MEMORIAL BAPTISMAL FONT AT ST. THOMAS Church Is Dedicated By Bishop Kearney

A beautiful marble and mosaic baptismal font in the sanctuary of St. Thomas' Church, St. Paul Blvd., was dedicated Monday night by His Excellency, James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester.

The font, fashioned in Pisa, Italy, was a gift of Mrs. William Strauch Washington, D. C., in memory of her parents, Annes and Mary McDonald. Blessing of the font, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and hymns were included in the service.

Assisting were the Rev. John F. Mucile, pastor, who formerly was at St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, where Mrs. Strauch was a member of the congregation; the Rev. George W. Kohl, St. Andrew; the Rev. Alexander J. McCabe, Holy Cross; the Rev. George Weimann, St. Francis Xavier; and the Rev. Edward Eschrich, St. Salome, Sea Breeze.

ROCHESTER COUPLE Mark 50th Wedding Anniversary with Mass

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of 370 Sawyer Street celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at a High Mass of Thanksgiving in St. Peter and Paul's Church on Tuesday.

The Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Frank Kiechammer, assistant pastor at St. Peter and Paul's. Music was furnished by the children's choir.

The couple was married by the late Rev. Dr. Francis H. Sinclair in old St. Peter and Paul's Church on King Street, Dec. 13, 1888. The groom and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Clark of Geneva Park Boulevard, who attended them at the wedding, were again present at the jubilee Mass.

Of eleven children, the eight who are living were present at the service. They are five sons, J. J., Edmund, Louis, Henry and Elmer, and three daughters, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Arnold F. Eckert and Mrs. Frederick C. McLaughlin. There are also eleven grandchildren.

Dinner for the immediate family was served at the Home Dining Room, Pittsford and a reception was held at the Sawyer Street residence in the evening. Many friends called to offer congratulations to the happy couple.

Hospital Party Is Set for Dec. 28

A benefit party for St. Mary's hospital is being planned with great enthusiasm by the members of the Holy Family Women's Board at St. Mary's hospital.

Mrs. John A. Murray of Waterbury Road, general chairman of arrangements has announced the date of the party to be the evening of December 28, the time to be 6 o'clock.

The place, Blessed Margaret Hall and the tickets twenty five cents.

Assisting Mrs. Murray in the preparations are Mrs. Francis P. Beattie of Arnold Park, chairman of the ticket committee, Mrs. Leo Simpson of Highland Avenue in charge of refreshments, Mrs. Donald A. Dailey of Canterbury Road, chairman of the hostesses; Mrs. Benjamin J. Duffy of Lake Avenue, chairman of the check-room committee; and Mrs. John J. Morrison of Pittsford, in charge of publicity. The aid of the Board are fortunate in having a most competent and experienced chairman, Mrs. David A. Lawless.

FOURTH DEGREE KNIGHTS LIST CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual party of the Knights of Columbus will be held at the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus Rooms on Thursday evening, December 22, at 8 o'clock.

The annual party is held for enjoyment of members and to raise funds and to receive donations in aid of bases of canned goods and staple food articles to be turned over to the Knights of Columbus Christmas Fund.

Patrol Captain Norman A. O'Brien is in charge of the affair. A short business session of the assembly will be conducted by Patrol Navigator Theodore H. Hubert prior to the party.

Knights To Assist At Courtesy Party

Members of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, will again furnish automobile transportation for the aged persons invited to the Westinghouse High School Courtesy Party on Monday, December 19.

Grand Knight Leo F. Rombaum has named William T. Nolan as chairman. The Knights call for the guests and return them to their homes after the party at which they will be entertained by the high school students.

Knights with cars who can cooperate in this worthy undertaking are asked to call Main 3492 of the Council office.

RIGHTS OF THE FAMILY

The family has a right to be protected against many plagues that threaten it with dissolution, such as the license of the streets, the theatre and of a section of the press, drunkenness, tuberculosis, slum dwellings, and birth prevention.

Blessed by Bishop Kearney was this beautiful baptismal font which stands in the Rev. John F. Mucile, pastor of St. Thomas Church where ceremony took place Monday night.

Pro-Cathedral To Hold Nativity Pageant Dec. 23

The beautiful Nativity Spectacle which was inaugurated last year at the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart will again be carried out in all its solemnity, this year on Friday evening, December 23, beginning at 8 o'clock.

This impressive religious pageant, which carries its dramatic climax with the adoration of the angels and the solemn Episcopal Blessing given by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, attracted a capacity congregation last year.

The Rev. George B. Fisher, S. J., will preach the sermon.

The pageant centers around the placing of the statue of the Divine Child in the crib.

A procession escorting the Bishop will include cross bearers, acolytes and torch bearers, children of the school who will sing suitable Christmas hymns and a living representation of the Blessed Virgin with her Divine Child.

About the large white star of the Pro-Cathedral will be placed a rustic setting, Christmas decorations will adorn the sanctuary.

Arrangements for the pageant will be handled by the Rev. George B. Fisher, pastor of the Pro-Cathedral, assisted by the Rev. John P. O'Rourke and the Rev. Carl C. Ritz, assistant pastors.

THREE PRIEST-SONS OFFER REQUIEMS For Parents Who Died During Week

Death in their immediate families brought sorrow to three priests of the diocese during the past week. The mother of the Rev. Robert J. Henry, the father of the Rev. John Bohmwech and the father of the Rev. John S. Randall all died within a few days of each other.

Accounts of the funeral services which the three priests officiated at followed: Solenn Masses of Requiem and which were attended by large numbers of priests and laity, follow.

Final Rites Held For Ray B. Randall

Final services for Ray B. Randall were conducted from the family home, 31 Congress Avenue and St. Monica's Church on Wednesday morning.

The Rev. John S. Randall, diocesan director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and son of the deceased, celebrated the Sole Mass of Requiem. The Rev. D. Gregory Dugan was deacon and the Rev. Bernard C. Cleary was subdeacon.

Final absolution was given by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D.

A large number of diocesan officials and priests of the diocese were in the sanctuary and the church was thronged with relatives and friends.

Mr. Randall died Sunday, December 11, at his home on Congress Avenue. He had been ill since his retirement a year ago from the Ontario Finance Company.

Father Randall on Sunday had just finished celebrating the memorial Mass for his sister, the late Miss Betty Randall, in the Massachusetts Chapel when he was informed of his father's death. Miss Randall had been president of the Norwich College Alumnae Association at the time of her death.

Headmaster Randall, who in addition to his duties as director of the Propagation of the Faith, is also founder and Moderator of the Blackfriars Guild, Mr. Randall is survived by his wife, Mrs. Thelma A. Randall.

Numerous friends and a large representation from the Blackfriars Guild called at the Randall home and attended the funeral services at St. Monica's Church.
