Family Questions Answered

By WINIFRED THOMAS

1939: A New Year's gift from God, unwritten on by Time. If every daughter, no matter her age, signs herself with the Sign of the Cross...

CALLING ALL DAUGHTERS: We do a heart-sounding column for a chain of weekly newspapers our mail isn't light. The affairs of the Nation, and of the world, may pass us by...

Letters arrive from older mothers with donations for the present and future generations of daughters: "I spend an hour daily before the Blessed Sacrament, praying especially for mothers...

Many mothers with growing daughters ask for practical schedules for rearing "that they may grow up decent, successful, good, and true. They want to know what a person who will ask a stranger to STOP...

Some of today's mothers have had nightmarish lives, all along the way. Some pour out gratitude for their new home where peace abides; they are anxious to do the best possible in rearing their own future family.

WHEAT TO DO? Most mothers know anxiety along these lines and it speaks well for them. They are sensible of their infinitely important task; they realize that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Another group ask how to answer their engaged daughters who want information regarding marriage. Marriage is somewhat like an operation: Until you are married you never do know exactly what it is like. Stop and think that, perhaps, this is as God intends? Don't infer anyone is for ignorance trying to make amends for innocence. Knowledge is power, when correctly used.

FORMER DENTIST SINGS FIRST SOLEMN MASS; IS CONVERT, GRANDFATHER

TORONTO.—A former noted American and Canadian dentist and convert to Catholicism, the Rev. William Ernest Cummer, member of the Basilian Order, sang his first Mass at St. Basil's Church here in the presence of a distinguished gathering of dentists.

Father Cummer, who is 59, was ordained last June, but illness delayed his first solemn Mass. In the afternoon dentists of the city tendered their former colleague a reception.

Father Cummer is said to be only the fourth dentist in the world to become a priest. He was formerly Professor of Dentistry at the University of Toronto and Dean of the School of Dentistry at the University of Detroit.

CHICAGO.—A plea for good housing for the colored was made by the Rev. Joseph F. Eckert, S.V.D., pastor of St. Anselm's Church.

address at a reception tendered him by school children. His Excellency expressed gratitude to the Knights of Columbus "for what they have accomplished, what they are accomplishing, and what they will do for Church and country, especially to the benefit of youth and good example of Christian virtues."

That the Catholic Press may become an increasingly potent instrument for combatting "error and indecency in every form," was the prayer of Archbishop Ciesmanski in a special letter to the twenty-third annual convention of the Catholic Press Association of the United States, held last May in New Orleans.

On the day Blessed Francis Xavier Cabrini was beatified, Archbishop Ciesmanski celebrated Mass at her tomb in the chapel of Mother Cabrini High School in New York City.

With the authorization of Archbishop Mooney, Monsignor Ready issued a statement on the reorganization bill when that measure was being considered in Congress. "It is the duty of the administrative control on Federal educational agencies there would be no reason to believe that Catholic interests as such would be concerned in the legislation, the statement said.

Suffering Apostolate Becomes Corporation

MILWAUKEE.—Articles of incorporation for the Apostolate of Suffering have been filed with the Secretary of State at Madison, Wis., and recorded here in the Register of Deeds office.

The Apostolate aims to provide spiritual and material comfort for invalids and shut-ins. The Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch, Archbishop of Milwaukee, is the Episcopal Protector, and the Most Rev. Aloisius J. Muench, Bishop of Fargo, is the National Spiritual Director.

The Apostolate of Suffering has been carrying on its work for 12 years. Its headquarters are at 1531 North 34th Street, this city.

The main point with a lot of fiction is the fact that it wouldn't amount to anything, even if it were true.
