"The adoption of a Resolution entails a responsibility. This is the smooth when that obligations can be fulfilled.

"At no time has there been Priliminary perceedings for the more urgant need for a defen-sive weapon, such as our Catho-lic Press, against the type of literature which appears on our newsertands the country over. No Cathellio pearent can be oblivious of the great danger threatening the moral and spiritual welfare of sur youth in lawing constantly offered to them such demoralting periodicals. What are we doing to combat this evil? We are told that protest alone will not awaii and that we must have an amtidote the substitution of that which is good for that which Is evil.

"We have that antidote in our Catholic weekly and daily papers; in our Catholic books, magazines, periodicals; in the establishment of a Catholic book shelf in our public libraries. The errors that are being broadcast can be chacked if that antidote is used. Thexas is no better means of inculcating Catholic thought and Catholic philosophy in the mind of youth and keeping Cath-olic literature alive than foster-ing our Catholic Press. "The National Council of Catholle Women, through its National Committee on Press and Public-ity, and through its National Committee on Libraries and Literatures, offers suggestions and most stamps and received a half day off as a result, was Sister Vindering the second of the second o emphasize both the value of the Catholic Press and the importance of Catholic Hierature?
