LIBRARY SIGNPOST

In the full flush of these dog-days, one can measure with better appreciation the sacrifice of self which brings our volunteer librarians week after week to take their turn at the library...

Principles vs. Policy Sursuum Corda

By Rev. James M. Gellis, C.S.P., Editor The Catholic World

The "falling out" between the Holy Father and Mussolini was bound to come. There is a fundamental conflict between Catholicism and excessive nationalism...

So when the Holy Father learned that the Fascists were following the Nazis in the matter of stirring up race hatred...

RUMORS OF WARS

Every few months there are new reports of a Second World War in the offing. When Dolfus was shot, the world held its breath...

Still there is this truth behind it. A magazine chock-full of gunpowder requires only a spark to set it off. And a world armed to the teeth with war-weapons and hatreds, needs only one of these small incidents to make it explode...

But we must not forget that America is basically not much better off than the European nations which it criticizes. We have not learned very well ourselves what constitutes true peace...

LENIN AND ST. FRANCIS

A strange pair to speak of in the same breath! But that is the interesting point. Lenin was really convinced that Marxism was the only solution. At the time when he was pondering his own campaign...

Five Years Ago

FROM AUGUST 17, 1933 ISSUE Holy Year pilgrims from the Rochester Diocese returned after an impressive tour of Europe. They were led by the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Diocesan Director...

Capital Letter

By N. C. W. G. News Service

In the not few weeks the House committee investigating subversive activities in the United States is expected to reveal how far the various "isms" generated in foreign countries have become rooted here in Washington...

Curiously enough the professed intent of the "bunds" and other Nazi organizations on American soil is to catch communism when the time comes. But this has not been the outcome...

Question Box

Q. Is there any indulgence attached to the prayers recited after Mass? A. By a decree issued in 1934, the prayers after Low Mass are enriched with an indulgence of ten years...

Spiritual Thoughts

Knowledge ought to be counterpoised by humility. Cardinal Gibbons. Again the walls of ancient knowledge shall cheer the thirsty lip and again waste places, fane and college, the radiance wear of days pass by.

Diocesan Recordings

The Recorder's vacation is over when he returns to the office. Instead of the call to go summering...

Social Action

IN OUR TIMES. "The norms average working man has that of one who works because the work-work to live in the circumstance of every-day life, who works in a factory, store, office, school, hospital kitchen, in restaurant and beauty parlors who find it hard to protect himself against injustice and who looks forward to a normal marriage, children and a home life."
