NEWLY REFURBISHED CHARLES HOUSE

Invites Public To Housewarming

"I am all repainted and remodeled. I want you to see me at my housewarming Friday, October 14, from 7 to 10 p.m.—Charles House, Jay and Saxton Streets."

This invitation has been issued to the hundreds of friends and interested observers of the Charles House settlement owned and operated by the Division of Social Action of the Rochester Catholic Charities.

The housewarming will take place at the Charles House next Friday evening. The public is invited to come and inspect the newly decorated building, and to see just what kind of work the settlements are doing and the facilities with which they are provided.

The Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, has been invited to attend the reception. Numerous diocesan priests and representatives from many city social agencies will be present. The Rev. Gerald C. Lambert, Director of the Rochester Catholic Charities, and the Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, director of the Social Action Division, will be guests of honor.

Miss Mary Hannick and Miss Ruth Ehmann, workers at the Charles House, will act as hostesses. Guests will be entertained by the children and members of the settlement classes and refreshments will be served.

C.Y.O. HEADQUARTERS

Now Established In East Rochester

Opening of the new Catholic Youth Organization headquarters in East Rochester was celebrated Wednesday evening, September 28, by a group of officials and churchmen of East Rochester and vicinity. The new C. Y. O. headquarters is equipped with facilities for indoor athletics and sports and will provide a recreational centre for the youth of East Rochester.

The Rev. Bernard Gefell, pastor of St. Jerome's Church in East Rochester and under whose direction the hall was built, was the honored guest of the evening. The Rev. Geo. Jerome Vogt was toastmaster.

Speakers at the occasion were the Rev. Arthur J. Smith, Rev. Albert Simonett, who delivered a speech in Italian, the Rev. F. William Schrader and the Rev. Joseph E. Vogt.

The Mayor, Justice of Peace, Principals of the local high school and other officials of East Rochester were present.

During the past year the Catholic Youth Organization, making the Rev. Bernard Gefell, made possible a week's vacation at Camp Della Maris for one hundred East Rochester boys. The Ladies Sewing Society of St. Jerome's Church cooperated in this enterprise.

Many social and athletic activities are being planned by the East Rochester C. Y. O. group for the coming season.

The C. Y. O. Youth Organization is a unit of the Division of Social Action of the Rochester Catholic Charities.

ST. BONA'S BEGIN THIRD YEAR OF RADIO PROGRAMS

St. Bonaventure College on Monday, Oct. 3, at 11:00 a.m. opened her third consecutive year of radio activities with a program presented over station WHDL, Olean, from the college studio in Alumni Hall, on the campus.

Under the direction of the Rev. Claude Kean, O.F.M., with the assistance of Prof. James L. Hayes, two programs will originate from the college daily, except on Saturdays and Sundays. As in past seasons, the hours for these broadcasts will be 11:00 a.m. and 4:45 p.m.

The morning programs will be conducted by members of the St. Bonaventure faculty. On Mondays the Rev. Victor Mills, O.F.M., will talk on Sociology; on Tuesdays, Chester E. Klee, M.M., pianist, and William F. Foote, B.Mus., baritone, members of the college department of music, will present another edition of "Music for You." The Wednesday morning period will feature Dr. John C. Armstrong in comments on current events.

The Rev. Hubert Vecchiereilo, O.F.M., Dean of Science, will talk each Thursday morning on the flora and fauna of this vicinity. On Friday mornings, the Rev. Claude Kean, O.F.M., will discuss problems of every-day English. A program designed to rehearse the rudiments of French language will be conducted each Saturday morning by the Rev. Hugo A. Von Preda, O.F.M.

Joseph Paul was in charge of the affair, assisted by William Mitchell, Charles E. Geherin, Edward F. Secaur, Henry Tamburo, Robert M. Hanlon, Joseph Walsh and George Pinckney.

We are often prophets to others, only because we are our own historians.—Madame Swetchine.

C. Y. O. ACTIVITIES

Mt. Carmel Wins League Confalon

The Catholic Softball League rang down the curtain on another season last Sunday morning when the Mt. Carmel team took the league title with a 6-5 victory over St. Andrew's.

Hank Hudson, who has hurled air-tight ball throughout the season, pitched five hit ball Sunday and was invincible in the pinches. He won his own ball game by banging out a bingle in the sixth inning with the bases loaded.

The St. Andrew's team came right back on their half to score two runs on a pair of walks. Hudson was lifted in favor of Cardimone. The losers scored five runs on five hits.

AERIAL ATTACK GIVES Auburn 19-0 Victory Over Cazenovia

AUBURN. — With a convincing 19-0 game in the victory column over Cazenovia, the Purple and Gold of Holy Family High School rang up the curtain on the 1938 season. Johnny Flynn's outfit looked impressive as the losers failed to get beyond the Purple 20-yard line.

The Purple squad scored heavily through the air as this made both scores possible. The third score came on an intercepted pass.

The whole squad saw action including the following: Emperor, Gonya, Herring, Synott, McDonald, Nelson, Ryan, Belknap, Connors, Crehan, O'Hora, Tonai Schneider, Donnelly, White, Oliver, O'Connor, Kinney, Bolger, Calisprone, Donahue, Rogers and Foster.

AQUINAS EAGER TO SCORE FIRST WIN

In Contest With Irondequoit

Aquinas resumes play this Saturday against the strong Irondequoit team. The Irish will be out to put a game in the win column after that one point loss of last week to the Cook Academy outfit.

Johnny Sullivan has been ironing out some of the plays of last week which seemed to just miss clicking. Much credit is due to Kennedy and Lynch of Cook who managed to get in on most of the plays. These ends played a whale of a ball game, and ruffled many a play.

The loss to Cook Academy was the first defeat suffered by the Irish at the hands of a high school team since 1933, when St. Joe's turned the trick.

The loss was a stunning surprise one point difference tells the story of the game and after the dispute over a technically on Cook's try for conversion, most of the 6,000 spectators thought the game ended in a tie.

This week's encounter with the Baysiders from Irondequoit should prove an acid test for the Irish. Veterans stud the lineup for the Baysiders and Aquinas will have a tough time annexing a win at the expense of this squad of regulars. But the Irish will be shooting for their initial victory of the year and will offer plenty of opposition. The lineup will probably be the same as that which faced Cook Academy, given below:

AQUINAS		COOK
LE	Walsh	Kennedy
LT	Teerlinck	Brown
LG	Conte	Dietze
C	Maggio	Getman
RG	Kelly	Snow
RT	Fuller	Cornell
RE	Mooney	H. Lynch
QB	B. Gallagher	Freeland
HB	Peartree	Hines
HB	Heagney	Macalliar
FB	Audycki	Storrier

Aquinas	6	6	0	0	33
Cook	7	0	0	0	13

Touchdowns, Heagney, Gallagher, Kennedy, M. Lynch, goals after touchdown, Storrier. Referee, Carroll, umpire, Campbell, headlinesman, Lyons, time of quarters, 12 minutes. Substitutions, Aquinas: Holenstein, Heffernan, Hennessey, Landry, Winkler, Kolb, Cook: Keeler, M. Lynch, Goulding.

Holy Childhood Association

Rev. John S. Randall
DIRECTOR

Well, boys and girls here we are on the grand and glorious morning all prepared to give you a great report of last week's activity. But, can you imagine it, we haven't anything to report! Nary a school heard from during the week. However, we're not going to let it get us down, neither are we going to reach for a camel to give us a lift. We're simply going to be encouraged by reason of your marvelous work last year and your promise of keeping the Mission pot boiling.

I have decided to make good use of this space. Even though there is no report to make there is something worth talking about, namely Mission Sunday. In every Catholic Church throughout the world, October 23rd is known as Mission Sunday. No matter what the Church is, a great big Cathedral like our own or a mud-chapel like we find in Africa, it is still Mission Day. Even though the people themselves belong to a mission country, they nevertheless, celebrate this day as Mission Sunday. So no matter where you might be, whether jostled about by a mammoth crowd in St. Patrick's Cathedral New York City, or overcome with the size and beauty of St. Peter's, Rome, Italy or squeezed in between three or four Chinese in Shanghai, or kneeling alongside a Japanese in Tokyo, or squatting on the sun-baked grass of India, or jammed into a grass-thatched church in Africa, or bundled in furs in Alaska, you would still be observing this great day for the Missions.

You have frequently demonstrated your love of the missions. Now we are going to call upon you once more to lend a helping hand. Yes we're counting on each one of you to put this day over, to help us to make it the greatest success ever. How can you do it? Let me make a few suggestions.

The first one is easy. I'll bet you could, all ... that this day may be the great success we want it to be. Why we would be crazy, yes I mean crazy to even hope for success without your prayers. How about going to Holy Communion on Mission Sunday for this intention. What a sight that would be, if every boy and girl approached the altar rails of their churches to receive the Body and Blood of the Great Missionary Himself, begging Him to awaken all people to the needs of our missions. Might we count on that?

Now what next? Well, there is a lot of reading you might do. Go into your school library and haul down a copy of Catholic Missions, the Holy Childhood Annals, the Little Missionary or some other mission magazine. Sneak off into a corner for a few minutes and read some of those interesting stories of our priests and sisters working in the different countries of the world.

Couldn't you artists make a few posters for your classroom or for the bulletin board in the main corridor. Instead of drawing pictures in your text books or playing tick-tack-toe on the blackboards, you might put your talent to a much better use. Your poster would arouse the interest of other boys and girls in this great cause. Your biggest job and the one which will assure us of the greatest success is to make "missioners" of yourselves. All that you learned from your reading will do nobody any good unless you talk about it to others. That's where you can really help. Talk! Talk! and then talk some more. Repeat the stories you've read, tell others about the hardships which our priests and sisters are suffering in Mission fields.

And then encourage everybody to answer the Mission appeal in the best way they can. If they are working warn them not to let the collection basket sneak by their noses without dropping in something. And I mean money, not collar buttons. Real hard cash, and a dollar if they possible can.

There you have a few little ways of helping along the success of Mission Sunday. Remember the best way Holy Communion for every boy and girl on Sunday, October 23rd. Can I count on you?

DUES

While you're busy with all that for the Propagation of the Faith, I would encourage you not to forget your own Society, the Holy Childhood. Have you paid your dues yet? That's the first thing to take care of, you know. Say, if you don't go to that movie you plan on seeing Saturday, you can march in on Monday with your dime and pay for dues for the entire year. That's a good idea, isn't it?

ALUMNI OF CATHOLIC U. FORM LOCAL CHAPTER

Three Rochesterians were elected to offices in the newly founded Western New York Chapter of the Catholic University of America Alumni Association, at a meeting on September 29.

John A. Temmerman was elected Honorary President; Mark H. Fitzgibbons, Oswego, President; J. Raymond Tobin, Secretary; Dr. James N. Eastham, Treasurer.

The meeting was called by James J. Bowe, National Secretary and Treasurer of the Association, for the purpose of organizing this chapter. A large number of graduates attended the initial meeting.

Frederick Mix of Rochester, N. Y. was appointed as delegate to the Golden Jubilee dinner of Catholic University to be held in New York on November 13.

Among the delegates from the various districts were William Gainey of Auburn and Dr. William Sheridan of Buffalo.

Bishop Confirms At St. Boniface Oct. 9

His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. Boniface Church Sunday, October 9, at 4:30 P.M.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John will celebrate their fortieth anniversary Sunday, October 9. The organization has been one of the most active units in the church and are to be congratulated.

Rosary, Altar Society Holds Monthly Meeting

ELMIRA HEIGHTS.—The Rosary and Altar Society of St. Charles Church held its monthly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 P.M. in the Church Hall.

The business meeting was followed with a social session. Hostesses were Mesdames Eugene Sage, Albert Schiefen, Faustin Clusse and Joseph Frisk. Refreshments were served to the large gathering.

Social Centers' Activities

Genesee Institute

In the playoff game of the Senior Baseball League of the Genesee Institute, the Invaders captured the title of the league with a score of 2-0 over the opposing Cardinals. The game was staged under the lights at the Kodak Park field.

Malone pitched a good game for the winners, and displayed exceptional skill several instances during the game when his bases were crowded. Circumstances against him seemed to inspire him to better play. Lacagnina caught for the Invaders.

Cardinal batteries were Stagliano and Capalupo.

Saturday over at the Genesee marks the meeting day for the Checker Club. There are at present about fifteen members in the club, and membership is growing by leaps and bounds, as the neighborhood lads become fascinated one by one by the ancient game of checkers.

The club members learn to play the game with the finesse of a professional, and make their own checkerboards.

A guest speaker and fellow checker-enthusiast will be present at the next meeting.

Workers at the Genesee Institute are attending a first aid class every Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 P. M. The course is conducted at the Institute.

An Opportunity Class is being conducted at the Genesee Institute for the children of No. 27 School. The boys' class is conducted every Wednesday and Friday afternoon, and the girls are cared for on Tuesday and Thursday.

A special gym class has been programmed for the children.

Merrimac Centre

Housecleaning season is well under way over at the Merrimac. The workers have been cleaning and painting the Centre, and the dressing and shower rooms have been redecorated.

Acute SIT—uation: the little children of Merrimac Centre, due to a very unfortunate and unforeseen incident, are without seating facilities. The wooden desks formerly used at the Centre have disappeared, and there is an urgent plea for donations and contributions to help finance the purchase of steel folding chairs, which will be secure and safe, for the children. Anyone interested in this betterment fund may call Stone 1492 and inquire from the Rev. Joseph E. Vogt.

Charles House

The Sea Scouts of the Charles House excursioned via canoe to Camp Ganeaga near Industry last Saturday. The Scouts, under Mate John Manchester, left Rochester in twelve canoes for their thirty-mile trip. The journey took them seven hours to Camp Ganeaga, the camp constructed by scouts in Industry. The return trip lasted only three hours, due to the favorable current of the high river.

Bowling

Link Rolls 234 In K. of C. League

In the Knights of Columbus Bowling League, rolling on the Columbus Civic Center alleys, the champion Pirates took three straight contests from Ed Schoenenman's Puritans.

The Ninas took three from the Guards, while the Indians managed to top the Santas in two out of three. Tom McCarthy's Pintas edged out the strong Klute team for a two out of three margin.

Dan Fitzgerald had the high total of the evening with a 371, while Charlie Raymond had a 368 and Tom Gavaghan had a 350.

Among the individual games, Link led the parade with a 234, Jack Kinney had a 225. Tom Gavaghan had a 223, Art Klein had a 201, as did Larry Morrow.

ARE YOU LISTED IN THE 1939 DIRECTORY?
