THE LISTENIN' POST

By BILL ROGERS

Incidental Information

In case you are interested, here is an astounding fact. The quality of the tone you hear emanating from your radio set is affected by such apparently insignificantly absurd things as what the studio audience wears.

Yes, it has been recently proved by the National Broadcasting Company that audiences dressed in formal attire are much less desirable than an audience dressed informally. Why? Well, it seems that the board front on a tuxedo or full dress ensemble acts as a perfect sounding board and echoes wonderfully. The report from NBC doesn't mention bald pate.

Sisson Back

At the time of writing, Al Sisson is still on his Florida vacation. But by the time this is printed he will be back in Rochester. As what, we wouldn't give for just one day of warm sunny Florida weather? But if we think back on last summer, we can remember just what we wouldn't give for a nice cool day such as we are having now! A little bit of doggerel describes how we feel:

"As a rub, man's a fool; When it's hot, he wants it cool. When it's cool, he wants it hot. Always wanting what is not. But we'll still like to be in Florida."

Experts

The four experts heard on NBC's Information Please program answer correctly about 80 per cent of the questions put to them. The questions, sent in by listeners in all parts of the country, are received at the rate of about 60,000 a week.

Old Timers

As a result of his musical research, Al Roth, NBC maestro has found that the tunes of several of the nursery rhymes to which modern America is singing were the "rounds" of the middle ages to which European peasants danced around the Maypole. Two of today's swing versions of nursery rhymes, "A Tisket-A Tasket," and "Round the Mulberry Bush," were well known to medieval dancers, Roth says.

Bridgroom

The bridegroom of the week received a rousing ovation when he appeared on the Charlie McCarthy program Sunday. He also received a terrific bidding from the "refugee from the woodpile" himself. Our favorite baritone, Nelson Eddy, was the one so honored.

Town Meeting

One of the finest programs to be broadcast over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company is the American Town Hall Meeting of the Air. This program for a time has been unavailable to WTHM listeners owing to previous commitments. Now, however, the widespread audience of WTHM will be able to hear it for it will be transcribed at the regular time and rebroadcast on Saturday evenings at eight o'clock.

SECRETARY ICKES ASKED TO OPPOSE Proposed Changes in Educational Policy

BROOKLYN, Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes is asked to indicate his opposition to the assertions in a publication of the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association in advocating the secularization of schools, in a petition being circulated here by the American Education Association.

Specifically, the petition assails the assertions in a publication of the Educational Policies Association that parents who send their children to private schools may not be expected to "work diligently for the improvement of the public school system" and that "schools that teach some particular religious belief 'cannot fail to divert the interest of citizens in the maintenance and improvement of a system of public education.'"

The petition makes mention of conditions in Germany, Russia, Spain and Mexico where "innocent people are being persecuted because of their membership in certain religious and racial groups" and expresses a fear that similar situations will develop in this country if the report of the Educational Policies Commission receives support.

Declare Opposition

"We appeal to you," the petition says, "to declare your opposition to the situation shown by the Educational Policies Commission in Chapter V of its report, publication, 'The Structure and Administration of American Democracy,' page 12, in which it clearly and cleverly attacks the disavowance of private schools on the ground that they teach some particular religious belief, because of which fact, it says, the interest of citizens in the maintenance and improvement of a system of public education and of children are sent to private schools because public schools in the opinion of the commission, are not good enough, then one may not always expect these same parents to work diligently for the improvement of the public school system."

"Both of these statements are in our opinion, not only untrue but are cleverly worded so as, if possible, to deceive. It is not true that parents who elect to send their children to private schools are being some form of 'diversion' from the public school system or are being 'diverted' from the interest of citizens in the maintenance and improvement of it."

Dire Results

"If the recommendations of the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association prevail, there will ensue such antagonism among religious groups that animosities prejudicial to the interests of the people of the United States will be the result. In view of the position taken by the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association, we appeal to you since the office of Education is a division of your department, through you, were to issue a condemnation of the attitude of anti-religious bias shown by the National Education Association through the recommendations of its Educational Policies Commission, a contribution of lasting value to the cause of religious tolerance in this country would have been made."

"The argument made by the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association for the secularization of schools is the same argument that has been made by the leaders of totalitarian governments. It is an un-American argument and should be condemned by all truly patriotic citizens of this country."

"Shocked by the situation now existing in the German Reich, in Russia, in Spain, and in Mexico, in which innocent people are being persecuted because of their membership in certain religious and racial groups, we appeal to you. We make this appeal because we fear, if the report of the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association is to receive support, similar situations will develop in our own country."

TERRORISM REVIVED BY BARCELONA REDS With Religious Freedom Still A Myth

By REV. MANUEL GRANA

LA CORUNA (NC).—The month of December saw a resurgence of the Red Terror in Barcelona. Hundreds of individuals, businessmen, attorneys, industrialists and ecclesiastics—were imprisoned and there were new executions of "Rightists" accused of espionage.

This resurgence of cruelty is attributed to the protests of the civilian population suffering from the pangs of hunger and the cold of winter, and demanding that the Government surrender to the Nationalists so that they might have food and clothing, fuel and medicine.

Don Carlos Ruiz del Castillo, formerly a contributor to El Debate, escaped from Madrid about the middle of December. He reports that the number of deaths is four times the normal rate due to a lack of medicine, the scarcity of food and fuel combined with the rigors of winter.

No Commerce at Night

All semblance of commerce stops at 5 P. M. Don Carlos states, for there are no lights. Those regarded as "Rightists" are allowed only about 10 pounds of fuel every 12,000 and secure for their food a ration card is indispensable.

Presentation of the card, Don Carlos explains, is supposed to entitle one to 150 grams of bread made with acorn flour, and 150 grams of rice, lentils or beans, and 12,000 and secure for their food a ration card is indispensable.

Nothing is left of the famous museums, he says. The works of the great masters have disappeared. The day that Franco's airplanes showed broad Madrid, the streets were covered by a flood of great sorrow. More than 10,000 persons were imprisoned for picking up the bread. Some Ruiz says he succeeded in getting one loaf. He returned to Madrid, exhausted and tortured by so many sufferings, is pleading for surrender.

Front statements made by persons who have recently come from Red Spain, the "religious liberty" of Catalonia appears to be nothing more than a great propaganda. There seems to be no foundation for reports that there are "temporary public chapels" capable of accommodating 2,000,000 people, nor can one pray in one's private openly or even summon a priest by telephone for the dying.

Lack of Priests, Churches

It is evident on the face of the matter that religious liberty would be to say the least, hampered by a lack of places and priests. Even in Nationalist Spain there are not enough priests to serve the needs of the people. In addition to those who are at the front and assigned to the hospitals as chaplains, priests must be supplied for the liberated provinces where the Red's elimination of the local clergy continues to be a fact.

In a Luce magazine and as Catholic as Coopers there have been only 20 priests and in Montevideo only one during the whole year. The number of students entering the seminaries on the increase, but it will be several years before Spain can substitute for the priests who were murdered and those who fled from natural causes.

The further the Red's operations are extended, the more the Catholic Action group.

FR. COUGHLIN ASKS For Honest Effort To Solve U. S. Problem

DETROIT.—A plea to Americans to "lend every honest effort for the reconstruction of the social order" is an order that is staggering to destruction unless this problem of unemployment plus peace is solved, was made by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower at Royal Oak, Mich., in his radio address, Sunday.

Saying "I fear an army of 10,000,000 unemployed American citizens more than I do the possibility of our country's being covered by 10,000,000 foreigners," Father Coughlin asserted "radical remedies are no cure for radical abuses." "While we quarrel among ourselves for the cause of the least means to be chosen to eliminate unemployment and stem the tide of confiscation through taxation, our opponents are united on a program which aims at overthrowing our constitutional government and of nationalizing our basic industries."

"There is a ray of hope which filters through the clouds of despair," Father Coughlin continued. "It is the changing attitude of labor toward industry and of industry toward labor. Two and four years ago there were many labor leaders preaching the gospel of class warfare. They were content to blame industry for all their ills. That attitude is changing, and I believe that industry and labor are coming to a better mutual understanding."

Father Coughlin said he is of the opinion that if we must seek a cause for unemployment we must go back further than the industrialist because the problem of unemployment is just as much a problem for the industrialist as it is for the laborer. "If it is not solved, it means the dissolution of both," he added. "This day, then, he declared, 'call for a union of industry and labor to fight against a common enemy, the enemy of an unjust, insanitary and unchristian cause for unemployment we must go back further than the industrialist because the problem of unemployment is just as much a problem for the industrialist as it is for the laborer.'"

SPAIN RADIO PROGRAM IS FINALLY GIVEN TIME

NEW YORK.—After having been put off two stations within the past six months, the "Echoes of Spain," which includes news of Nationalist Spain in its program, has been given time on radio station WREB, Newark. The new program is heard each Sunday from 6 to 8:30 P. M.

Ramon Salo, director of the program, the name of which has been changed to "Echoes of Spain," said the new broadcast has aroused much interest, in the form of letters and communications, 150 letters being received after the first of these only eight were opposed to the program.

Two New York stations, WINS and WREB, cancelled the Spanish program shortly after it had begun. "Echoes of Spain" is a program of Spanish music and a review of the week's news in Nationalist Spain. The news items are reviewed from the Pontine Masses Service, which is in daily cable communication with Spain.

JUDGES SELECTED FOR CATHOLIC PLAY CONTEST

Brendan Lavan, O.P., Assistant Secretary of the Theater Conference; and E. Francis McDermott, Treasurer of the Conference, official organ of the Conference.

The contest, which is open to everyone in the United States, requires that the plays submitted deal basically with the martyrdom of Father Jean-Baptiste Bouvier and Guillaume Le Roux, Oblates murdered by Redskins in the Far North a quarter of a century ago.

Manuscripts craving the favor of the judges should be sent to the following committee: Mayme Bauman, Louise Dieger, Elizabeth Fisher, Clara Frestman, Josephine Hoffman and Lucille Wicher.

Rev. John F. Lynch, C.S.S., spiritual director, will be the speaker.

TABASCO GOVERNOR EXPECTED TO BRING About Religious, Social Tolerance

MEXICO CITY.—With the inauguration of Senator Francisco Trujillo Garcia as Governor of Tabasco, it is believed that this State will experience more social peace and religious tolerance than it has known for some years.

The anti-Catholic and unemancipational law which made it impossible for a priest to register and receive civil authorization to perform his sacerdotal duties, since marriage was a requirement for registration, has not yet been repealed or amended. Nevertheless, the Most Rev. Vincente Comas took up his residence in Tabasco last December 2, the first time since his consecration in 1930 that he has been allowed within his diocese.

The Most Rev. Gerardo Anaya, Bishop of Chiapas, has made three attempts to establish himself in his diocese, but was driven out each time. At present he is still in Mexico City and not in good health. He intends to go again to Chiapas when his health permits.

The Senate Commission that accompanied Governor Trujillo to Tabasco upon its return to Mexico City, reported to the Mexican Revolutionary Party on conditions in that State after the long regime of the Rev. Tomas Garrido Canabal. Although the State is one of the richest in natural resources, the Commission reports that it now presents a spectacle of ruin, and that not even in the capital are found any of the public services considered essential in any civilized community, such as adequate drainage and clean water for domestic use.

Christmas services were held at Tantoyuca, Vera Cruz, this year in the parish church which had been closed for eight years last but the church was too small to accommodate the thousands who flocked there from the city and the surrounding villages and ranches. The Municipal President of Tantoyuca closed the church, but the people held services outside the church edifice, the people of Tantoyuca took possession of the church on December 16.

During services that night the police arrived and threatened to arrest anyone who remained within the edifice, but the people refused to vacate and the police did not force the issue. Next day however, the doors of the church were opened and the people held services again. On December 19 they addressed a petition to the Ministry of Gobernacion asking for full liberty to hold religious services and this petition has been granted.

While awaiting official recognition of their petition, the Catholics of Tantoyuca had made every preparation for Mass on Christmas Eve. They had secured the services of a priest from the Diocese of Huejutla, who celebrated Mass at 11 A. M. The Mass was presided by a silent and orderly procession through the principal streets of the city. The Mexican banner and a banner of Our Lady of Guadalupe were carried at the head of the procession.

The arch Confraternity of the Holy Family for single women of St. Joseph's Church, will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 Mass Sunday morning, February 5, 1939.
