NOTRE DAME U. HEAD AND DR. FENWICK In U. S. Delegation Going To Lima

WASHINGTON.—A prominent priest, President of a noted Catholic University and the President of the Catholic Peace organization in the United States are among the 12 members of the American delegation which will represent the United States at the eighth international Conference of American States opening at Lima, Peru, December 19.

They are the Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., President of the University of Notre Dame, and Dr. Charles G. Fenwick, Professor of International Law at Bryn Mawr College and President of the Catholic Association for International Peace.

The delegation, which will be headed by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, includes a wide range of representation exemplified by the appointment of Dan W. Tracy, President of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and Miss Kathryn Lewis, daughter of executive assistant to John H. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers and head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, and Alfred M. London, former Republican Party candidate for the Presidency.

Latin-American Background
Adolf A. Berle, Jr., Assistant Secretary of State; Laurence A. Steinhardt, Ambassador to Peru; R. Toro Cuevas, Chief Justice of the Dominican Republic; Emilio del Rey Nieto, Minister to the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico, and Mrs. Elise F. Musser of Salt Lake City.

Father O'Hara has a notable Latin-American background. He was born in Ann Arbor, Mich., but when he was a youth his father, John W. O'Hara of Indianapolis, was a member of the American consular service in Montevideo, Uruguay. Father O'Hara studied at Jesuit colleges in the United States after which he became private secretary to the American Minister, Edward C. O'Brien. His health forced his resignation and in 1905 he went to Argentina to accept a post. On his return to Montevideo a few months later he made business surveys for the American Bureau of Commerce. He spent a half year in Santos, Brazil, when his father was transferred there, returning to the United States in 1908. He entered the University of Notre Dame in January, 1909, being graduated in 1911.

From 1911 to 1915 Father O'Hara studied Latin-American history at the Catholic University of America and then returned to Notre Dame as Prefect of Religion in 1917. Later he was named Dean of the College of Commerce. He was appointed President of Notre Dame University in 1934.

U. S. News Service
Father O'Hara at one time conducted a newspaper news service, his releases in Spanish, French, and other languages. He was prominent in the affairs of the National Trade Council for several years. In 1920 he made a trip to Panama and the South American continent. He is the founder of the Latin-American course at Notre Dame.

Dr. Fenwick has been prominent in the promotion of international peace for many years. A native of Baltimore, Md., he was educated at Loyola College and Johns Hopkins University there. In 1918 he joined the faculty of Bryn Mawr College and has been there ever since. (He is well known in Rochester.)

His interests are primarily in the field of international law and he has been active in promoting popular education upon the subject of international relations and world peace. As associate editor of the international Law Journal he has urged the development of international law into more adequate legal system and the establishment of international institutions to promote the common interests of the nations.

He is a member of numerous scientific societies, translator of several important political science works from the German, and author of significant works in the field of political science. He served as a member of the American delegation at the Pan-American Conference held in Buenos Aires in 1933.

VINCENTIAN CLUB INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

When 42 candidates were presented for membership in the Vincentian Club of Niagara University, Rochester Division, the largest number of new members was inducted into the club at the Hotel Rochester, Saturday, Nov. 12.

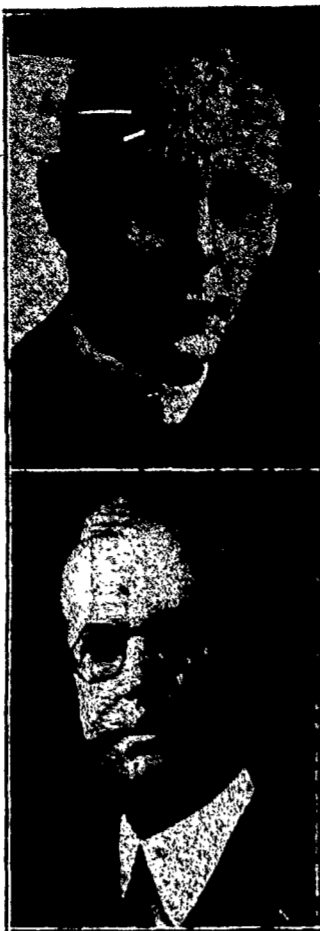

The Vincentian Club was organized at Niagara, two years ago under the guidance of Father Durkin. The purpose of the Club was to foster and encourage good fellowship and social activities among students at Niagara. With a steadily increasing membership the Vincentian Club has been able to widen its scope and extend its activities.

After appropriate initiation ceremonies, a dinner was held to welcome successful candidates into the club and to extend to them an opportunity of meeting fellow members. It is the traditional custom of the Club each year to elect two members of the faculty for honorary membership. Mr. Frank Norton, Instructor in Finance, and Mr. Roy A. Scholes, Instructor in Accounting were thus honored this year. Father Durkin was honored guest at the dinner.

The officers of the Club, whose committees arranged the initiation are: Frank Mahoney, Tom McLain and Leonard Hall. Father Munday is faculty advisor.

REPRESENT U. S.

Appointed by the President of the United States as delegate to the eighth international Conference of American States, opening at Lima, Peru, on December 19, are the Very Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C. (upper photo), president of Notre Dame University, and Dr. Charles G. Fenwick, professor of Political Science at Bryn Mawr College, and president of the Catholic Association for International Peace (lower photo). Father O'Hara, the son of a former U. S. diplomat in South America, lived there for many years. Dr. Fenwick was a delegate to the 1935 Inter-American Peace Conference at Buenos Aires.

Corpus Christi Jubilee Arranged

op McQuid in 1903. Church and rectory were built for $50,000.00. Gordon and Madden were the architects and Thomas W. Flanagan was the builder. Father Curran was appointed Vicar General by Bishop Hickey in 1908 and was succeeded by Monsignor By the Pope in 1914. He built the eight room addition to the school in 1914, and purchased the convent at 24 Prince Street in 1920. On his death December 24, 1922, Bishop Hickey asked Rev. John Francis O'Hern to take the pastorate of Corpus Christi, which he did in January of 1923.

Bishop O'Hern built the second addition to the school, a wing containing four class rooms in March, 1929. Bishop O'Hern was succeeded by Monsignor Hart in 1929. Monsignor Hart was appointed Pastor of Corpus Christi Parish March 28, 1929, and Vicar General of the Diocese.

The following priests have been ordained from Corpus Christi Parish: The Reverend Fathers William F. Stauder, Francis Henry Leo Jones, George Stuart Flanagan, John P. O'Brien, William Naughton, Francis Feeney, M. J. Feeney, Donald Cleary, Lawrence Casey, Bernard Cleary, John O'Leary, O.F.M., William O'Brien, Harold Rogers, John Whelan, Earl Tebbie, Walter Carson, Joseph Flattery, John O'Malley, John O'Brien and Thomas Morrison, O.P.

When Bishop McQuid located the church in 1888 on its first site, many thought that he was placing it too close to the eastern edge of Rochester, today it is practically a downtown church, with most of the parish located to the east over Main street bridge. It was the 13th Catholic Church to be built in the city. Today there are 44 Catholic parishes in Rochester. St. John Evangelist Parish was cut off from Corpus Christi in 1914 and St. Ambrose in 1921.

Deceased members of the parish will be remembered in a Solemn High Mass to be offered up Monday, November 21, at 8:00 a. m. More than 5000 people are now listed as parishioners, and there are 604 children in the parish. Flattery, Assisting Monsignor Hart in carrying for the large parish are three assistants, Rev. Robert A. Keicher, Rev. Charles R. Reynolds, Rev. William O'Brien, Sister M. Hilary, Principal of Corpus Christi School, presiding over a faculty of 16 Sisters of St. Joseph and two lay teachers.

Starlight Roof To Open Nov. 22 with Paul Kain

Genial Manager Lee Johnson of the Sagamore announces that Tuesday, November 22, will see the reopening of the newly decorated, greatly enlarged Starlight Roof atop the hotel.

No less than 26 instrumental ensembles chosen to open the Roof. Paul Kain comes to Rochester direct from the Rainbow Grill, Radio City, where he has been actually stopping the crowds. This young maestro has been tops with New Yorkers and he'll be tops with Rochesterians as he'll be presiding at the city's highest nite spot. Paul Kain is a graduate of Notre Dame University.

Bares Cunning Nazi Strategy To Wipe Out the Churches

BERLIN (N.C.)—In an account furnished by an "artificial witness, absolutely worthy of confidence," the C. P. News Service, sponsored by the Permanent International Commission of Editors of Catholic Journals, has released excerpts from the speech of Alfred Rosenberg, made at the Rosenberg Congress to Nazi party leaders—behind closed doors.

Churches must disappear from the life of the German people, Rosenberg stated, but he revealed as it were, a bit of the Nazi's "Catholic" life because of its international position. He suggested on "means of pressure" which may account for recent measures adopted by Minister of Worship Kerrl concerning the churches in the financial domain, quite likely may be the forerunner of Rosenberg's threat to suppress the Kirchensteuer, tax collected by the Government for the maintenance of the local church.

"To the various questions put to us concerning our attitude toward the churches," Rosenberg is quoted as saying in the secret conference, "here is my reply. I say every special attention to the fact that this reply coincides absolutely with the thought of the Fuehrer on this subject.

Church's International Position
"There are among us some hot heads who are willing to bring pressure to bear upon the Fuehrer to suppress, purely and simply, the Catholic Church and the Protestant Confessions just as we did with the Bolshevik parties. With out hearing the Fuehrer's opinion, that the suppression of the parties hardly signified the radical extermination of Marxism from the mind and heart of certain of our fellow-citizens, you must take into account the international position of the Catholic Church. It is upon us a very circumspect attitude with respect to it. Every attack against the Church has its repercussions in the sphere of our international relations and our peace will surely be difficult for us already difficult policy.

"But I am entirely in accord with those who declare that the Catholic Church and the Protestant churches are the greatest form must disappear from the life of our people.

"Furthermore, if there are some supporters of a conception of German life, which is based upon the display of a savage radicalism in their publications, I must inform them that they are not only striking a blow at the prestige of the Reich's Government, but they are contributing to the idea of persecution and martyrdom in the breasts of the believing masses.

Progressed With Youth
"We have made some serious progress in the field of German youth in impregnating them with our conception of National Socialist life. What is left of Catholic youth organizations is nothing more than sparse groups which are still active. The Hitler Youth has a power of attraction that nothing can resist. Furthermore, the re-education of the body of doctrine is sufficiently advanced in all the categories of our schools, in an anti-Christian sense, so that the rising generation remains protected from the black populace (the clergy).

"Remember also that within the churches, even in the Catholic Church, some German workers at present who are entirely in accord with the National Socialist concept of the world. Thanks to their aid, we shall succeed in removing the last positions of power. I must indeed insist upon the fact that we have another means of pressure and that is the threat of no longer paying the Kirchensteuer. This is a domain in which we shall act in a more and more systematic manner toward the goal of cutting off the financial resources of a clergy that is hostile to us.

Jewish Press on Alert
"As to the morality trial, I am inclined to think they have not had in the former Reich a too accentuated development, but we ought to be particularly prudent on this point and not create as well founded every accusation inspired for one or another reason. You are not ignorant of the fact that the international Jewish press is always on the alert and that a complaint lodged against the clergy that proves to be without foundation, is the inspiration for a furious campaign of abuse against National Socialist Germany. But from what I know, the situation is greatly different in the Marches of the East (Austria). If we go into the matter in these regions, some terrible revelations will come to light. But when we once have launched the campaign, we ought to let it pursue its normal course. There is no reason why we should give to the whole world the spectacle of the moral looseness of the clergy and we ought to regulate these things within the country."

"The existence of a wide chasm between the German Bishops and the American Episcopate is already an important success," he declared, "and let us hope to bring about the same thing in the breasts of the entire German Catholic population. Let us not make the same mistake that Eismark made. He the adversary is cunning and we must with reasons against which we can oppose only war but arm."

Stenographer Post Won By Hornell Parish Girl

HORNELL.—Miss Matilda Mar the Brill was high among three successful candidates for the position of stenographer in the office of Commissioner of Public Welfare Miss W.
