the work of the parish. His business acumen is highly regarded by those with whom he has had dealings.

Improvements in the Church erection of the school, and improvements in rectory and convent have all been directed by the pastor In addition he has carried on the parish life, encouraging, serving and guiding Dating back to civil war times, the parish originally was founded in the village of Charlotte by Father Maurice, a French missionary priest, and pioneer in Catholicity in Western New York. Father Maurice attended the few Catholics in that section as a mission of the Mother of Sorrows Church of which he was put in charge of Bishop Timon of Buffalo.

Conducted Sunday School

For two years before there was a Catholic Church in Charlotte, Father Maurice visited each week and conducted Sunday School in the front room of the Andrew Mulligan residence which stood where Holy Cross Church now stands.

In 1862 he purchased the property, had it altered to make a suitable church building and it was blessed and dedicated on May 3, 1863. The Church enlarged several times prior to 1877 was completed in the form of a cross.

Among the parishioners of that time, it is recorded, there was developed a strong feeling of friendship and love for Father Maurice even after Holy Cross ceased to be his charge. He died on Christmas Day, 1895 and is buried in Mt. Read Cemetery.

First Resident Pastor

The first resident pastor was the Rev. John J. Donnelly, appointed on July 7, 1873. Succeeding him was the Rev. Thomas A. Hendricks later to become pastor of St. Bridget's Church and Bishop of Cebu in the Philippine Islands. Father Hendricks served from August 1874 to December 1876.

Next to become pastor was the Rev. Simon FitzSimons who remained until July 1877. During his time Father FitzSimons had charge of the Cemetery Chapel and Excelsior Farm opposite Riverside Cemetery operated by orphan boys under the direction of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The Rev. John M. FitzGerald succeeded Father FitzSimons. Under Father FitzGerald funds were raised for the erection of a new church building and the cornerstone of the present edifice was laid on August 28, 1881 with Bishop McQuaid officiating.

The church was dedicated in the fall of 1882.

Church Retained by Fire

During a Christmas celebration the old church was destroyed by fire in 1885. On this site Father FitzGerald erected a new parochial school building which was opened in September 1887 by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The school was completed in November 1890. The present rectory was built during Father FitzGerald's pastorate.

When the Sisters came to teach in the school they occupied the convent. Sister Mary Sylvester now Reverend Mother of the Order of St. Joseph Sisters, was the first principal. The school building was destroyed by fire in June 1895.

In October 1895, Father Payne became pastor. He served seventeen and a half years making many improvements in the parish property. The school was built and opened in September 1905 in charge of Sisters of Mercy. In July 1911 when Father Payne was transferred to St. Mary's parish Auburn, he left not only a flourishing school but also an increase in the religious spirit of the people in Charlotte.

Trustees of Church

Present trustees of Holy Cross Church are James F. Fleming and H. Louis Feiss. Among the early trustees the name of Patrick Tiernan stands out prominently.

This artistically designed window appears above the altar in the permanent tomb containing the bodies of Bishop McQuaid and Bishop O'Hern in All Souls' Chapel at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Depicting the Crucifixion the window was designed and executed by the Deprato Studios of New York.

Social Centers' Activities

Genesee Institute

Troop 87 was well represented at the camporee held last week end at Mendon Ponds. Fifteen boys under leadership of Scoutmaster Russ Russo had an enjoyable camping experience despite the rain. Much progress was recorded by the Scouts.

Monday June 27 was the day on which the new Summer Schedule went into effect at the Genesee Institute. The Center is open daily from 9:00 to 4:00 with a program consisting of Craft work, Drawing Art, Showers, Rest Hour, Story Hour, Cooking Classes, Sewing Classes, Dramatic groups and Italian Language groups. Children will be taken out on picnics Mondays and Tuesdays while a Day Camp will be operated on Tuesdays and Fridays. This; plus the 17-team baseball leagues and the horseshoe pitching, volleyball, checkers and track activities at Fronton Place give plenty of activity to every person in the community.

The Brules Cooking class at their last meeting presented their teacher, Miss Mae Sweeney, with a bouquet of roses in appreciation of the work she has done for them this past year. This particular class is suspending its activities until September.

Merrimac Center

The newly formed Boy Scout Troop No. 210 had its first taste of camping and had a good mix ture on their first attempt. Eleven boys were at Mendon Ponds for the Camporee and were rewarded with hot weather, mosquitoes rainy weather and cold weather. But the boys survived all this and are looking forward to their next camping trip sometime in July. The advancement recorded was Knife and Hatchet, Fire Lighting and Cooking.
