Two Churches Will Mark Anniversaries

Mass At St. Lucy's Will Climax Week of Devotion

Joyous parishioners of St. Lucy's Church will assemble at their Troup Street edifice on Sunday morning, December 18, to mark the Silver Jubilee of the Church.

The occasion will be marked by the presence of His Excellency the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, at a Solemn High Mass to be celebrated at 11:00 A. M. by the Rev. Benedict Maselli, pastor of St. Lucy's.

A sermon marking the occasion will be delivered by the Rev. Sebastian Contegiacomo, missionary of the Precious Blood Congregation, known widely as an eloquent pulpit orator.

Bishop Kearney will give Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament at the close of the Mass.

Series of Events Listed

The ceremony of Sunday, December 18, will bring to fitting climax a series of events arranged to commemorate the 25th anniversary of St. Lucy's Church with joy, satisfaction, appreciation and remembrance.

The program will begin on Monday, December 12, with a Requiem High Mass for the departed pastor, the Rev. Dr. Mario Catalano, and Sisters of St. Lucy's School.

A Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving to God, to His Blessed Mother and to St. Lucy for all blessings received will be celebrated on Tuesday, December 13, the Feast Day of St. Lucy. A holiday will be declared for the school children.

Requiem High Mass for all deceased members of St. Lucy's Church will be offered on Wednesday, December 14, at 8:30 A. M.

On Thursday, December 15, a High Mass for the children and Teachers of St. Lucy's School will be celebrated beginning at 9 o'clock.

Present members of St. Lucy's parish and their intentions will be remembered at a High Mass to be celebrated on Friday, December 16, beginning at 8:30 A. M.

On Saturday, December 17, there will be offered a High Mass for all sick people of the congregation and for the prosperity of the Church. Intended by Dr. Catalano

St. Lucy's Church was founded by the late Rev. Dr. Mario Catalano, twenty-five years ago. He was succeeded in 1927 by the present pastor, Father Maselli.

An outstanding record in the service of God in this diocese has been made in the Jubilarian Church since its establishment.

There have been recorded 3,225 Baptisms, 700 Marriages, 1,391 Confirmations, and 781 death certificates have been issued in the quarter of a century of St. Lucy's existence.

Throughout the week of celebration there will be a large attendance at the various services marking the silver anniversary, with a throng expected to fill the church to capacity as the Silver Jubilee program reaches its climax on Sunday, December 18th.

REV. EMMETT MURPHY
Ordained Dec. 8 At College in Rome

On Dec. 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, the Rev. Emmett Murphy was ordained to the priesthood in the chapel of the North American College, at Rome.

Father Murphy is the son of Laura Cunningham Murphy and the late Richard W. J. Murphy of Brunswick Street. Sister M. Edith, Superior of St. Patrick's Girls Home is his aunt.

Father Murphy was graduated from Blessed Sacrament School in 1917 after which he attended St. Andrew's Seminary for five years. For two years, he studied philosophy and the sciences at St. Bernard's Seminary. As a reward for his scholastic attainments, he was elected by Archbishop Mooney to take up his Theological studies in the Eternal City.

Father Murphy is the third successive student from Blessed Sacrament parish to be honored in this way. The Rev. Richard Burns and the Rev. John Reddington were likewise ordained in Rome after attending the North American College.

K. C. Invite Wives To Christmas Fete

A Christmas party for members of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, their wives, sisters and sweethearts, will be held on Thursday evening, December 15, at 8:15 o'clock in Columbus Civic Center ballroom.

Guest speaker for this year's party will be the Rev. Aidan Mayhew, C.P., pastor of St. Mary's Church, Dunkirk, who is to bring a special message for the knights.

A tree will be trimmed and around it will be placed food donations which are taken at Christmas time to the Precious Blood Fathers on Lexington Avenue.

Following the program in the ballroom, a luncheon will be served in the club rooms followed by dancing.

Grand Knight Lee F. Rombaut will preside at the opening of the program and will turn over the party to Lecturer John Ward, Jr., and Chairman of the House Committee Hartley J. Norman.

Plans for the annual trip to Bath to entertain the disabled veterans will be outlined by Chairman Joseph P. O'Brien.

Bishop's Portrait Given To Knights

A striking portrait of His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, was given a prominent place in the club rooms of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, this week in Columbus Civic Centre.

The large photograph, 30 x 24 inches, is a donation to the Council by J. Ernest Mock, well known Rochester portrait photographer and an honorary life member of the Council.

Bishop Kearney is an active member of Rochester Council. During the past year His Excellency lent his assistance in the annual membership campaign which brought a high national ruling for the local council in membership effort throughout the country. The Bishop is a member of the Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly.
