IN ONE EAR

By BILL ROGERS

Popular Vacationers Return Art Kelly, Tom Murray, and L. the three "early bird" broadcasters of WHAM were almost bowed last week when a cheerful visitor showed his face.

Well, we couldn't let an opportunity like that go by, and since Pete had verbal permission from the higher ups, reached by phone the night before for an interview.

This famous comedy team came back to their regular 7:15-7:45 a. m. spot Monday, about two weeks before they were expected.

Words and More Words

More words are written for an average day of broadcasting on the NBC than are contained in three full-length novels, according to press releases from the National Broadcasting Company.

WAR ON FILMS OF IRRELIGIOUS THEMES PLANNED BY LEGION

CINCINNATI—The Legion of Decency will oppose "the efforts of those who would make for the dissemination of the false, atheistic, and immoral doctrines repeatedly condemned by all accepted moral teachers."

"The Legion of Decency," he says, "with every resource at its command, shall challenge any program using the popular theater screen to exploit such invidious doctrines. Secular efforts are not in themselves the concern of the Legion of Decency. When, however, contrary to all that is truly American, including principles of morality are called, and atheism and irreligion are fostered, the Legion must in pursuit of its single and unvarying objective of a morally wholesome screen, intensify the full weight of Catholic opinion and authority."
