on a mission strike It's only due to vacation

Well, anyway, here they come in all their glory And lo and behold, look who's copped the lead this week Sure, it's our old friends from St Margaret Mary's, Rochester Let me tell you right here that they have done a swell job this year and now they're bringing a glorious work to a close with five ransoms Fine business, boys and girls Here's to you for a summer vacation packed full of the things you most enjoy

Here are their adoptions Boys of the Seventh Grade a pagan named Joseph. Fifth Grade calls for another pagan to be called Michael, the Third Grade selects the name of Elizabeth for their little Indian, the Second Grade want a Chinese boy whom they would baptize William, and the Fourth Grade directs us to hunt them up an Indian baby and name him Joseph Vincent

Thanks very much St. Margaret Marys We'll be looking for you right on top next September

There is a tie for second place However, since the boys and girls of the Sixth Grade at Nazareth Hall ransomed their three babies all by themselves, we'll put them ahead

We are only twelve in number but we have ransomed eight babies Four of our boys have even ransomed babies by themselves We have the most money of any grade in our school and we are going to try to ransom a ninth baby If we remain united for another year we will promise you to keep up our mission spirit

Please name our three babies David Anthony a Filipino Robert Gordon an Indian boy and James Peter a Negro Robert Norton and John Farley, Sixth Grade, Nazareth Hall.

I only wish we had room to print their entire letter and also their picture They passed along a couple of ideas that are working for them However boys you can be sure that we appreciate all you have done and were counting on you for a good many years to come

Running neck and neck with them is Holy Family Auburn

"We are very happy to tell you that we now have a third baby We already have a Chinese and a Negro baby and we would like to have an Indian baby and his name is to be Isaac Jogues Next year when we are in the Fourth Grade, we will try to get more money for babies" Paul Luckern and Paul McQueeney, Third Grade, Holy Family, Auburn.

The Fifth Grade of Holy Family School would like a pair of Negro twins We are going to name them John and Julia These two will make four pagan babies that we have We have a pretty hard time deciding what we would name them and whether we would have two boys and two girls But we finally decided to get a boy and a girl Barbara McMahon, Fifth Grade, Holy Family, Auburn.

A great job boys and girls and thanks a million I know that you will all be in there plugging your heads off next year I just wonder for whom you named these twins?

Next in line of march we see Holy Cross School Charlotte The boys and girls of the Second Third and Fourth Grades are adopting a Negro baby whom they have decided to name Aloysius.

Along side marches the Fifth and Sixth Grades of St Mary's Rochester

Well here we are all full of smiles again There is no use asking why because when you open the envelope and see that nice juicy five dollars shine out at you, you'll know what it's for

We are choosing a little colored baby Seeing as how the President of the Holy Childhood worked all year for the missions we are naming the baby Salvator John Delberth Please rush our order to the missions as this our last ransom is in honor of the Sacred Heart Bob McCall, Fifth and Sixth Grades, St. Mary's, Rochester.

Dues

And here's the biggest surprise of all Four of those schools are cleaning up their dues. Nazareth Hall having already taken care of this little debt St Margaret Mary's, Rochester $16.50 Holy Cross Charlotte, $9.16, St Mary's Rochester, $2.40, and Holy Family, Auburn $1.37

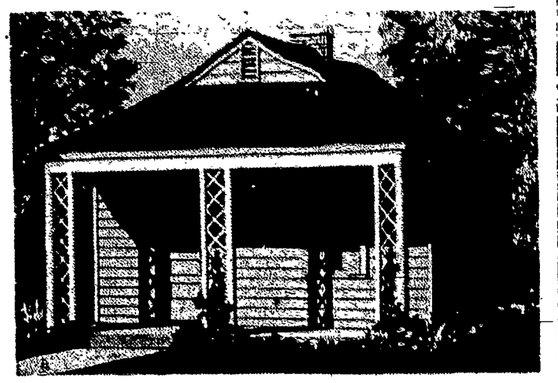
Farewell!

Probably this is good bye until September Unless some other school reports ransoms during the week the Holy Childhood Column will be discontinued until the reopening of school

Boys and girls I hardly know how to thank you for all your good work during the year Through your prayers and pennies you have made us one of the leading dioceses of the country in Mission work Glancing at last year's report, which appeared in the recent issue of the Holy Childhood Annual we find that we are right near the top And I am positive that if you keep up your mission spirit, we will make it not for the leaders another year This is all your doing and I thank you each and every one Likewise do I say thanks to all the good Sisters who guided you so enthusiastically in your work

Words are pretty weak when it comes to saying thanks for such a wonderful job The best I can do in return is to promise my Mass next Sunday for all the members of the Holy Childhood and the Sisters who helped make our year a success Thanks a million

A Convenient Plan



The extremely low cost of this pleasing home places it within the reach of every person desiring the comfort and satisfaction of owning his own home Two floor plans with the same elevation are provided, one with one bedroom, the other with two Both plans are practical, economical, durable and roomy providing assurance that the choice of such a home will be one of lasting satisfaction. The handling of the large porch is attractive.
