Just Idle Thoughts

ALONG THE WAY By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

The newboys who sell magazines and candy and cold drinks on my train seem steadily to grow older. I never can figure how they possibly make a living, so few seem to patronize them.

Trouble In 'Paradise'

Some Functional Disorders of Collectivism

To point to the weaknesses of the Soviet Government in practice is to point to the weaknesses of a poor argument against Communism.

The Sweep of Propaganda

The mass propaganda being widely spread in this country in favor of the Soviet-controlled government in "Loyalist" Spain has sunk deeply into the minds of many respectable citizens.

The Sweep of Propaganda

The reply in its contents of Leftist Spain parallels in many respects a letter written to the daily press here by Jean F. Cross, chairman of the Rochester Branch of the Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy.

Influenced by the Deluge

Propaganda sweeping the country, has failed to see that in supporting the crowd in Leftist Spain responsible for the slaughtering of priests and nuns, he is going contrary to the policy of the State.

Authentic Reports

Authentic reports have been brought to this country from Spain by Dr. Joseph F. Thorne and John V. Hinko, N. C. W. C. News Service correspondents, which declare that the Soviet control still exists and that the so-called Loyalist regime is hostile to religion and determined to wipe it out.

Observations

Observations by the two correspondents, made on the ground, reveal a shadow of doubt that Franco will not have Fascist Spain nor will he be dominated by Hitler or Mussolini.

That at Least 90 Percent of the Nationalists are Spanish. The kind of "democracy" that is said to exist in Leftist Spain and which propaganda victims are seeking to uphold is the kind in which armed men hold the citizens in absolute control.

Whether There Is a Religious Issue

Whether there is a religious issue involved or not can be gathered from the following statement made to the two news service men by a well-known non-Catholic newspaperman who had been covering activities of the Leftist armies for several months.

Is the Enemy of Religion

In any form. It realizes that the Church is the greatest obstacle to its introduction of Marxism with its privileges for the few and its oppression of the many.

Feast Days

- Sunday, December 18 - ST. GALLAN, BISHOP. Monday, December 19 - ST. NEMESON, MARTYR. Tuesday, December 20 - ST. PHELOGONIUS. Wednesday, December 21 - ST. THOMAS APOSTLE. Thursday, December 22 - ST. ISCHYRION, MARTYR. Friday, December 23 - ST. SERVEUS. Saturday, December 24 - ST. DELEPHIUS, BISHOP.

The Wrong Note

I had just made the statement that far as their external want, their aspiration of liberty, their control by the state of everything, the uncertainty of property under them - I could see no difference between Nazism and Communism.

Educational Note

The youngsters from high school came into the bus and sat within my earshot. They were talking school.

Proof Personal

The old gentleman who sat behind me in the bus was full of life. He had been around the world in the interests of American oil.

Damaging Admission

Almost at the end of the report the damaging admission is made. It is the fact that the development of the proportion of cash revenue remaining for distribution among the collective farm members has risen only a minute fraction in the two years under consideration.

Five Years Ago

From December 1, 1933, issue Six hundred members of the Young Ladies Sodality from the St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester participated in the triumph held in preparation for the observance of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

WHO SHALL TEACH RELIGION? Sursum Corda

By REV. JAMES M. GILLES, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

Priests and religious are reading a good deal of late there is a report of some eulogy of Catholic education written or spoken by a Protestant minister.

The latest minister of a faith not our own to speak an appreciative word about our efforts is the Rev. J. Campbell White, minister of the New York Synod of the United Presbyterian Church.

But now let us go a bit deeper and ask whether, with all the money and energy expended, we Catholics are getting results that could be called adequate.

So what's wrong? Where is the weak point in our battlements? The answer cannot be given in one word or a thousand statements in modern civilization tend to break down what we have so la-horribly erected. Of these thoughts I have in mind, at the moment, the one which is perhaps the most important, the indifference of parents and their failure to cooperate with the Catholic fathers and mothers read the Papal Encyclicals on the home and the family as the nucleus of civilized society and the center of education.

Such language is heretical, and in the bargain, unreasonable. The church, the school, the clergy, the State, the city itself, are charged with either the primary or the ultimate responsibility for the religious education of the child.

Formidable phrase, indeed. And does some parent say "I frightens me, but what shall I do? With all the good will in the world, I just don't know how to do about religious education of my child. If I have left it to the priests and the Sisters, it is because I haven't the technique. I would be glad to learn, but who will teach me?"

It's a mystery what becomes of all the resolutions that are passed by organizations that are supposed to be for the good of the people.
