Wherever It Occurs

The same splendid community spirit which has brought succor to the poverty-stricken, to the ill and the maimed in Rochester, manifested itself Saturday evening when 8,000 persons of all faiths assembled to denounce the barbaric treatment of the Jews in Germany.

Fifty Years of Service

Milestones in the history of Catholic Rochester were celebrated with due ceremony in the course of this past month. Both St. Francis Xavier and Corpus Christi Churches marked their fiftieth anniversaries in carrying on the work of Christ.

Win Friends and Influence Many

Persistence and the determined will to succeed are necessary if the worthwhile projects for Holy Mother the Church are to be brought to successful fruition.
