90th Anniversary Marked By Livonia Center Church

Deeds and sacrifices of their forefathers in establishing a church for their use and in gaining the ministrations of a priest were recounted for present parishioners of St. Michael's Church, Livonia Center on Sunday eving, Dec. 11 as they gathered to mark the 90th anniversary of the Paristra the Parish's beginning.

The link between the past and the present and the achievements down through the years were brought out by the Rev. Michael Krieg, now pastor of Church of the Nativity, Brockport and oldest liv-ing former pastor of St. Michaels. The anniversary was marked with Mass in the morning offered

Cling the extreme poverty of many of the parish's founders, Father Krieg pointed to their sacrifices both of a monetary nature and of their own willing labor, which he mid, had sanctified every stone and timber incorporated in the church. These deeds should be not only a source of pride to the present generation, but an example that they would do well to imitate.

'A Priceless Heritage

Father Krieg said that the faith and teal of their forefathers in their little church should be handed on as a priceless heritage by the present to future generations. gan, John Meagher, M. Martin, John McGinty and Daniel Whalen went to Livonia as pioneer Catholic families. During the early part of that year they to Lima to assist at the celebra-tion of mass, in the cooper shop of John Brennan. In the latter part of the same year Father O'Connor made Livonia a mission, and Mass was regularly said in the home of John Whalen until the church was built in 1857. In September of 1859, the members of the congregation assembled in the store of Wm Ryan and decided that they ought to have a church. With the moneys subscribed by these Catholic pioneer families. Father McGuiro chased a lot from Robert Hoare (where the school house now stands) at Livonia Center and a cozy little structure, 35x40 feet was erected. First Resident Pasto On June 27, 1871, Father NI.h. olas Bryno became the first resi-dent paster, and purchased the present rectory from Dr C H Richmond. During the pastorate of Father Seymour (1875-77) the of Father Seymour (1875-77) the church was moved to its present location and enlarged by twenty feet. Father Seymour also built St William's church at Conesus. with only eleven families to assist him. During the pastorate of Father Murphy, who succeeded Father Seymour, all debts upon the church properties at Livonia Center, Conesus and Honeoye Flats were cancelled and during his time also the cemetery prop erty was purchased

Father Joseph Hendrick succeeded Father Murphy in 1884 and during the fourteen years of his pastorate he endeared himself to Carhous and non Carnolics alke and who affectionately krown as "Father Joe" Fither Girvey became paster tor in 1898 and during his time properly was purchased at Li vonia Station for $2,200 and a building fund of $1800 was a cumulated for the erection of 8' Joseph's church in Livenia It vas during the pastorate of the Rev Michael Krieg (1911 12) that Joseph's church was erected and was dedicated by the Most Rev Thomas F Hickey on March 24, 1912

Improvements Made In 1945, Rev George McCall went to St. Michael's as pastor and at the same time took of the spiritual welfare of the Catholics at Honeoye Flats, the Rev Patrick Smith became the first resident pastor of St Joseph's church at Livonia, and had as a mission St. William's church at Conesus. During the pastorate of Father McCall the interior of St. Michael's was completely renovated, new windows installed and electricity was installed in the church and rectory During the pastorate of Rev. John Smith, who came to St. Michael's in 1929 much needed repairs were made to the rectory and church, which included laying of carpet in the sanctuary and church proper, extensive repairs in the rectory and the beautifying of the church grounds generthe Emmet Magee succeeded Father Smith in 1935.

Men To Keep-Vigil New Year's Eve

While some of the citizens of the o-called Christian nation are celebrating New Year's Eve in the Saturnalian style of the pagans of ancient Rome, the members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society will be keeping an all-night vigil before the Blessed Sacrament at St. Pairick's Church.

The men will maintain the watch from 10 P. M. until 5 A. M. the following morning, at which time Mass will be said. At each hour the Office of the Blessed Sacrament
