AQUINAS READY FOR STRONG C. B. A.

Eleven In Rubber Contest, Saturday

By ED ESSE

Aquinas Institute returns to gridiron warfare this week against opposition in its own class, when it meets the highly touted Christian Brothers Academy team from Syracuse This game will be the rubber contest for both teams and will probably be a tooth and nail fight right down to the whistle.

The C. B. A. squad carried off the honors in 1932 with a hard fought 6-0 victory The Irish returned the favor with a vengeance last year when they handed the Salt Lake City team an 18-0 drubbing

This year's contest brings together two strong teams. C B A is riding the crest of one of its best years It is one of the highest scoring teams in the vicinity of Syracuse and boasts an enviable record They are definitely ready for the Maroon and White and will certainly take plenty of beating before relinquishing victory

The Irish on the other hand, have had an in and out season Against Cook Academy they played mediocre ball and lost a close game Inability to keep the ends of the Cook team in check proved fatal to the Maroon chances.

Victory

Coming back the next week the Irish took the Irondequoit team into camp In the last quarter the lads from the Bay region gave the Irish a real scare when they notched two scores in rapid succession through the air

Moving in against tough opposition the Sullivan squad took the highly touted Hobart Frosh over the coals The strength of the Irish asserted itself as they wore down the Frosh

Last week, it was impossible for the Irish to cope with the mammoth squad from Niagara. They were entirely too big especially the center They were by far, the best trained team the Maroon have met Against them, the rish line struggled valiantly but futilely to stem the Purple horde. The forward wall deserved plenty of credit for holding the Frosh as well as they did

The Aquinas team scored once through the air This may be the weapon the Irish will employ against the C B A gridders. Winkler was the only one able to get away last week as the Frosh concentrated on bottling Landry up With these two and Hagerty Pat Sullivan and Jack Cronin to, physical shape the Irish jugger aut may form forward this week and run rampant over the Brothers team

AUBURN WINS 12-0

Over Cortland To Keep Perfect Record

AUBURN Holy Family's Purple and Gold gridiron stalwarts remained undefeated and untied when they subdued a hard fighting St Marys of Cortland team 13-0 It makes the third consecutive triumph for the locals and puts them in top shape for the tough St Aloysius eleven of Rome, this week

The forward wall of the Flynnmen showed plenty of power as it opened up numerous holes resulting in long gains. Hickey Synnott and McDonald turned in standout performances all afternoon

The fighting Cortland team was back in the shadow of its own goal posts practically all the first quarter but managed to hold the ball on downs on its own eight yard line as the period ended Holy Family started its first scoring drive early in the second stanza when Donahue recovered a Cortland fumble on Cortland's own 15 yard line George Tonzi went off tackle for eight yards and Fullback Jack Crehan raced to the two yard line before being forced out of bounds

Tonzi on a quarterback sneak was nosed over for the touchdown Ja Synnotts attempt to convert was blocked.

The Locals marched 64 yards for their final score late in the fourth quarter With Bob Schneider Ray Kenny Crehan and Tonzi each netting first downs on spectacular runs the Purple and Gold football ers went to the visitors 12-yard line Crehan behind beautiful interference raced wide around his own left end to cross the goal standing up Synnott kicked the extra point

DIRECTOR

That's a big day over with. I mean Mission Sunday. Now we await the returns from the various parishes which will tell their own story. We wanted this to be the greatest Mission Sunday in all history Whether or not we have succeeded, we'll know soon enough.

I feel certain that I am absolutely correct in thanking you boys and girls for your help in the observance of Mission Sunday. You'll never know all the good your Holy Communions and prayers accomplished. It was just what we needed to awaken the people to their duties. As I suggested at the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral if only the grown people would follow the example of the children in our schools, we would be quite satisfied with the results.

It is just possible that some people are still undecided about their obligations towards the Missions. Maybe you could help them to make up their minds. For this reason I am asking you to keep up the chatter and persuade anyone who is hesitating to get busy and do their bit.

Weekly Report

The results of the past week are most gratifying If the number of returns is any indication of the way in which we celebrated Mission Sunday we are going to be very happy I'm sure, it's the biggest day so far this year Things are beginning to happen now And once we get rolling well there's just no stopping us I'm broadcasting the warning to the whole country that the boys and girls of the Rochester Diocese are off Now watch our smoke If anybody beats us this year they've got to go some As wonderful as were our efforts last year, we want everyone to know that we were just trying things out and we got a rather late start But this year just watch our smoke

Here they come Look at the length of that line today And are they happy Why wouldn't they be These are the boys and girls who have saved and worked until they had enough to ransom a pagan boy And now with bands blaring and flags waving they're letting the whole world know just how pleased they are

Let's pull over here to the curb and see who's in the line of march Say look at the crowd in that first group I wonder who they can be? Oh yes I might have known It's that gang from Portland Avenue Sure you know St Andrew's School They were second in the diocese last year But this year That's another story

Hey Fellow many pennies this week What For Holy Smokes! Can you imagine that! Well there's the Seventh Grade North with their second adoption Did you get that? Their Second There's also an Indian named Vincent Francis Long The Sixth Grade going them one and of a little Chinese baby named Edward Thomas Another mates the Third Grade running Vincent Francis an Indian

We would so like a Indian girl Please name Shirley Mary Ann

Fourth Grade Girls, St. Andrew's.

This is for baby No 2 The boys beat the girls so please ask for a Chinese baby boy We would like to have him baptized Charles Edward because two of our classmates who gave the most have those names."

The Sixth Grade, St. Andrew's School.

Right on their heels marches their closest rival, St. Mary's, Corning. Last year they led the schools outside of Rochester. And are they proud. But this year, unsatisfied with such an honor, they're shooting for the top. Rochester Schools take this warning--they're out to get you.

This week they report the adoption of three Negro babies, Peter James for the Sixth Grade, Stephen Lawrence for the Seventh Grade, Gabriel for the Eighth Grade. At this rate their goal should be a push over

"The First and Second Grades from dear old St Joseph's have hustled and bustled we have saved our stamps and sold our tinfoil We have saved our pennies until now to our great surprise we are ready for our first ransom. Aren't we proud? We want a Chinese baby to be named after good St Joseph"

First & Second Grade, St. Joseph's, Rochester.

"We wish to ransom a little Indian baby Because today is the feast of St Ursula we wish to give her this name We are praying earnestly for the success of your mission work"

Lois nder, Holy Cross, Charlotte.

"Here is our check for our first baby for the mission season We would like it to be an Indian baby named Mary Ursula"

Elaine Kalb, 8th Grade, St. John's, Rochester.

"Here is our check for a North American Indian baby He is to be called Ralph"

Joseph Bramer, St. John's, Clyde.

The first check from St. Vincent de Paul's, Corning, ransoms a Chinese baby named for the patron Saint of their parish One of the pupils wrote a poem about mission work and Sister thought it good enough to send on to us, so I'm passing it to you

We want to buy from a "Mission"
A little baby boy
So one more soul can be a Christian
We are just so thrilled with joy
We little Catholic girls and boys
The Eighth Grade pennies were saved by all
Just fills our hearts overflowing with joy
To know we can save our dear Vincent Paul

Marianne Keenan.

Dues

Here we are back again Really we do hate to sound like the Broken Record And believe me we wouldn't But there are not many ways of saying you owe your Holy Childhood dues You'll have to hear it from us then In fact we can be attended Like this Everybody pays their dues and that's that

There are four schools took care of the matter They were led by St Mary's Corning with 100 dues paid in full All sign who's next Holy Rosary Rochester took care of a part of theirs, $28.78 and Holy Family Auburn, reported $10.46 Last, but never least the Sixth Grade of St Andrew's $4.60 We are waiting to hear from the rest of you

SODALTALK

By Margaret Worthington

"Ad Jesum per Mariam," the motto of the Sodality will bring Sodalists everywhere to the feet of Christ the King on Sunday October 30 In many parishes the Sodalists are planning to keep a Guard of Honor before the Blessed Sacrament throughout the afternoon As special friends of the Queen of Heaven sodalists by their prayers will intercede with Christ the King for peace on earth

St Bridget's Sodalists held their first dance of the season Friday evening October 21 with music furnished by the Rochester Rhythm Ramblers Loretta Torley served as general chairman with the assistance of the following committee chairmen Arrangements, Rita Fleming Orchestra Dorothy Torley Decorations Angelina Costella

A Penny Bazaar was in progress in the Club Rooms for the in-between the dance intervals Rita Malamphy in charge was assisted by Katherine Gibney, Beatrice Burke Helen Carroll, Dorothy Welch Helen Lewis, Harry McCurn Anthony Lang and Bernard Seufert

There will be ghosts and goblins aplenty at Holy Family Sodality's Hallowe'en Party scheduled for Sunday October 30. Knowing Holy Family as we do, we predict much fun and merriment, and we suppose a "little lunch." Chairman of the affair Dolores Saxe, announces a Mock Wedding as part of the program On the committee are Joseph Braun, Albert Klemmer Thomas St John, Mary Dugan Rita Fess Martha Mottll, Kathleen Freund Ruth Roe, Selma Vay and Clara Long

The kind of news we like to hear—and from Holy Ghost, Coldwater again. The Apostolic Committee has introduced Owen Francis Dudley's The Masterful Monk," to the Sodalists by purchasing the book and starting it on a circulation tour. The book is covered and carries in the front flap government mailing cards addressed to the committee members. As each Sodalist reads the book, she signs her name to the card, giving the name of the person to whom she has given the book and mails the card to the committee Already there is a waiting list and the minimum quota of fifty readers established by the Committee should be reached within the time limit of the Sodality year.

We recommend the systems to Catholic Truth Committees for pamphlets etc

Right in time with our diocesan Mission Sunday representatives at Union meeting Monday night heard about the Apostolic Committee's plan for each Sodality to "adopt" a missionary This is just a preview More at our November meetings

Are you a candid camera fiend or just a snapshot fan? Either one get into the Inter-Sodality Snapshot Contest sponsored by the Publicity Committee of the Sodality Union. No professionals, of course It's all in fun and the award will be a much desired Sodality Key
