Sacred Heart League Unit Formed In Auburn

By M. R. WELCH

Catholic Centre Service AUBURN - A unit of the National Association of the League of the Sacred Heart has recently been reorganized in this city under the title of St. Mary's Center. The League was officially established here several years ago but only recently through the efforts of Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, has interest in it been revived.

Up to the present time 704 members have been enrolled while 55 promoters actively engage in distributing the monthly leaflets, in obtaining new associates and keeping them faithful to the precepts of the League and in general, spreading knowledge of the League and its benefits.

The Rev. William Tobin has been appointed local director of the organization. Promoters meetings are held monthly in Lyceum Hall following the Holy Hour which takes place on the eve of each First Friday.

FINAL REHEARSALS Held For Minstrels And Revue Nov. 17

GENEVA - A unique blend of entertainment in the 1938 manner with a strong favor of the conventional old-fashioned minstrel, will identify the St. Stephen's Club and their annual minstrel and revue this year announced co-directors Alf King and Jimmy Lynch this week. The production is slated for a single showing in the Geneva high school auditorium on the evening of Friday, Nov. 18th.

One of last year's end men will return this year, William J. Nolan, Jr., Robert Baker, Paul Murray, Charles Connell, and Edward "Ace" Hickey. Earl "Red" Holt will complete the septa sextette.

The cast will include Misses May Lawler, Helen Boughton, Margaret Murphy, Margaret Miller, Madeline Bosley, Irene Hughes, Anne McArthur, Helen McArthur, Helen and Jane Egan, Virginia Nease, Jeanne Egan, Margaret Egan, Mary Egan, and Mrs. John J. Egan.

By Marceline Schroeder

CORNING - Officers were elected by the Corning Deanery Council, of the National Council of Catholic Women and plans were made to contact all parishes in Steuben and Livingston counties to affiliate other Catholic women's societies, at a meeting held here.

The origin and duties of the organization were outlined in an address by the Rev. Michael R. Groden, chaplain of the organization. Officers named were: President, Mrs. Lynn Cooper, vice president, Mrs. Catherine Welch, recording secretary, Mrs. James Klock, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter Mullany, treasurer, Margaret Barrett, chaplain, Father Groden; organization chairman, Mrs. Fred DeMuth, welfare chairman, Mrs. Byron Sutherland; immigration, legislative chairman, Rose D'Archiangelo, chairman of movement to inaugurate private devotion to the Sacred Heart, Marcelline Schroeder.

Standing chairman of the three Corning parishes are: St. Vincent's, Mrs. L. W. Kater; St. Mary's, Mrs. M. W. Walker; and St. Patrick's, Mrs. Byron Sutherland.

Mrs. Walter Mullany was named chairman in charge of transportation to the Diocesan Convention on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Thanksgiving Fete Set CORNING - The annual Thanksgiving Festival of St. Vincent's Parish will be held in the hall, November 13 to 22 inclusive.

Plans were also outlined for a new study club on "Communism" with Stephen Corcoran in charge of registration. The meeting was closed with a prayer to the Holy Ghost.

To encourage the exchange of religious articles as Christmas gifts, the Deanery Unit of the National Council of Catholic Women has been given charge of the mission card which has added a special supply of religious, media, miscellanea and pictures to its stock which are offered to the students to assist them in their Christmas shopping.

A noon-time Rosary Club has been organized by the students of St. Stephen's school to meet in St. Joseph's Church to recite the rosary led by a Senior Sister. About one hundred students are in regular attendance at the noon time service.

The festive seasons are just ahead... bringing days made more delightful by the good things of life. In sweet anticipation the mind creates pictures of well-filled tables replete with good food and good cheer. The picture is perfect if it includes WIDMER'S WINES. Both price and quality leave nothing to be desired.
