Propagation Contributions

Offerings of Catholics in the United States for the general fund of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in 1927 were $647,736.14 Monsignor Thomas J. McDornnell, National Director, reported. This did not include of-ferings and to the American Board of Home Missions. The sum of $72,422.42 was forwarded to the Opus Sancti Petri for the establishment of burses for native clergy in various mission fields.

The $547.796.14 was an increase of $6,000 over 1936.

The Catholic Church Extension Society distributed approximately a half million dollars in meeting the needs of Home Missions in the west said October 1. See. the year ended October 1. Saventy-five mission chapsis and perials buildings were built or re-paired with the help of the So-

Receiving Monsigner McDon-nell in audience last April, Pope Plus lauded the generosity of Americans, not only with regard to the amount they give, but also with respect to the spirit in which they give it. The activity of the society was warmly praised by His Holiness in July, when he received members of the Society's annual European pilgrimage.
"That Catholic Missions may be multiplied among the Negroes of the United States," was the Holy Father's Mission intention for

The Paulist Fathers of the United States undertook the establishment of a mission in Johannesburg, South Africa, in the course of the year.

A unsique and highly successful convert work was inaugurated in the Diocese of Brooklyn. More than one thousand non-Catholics went through a course of instruc-tion in 45 centers established throughout the See, and almost 600 of them were confirmed at a single service. Papal Delegate's Appeal

Archhishop Cicognani, the Apos-tolic Delegate, also issued a spe-cial Mission Sunday appeal to the Catholics of the United States, saking them to support the Missions "by prayer and sacrifice."
The appreciation of Pope Pins for the loyal devotion manifested by the Bishops, priests and Catholic laity of the United States was betokened by a magnificently decorated candle, a gift of the Holy Father, received at the Apostalic Delegation in Washington isst Spring. The candle was one received by the Holy Father Carrelleman Day, when, in on Cariciems Day, when, in keeping with an old tradition, the heads of religious Orders and in-stitutes in Rome present candles to His Fioliness.

Zeal of Women Praised

In a letter to the National Council of Catchlic Women, His Executerry, the Apostolic Delegate, and the Church and society are grateful to the Catholic women of the United States for their zealous spostolate which is ever increasing in effectiveness.
