Unvited Visit To Irondequoit Home

Found guilty of disorderly conduct. Mrs. Mary Odessa Guthne, 58, who silegedly threatened that "Jehovah will take care of you" to a Catholic housewife when the latter disagreed with the context of graph records Nov. 29, was fined $10 and received a penitentiary sentence of 10 days at a three-hour trial in Irondequoit Town Hall, Monday night.

The penitentiary sentence was suspended on condition that she leave Irondequoit and refrain from selling tracts there.

The case was prosecuted by As-alstant District Attorney Anthony Micelli and was defended by Attor-ney Arthur Rathlen.

Approximately 40 persons were in the courtroom and about the same number outside. Attorney Rathjen lost a demand to open the hall to everyone there. Justice Arthur L. Hart ruled the floor was weak and could not stand the pres-Complainant was Mrs. Donald Donahue, of 262 Zuber Rd., Iron-
