AQUINAS—HOLY FAMILY
Sparkling play in the second and fourth periods by the Holy Family High team of Auburn gave them the 22-14 edge over the Irish leads from Aquinas Institute in the contest Wednesday of last week, at the Columbus Civic Center. More than 1,000 witnessed the struggle.

The Auburn losses were behind in the first half but gradually worked up steam and when they were in high gear they were stopping them as they held the Irish to a few points in the second half.

Jack Synnot paced the winners with eight points and was the best performer on the floor. Walsh and Lally gave the weight to the Irish total by adding four points apiece.

Synnot and Schaefer really put the game on its feet in the second half. Walsh and Lally were the mainstay for nine points in one spurt.

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI
The St. Francis of Assisi basketball team, 23-13 Auburn Catholic League champions, outdid its rivals by a flying start as they won three consecutive games to take a top rung in the league.

In its opening game the Italian boys defeated St. Peter and Paul, 23-21. In the second round they knocked off the hard-buckled Irish of St. Mary's, 42-21. They took a struggle to get first place in the league by defeating the Peabody boys of St. Elizabeth's, 23-24.

The team is composed of Adolph Trutto and James Leary at the forward posts, Nick Ayala and Nancy Trutto at guard and Captain Rudy D'Agostino and Captain Mike Ceresi, James Villardi, Steve Davis and Michael Allen are held in reserve.

The team is coached by Tom De Palma, assistant coach, Joseph Nunnari is the league representative and Lawrence Lino is business manager.

ST. STEPHEN'S PROS
The St. Stephen's Club's professional basketball team has started the Kodak Park five of Rochester is its opponent in the opening game of the current season which is to be played on the State Armory court here on Tuesday night, Dec. 20.

In securing the Kaypees, these local quints is retaining competition with its outstanding rival, the second game of last season at the hands of the Kodak Parkers to the tune of 30-14 in a fast and furious game. The Saints reorganized their line-up for the last time by taking the Kodaks in 41-24 games. A third and final encounter was demanded by last year's fans but previously arranged as a tie-up between the two teams.

Mutual interest for the delay-down has brought the old rivals together in the opening game of the reorganized line-up and promises a warfare of last for the current professional season in Geneva.

The Geneva live-line-up, now organized for its debut week, is to be announced in the next few days.

POLISH RAVERS
Probably some of the toughest opponents of the season will be met Monday when the Polish Ravers tangle with the fast-topping Holy-Trojans at Holy. The Polish lads have been practicing regularly and have mastered a smooth functioning attack.

The game has finally secured the Franklin High court after much difficulty, for Friday night games. They will be meeting the Lima team, which is coached by Ken O'Dea and the Christinas quintet, coached by Horie Krist, very soon.

The starting line-up against Holy will probably show Zancanovich and Ostrowski at the scoring stations, Nowak at the point, Stan Warynski and "Big" Malinowski at forward in the back court.

Nazareth Holds Yule Log Burning Dec. 14

Last year a new tradition was instituted at Nazareth College, the burning of the Yule log on the campus of the college. This year it took place on Wednesday night, December 14. Songs were sung while the log was burning, and later a program was presented in the assembly by the Sodality. The Most Reverend Bishop James E. Kearney accepted the invitation extended to him by the Undergraduate Association to be present at the ceremony.

Anglican Churches Now Ring 'Angelas' For Peace Prayers
LONDON.—The "Angelas" will be heard in Trafalgar Square here every day at a minute before noon. It will be rung from the nearby Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields—an Anglican Church. It is explained that the bell will ring to indicate a moment's pause for a prayer for peace. Other Anglican Churches are adopting the idea.

Catholic Knights Calls Boy Scouts Catholic Knighthood

MONTREAL.—"Our Scouts are the knighthood of our Catholic youth." His Eminence Rodrigue Cardinal Villeneuve, Archbishop of Quebec, declared in an address on the Federalism of Catholic Scouts of the Province of Quebec.

Presented by the Most Rev. Georges Gauthier, Coadjutor Archbishop of Montreal, the "Big Brother" Scouts of the province. His Eminence spoke to a gathering of prominent Church and State officials. The Cardinal said scouting, by making its members think and act for themselves, is an important out-of-school training which would make its members sons of the Church and noble citizens of their country. He called St. John Bosco a "chief scout" to the Scouts.

PARIS.—The Socialist Mayor of Mornoliron, a commune near Avignon, banned religious ceremonies outside the church, and particularly in the cemetery—with the exception of the actual burial services. The decree was directed against the All Saints and All Souls processions.

The Council of State has annulled the decree, declaring the Mayor exceeded his authority. He has been ordered to pay costs and to reimburse the Dean of Mornoliron, who took the matter to court.

Faith Stories For Little Ones

SE. SATURNINUS AND THE MARTYRS OF AFRICA
During the cruel persecution of the Emperor Maximian, forty-nine Christians had assembled in a private house at Abthina, a city of Africa, to assist at the holy Sacrifice of the Mass, which was said by the priest Saturninus.

The officers of justice broke into the house during the celebration of the Sacred Mysteries, arrested those who were present, and conveyed them before the public tribunal under a guard of soldiers.

By order of the judge they were sent in chains to Carthage, the capital city of the province, where they were again examined and cruelly tortured.

Being asked by the Proconsul why they had assembled together in spite of the decrees of the Emperor St. Saturninus answered in the name of the rest: "It is because we are not allowed to go to absent from the Mass. This is the commandment and teaching of the Divine Law. This law we faithfully observe, and for it we are ready to lay down our lives."

Among those glorious confessors of the faith, who were of every age, sex and condition, was a young boy named Eulacion, whom, on account of his tender years, the Proconsul thought that he would have no difficulty in overcoming.

He accordingly threatened him with the rod and other punishments with which children are wont to be chastised, little knowing that it is God himself who fights in his martyrs.

Eulacion laughed at his threats, exclaiming aloud that he was a Christian, and one of those who had been at the Mass, the name then given to the sacred assembly.

"Upon this the Proconsul said, 'I will cut off your nose and your ears.' 'You may do so,' replied the child, 'but I am still a Christian.'"

Upon this the judge ordered him to be cast into prison, where those who had survived the torture inflicted upon them, shortly after fell victims to starvation and the hardships of their confinement.

How powerfully does the example of these glorious martyrs condemn the sinner of those carrels and lukewarm Christians, who make the most trifling excuse for not assisting at the Holy Sacrifice!

Boys Town Priest Has More Worries

BOYS TOWN, NEB.—Father Flanagan of Boys Town is again having his annual December worries, amounting almost to the jitters.

Since Father Flanagan's Boys Home was started 19 years ago, a major portion of the institution's annual maintenance cost has been provided by voluntary contributions sent to the Home during December as Christmas donations.

Since the picture, "Boys Town"—made at Father Flanagan's Boys Home—began appearing in theaters throughout the country last fall, Father Flanagan's worries have increased, due to an increasing number of boys asking admission to the Boys Town home.

Father Flanagan has turned down more than 100 applications from boys for admission this year. Last year, before the picture showed, more than 100 applications were made in excess of the Home's capacity.

"The Boys Town Picture," said Father Flanagan, "has done much to make the people of the country more conscious of the need of caring for homeless boys, and the producers of the picture did a service to the country when they made it so ideal. The picture increased the demands upon our Home."

and I have faith that the contributions will continue to come from Catholics who want our boys to have a happy Christmas and who also want the Home to be maintained without difficulty throughout the coming year. But December is a pretty long month to have a picture at the end of December we will know whether the outlook for next year is bright or dark."
