I Believe—I Battle

PREPARE A BONFIRE FOR EASTER

By Magr. P. M. H. Wynhoven

Catholic Action of the South

A mother came into the office, sat down and broke out into convulsive sobs. Her boy, a high school student, bright in his studies, had been acting strangely lately. She was advised to take him to a behavior—problem doctor, a psychiatrist. Unfortunately this doctor as in the case with so many in this specialized medical service was of the type who take little stock in religion and follow in their practice the philosophy of Dr. Sigmund Freud. The theory of this German savant is that all mental abnormalities can be traced to sex suppression, and therefore, sex indulgence is the only cure. The good woman's son, after the doctor's examination diagnosis and recommendation of remedy had gone to bed.

"Father, what can I do?" He destroyed my son's faith. The following is the advice of St. Paul: "For this is the will of God your sanctification, abstain from fornication. Let every man possess his vessel in sanctification and honor not in the passion of lust." The weak self-indulgent pleasure-bent world maintains that sexual gratification is necessary and man is entitled to it, our abstinently inclined doctor deems it imperative as a preventive and cure of mental ailments.

What is the mind of God, our Creator on the subject? He has implanted in every normal human being a creative instinct, a self-perpetuation urge, the same as He created in all other animals. He did this for His own good and noble purpose, hence there is nothing wrong with this instinct or urge.

Biologically the exercise and indulgence of this God-given privilege is not absolutely necessary for man's health and happiness. This is proved in the animal world, beasts in confinement get along well without exercising this instinct.

Man, endowed with reason and will power can abstain from the use of this natural faculty and create a source of great spiritual satisfaction for himself because by abstinence he becomes truly great in self conquest. Napoleon who by his astounding military achievements had brought practically the whole of continental Europe under his dominion maintained that his still greater conqueror was he who could master himself. The great military leader of the modern age admitted his inability to do this and therefore in sober moments realized what a little insignificant weakness he was. He died penniless away from all temptations.

Away from all temptations that is the first and principal requisite to possess one's manhood in sanctity and honor.

To show the great occasions in which we must rely on God's grace of strength which we can obtain by earnest supplication and the use of the sacramental means which He has instituted for that purpose.

One of the strongest factors to excite one to the passion of lust is the reading of lascivious literature, articles and books with an engaging undertone of sex allurements. Most of our modern magazines and novels carry an appeal no matter how subtly to the lower instincts of man. Pen and picture have made the basic thought of the nation.

Archbishop Drossaert's correction when he surmises: "The world seems to be sex-obsessed principally because our modern writers and authors seem to be obsessed with sex." This is why we must protect the youth of the nation by training them to avoid this sort of pernicious reading and instead interest them in literature that is constructive and refining and at the same time entertaining.

Speaking of Lenten resolutions, why can't father and mother resolve that during Lent not one magazine or book that in any way will unbalance or disturb the latent instinct of their growing children shall enter the home? Furthermore, take time out to gather from the bookshelves inflammatory trash that will make a jolly winter bonfire. Easter Sunday morning this resolution if carried out will be most pleasing to God and will save many a mother from eventual heartbreak.

Crew Battles Storm To Make State Film

Actors, cameramen, director and property men braved blizzards, sub-zero temperatures and huge snow drifts to film "Serum to Windham," a short feature which will be shown at the Cameo and Lake Theatres March 3 and 4 and Grand, March 5 and 6.

The film, produced by the Division of Public Health Education of the New York State Department of Health, is used on a 14-story city police, railroad officials, State Troopers and county highway workers made it possible for the doctor to save the youth's life.

"A diocesan newspaper has become an integral part of the program of Catholic Action in every diocese."—Bishop Kearney.

LIFE STORY TOLD

SAINT JOHN FISHER

BISHOP RECOMMENDS

'Life of John Fisher' For Lenten Reading

Highly recommended for Lenten reading by His Excellency the Most Rev. James E. Kearney is a new book which has just made its appearance here. The Bishop of Rochester the Story of St. John Fisher.

The new book by Paul McCann tells the story of the defiance of a ruthless king by a valiant Bishop. Saint John Fisher is particularly recommended to diocesan and inspiration and advocate before the throne of God" by Bishop Kearney. The book bears a specially designed red cover bearing the coat of arms of the Diocese of Rochester. The cover is attractive and its typographical layout is pleasing to the eye.

This week at Trants Catholic book store opposite St. Joseph's Church on Franklin Street an eye-catching display has been arranged to call attention to the book.

Featuring the window display is a statue of St. John Fisher. Much interest is being shown in the book which relates the heroism of the great Saint of Rochester and gives the background of the Diocese of Rochester during that period of history.

World's Fair To Show Model Of St. Peter's

SAN FRANCISCO. A half million dollar model of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome will be seen in this country for the second time when it is exhibited at the Golden Gate International Exposition here.

Part of the elaborate scale reproduction one sixtieth the size of St. Peter's in Rome was here begun in the sixteenth century and completed in the eighteenth century. The reproduction was shown 65 years ago at the World's Columbian Exposition.

HOSPITALITY OF COLONIAL HOME

This is No. 6 of a New Housing Series

DESIGN N-2 Five Rooms and Bath

Planned for a narrow lot, this simple, sturdy, colonial design in brick veneer construction is definitely a complete and efficient home unit. However, for those who wish more space or where family requirements demand an extra sleeping room or where a spare room for den or sewing purposes is desired, a rear room addition can be provided. A large front porch and all principal rooms cross-ventilated, are features worthy of note.

MISSION INTENTION: "That the Rights of Christians May Be Safeguarded in Palestine and the Peace of Christ be promoted in the Kingdom of Christ."

"Out of these shall come faith the leader who shall rule my people Israel." It was out of a Bethlehem and a Jerusalem devoid of its ancient splendor that the Son of Man came. Shorn of her former grandeur, subjected to the tyranny of Mighty Rome, the holy city of the Old Law became the Cradle of the spiritual empire of the New Law. Its soil was sown by His footsteps and vivified by His Precious Blood. Yet today mortal strife holds the stage. Christ, the Prince of Peace finds no place in the hearts of its inhabitants. His Vicar, our late beloved Holy Father Pius XI, solicits our prayers heralding St. Joseph for these afflicted people.

A Consequence. The popularity of the motor-car has had its effect upon our people. No one of us is so anxious to walk for any distance if it is only to go to the store at the corner we hop into the motor-car and drive to our destination. In countries there isn't the danger of falling into such a slothful habit simple because there are not the conveyances handy and walking isn't only to the corner or a few blocks distant. It is literally five ten twenty miles over rutted, badly rutted roads and paths or the muddy river trails, through jungled forests, or the narrow lanes of rice paddies. Often their errand is a demand made by two-legged devils are not noted for their speed.

These thoughts of mission travel were aroused by a letter from one of our own fellow diocesan, the Rev. Charles Hilbert, who is in China. Father Hilbert asks for motorcycle in order to be more efficient at his priestly labor. His parish is equally the size of Monroe County which is quite a walk for anyone. His little scattered flock require his presence frequently. Yet his present mode of travel, namely by foot, here retard his getting about. We could very easily relieve this situation, aiding Father Hilbert in his great work, thereby bringing the consolations of our holy religion to our Chinese brethren. We are starting a motorcycle fund for Father Hilbert. How about your donation? Anything from a penny to a hundred dollar bill is quite acceptable. Send your offering to this office and it will be acknowledged in a subsequent issue of this column.

Some one come all. One of our own priests is in need. Watch the fund grow as your Lenten miles keep pouring into our office. In the Columbus Civic Centre Plaza.

He shall help from Pole to Pole. Eight thousand square miles of country never before seen by human eye, have been added today to the known area of the world's surface, and following a precedent set by earlier discoverers, I have claimed the area I have explored for my country, the United States of America.

The age of exploration is not past. In the limitless white expanses of Antarctic Lincoln Ellsworth has found new lands to conquer and to claim. If the quest for knowledge can be so absorbing, so provocative of the finest examples of courage and fortitude on the part of the explorer, how much more so is the quest for souls. It is possible that the future will see an entirely new era in mission history. Ellsworth reports rock formations which may contain valuable minerals. There may be another Gold Rush another Silver Rush, or a repletion of the present day Radium Rush. It may be that the Church which at the cost of untold suffering and blood of its martyrs has claimed the Northland for Christ, may soon be called upon to send more of Her sons and daughters to this newly discovered area. Hence, one thing is certain—where the explorer goes, this missionary follows, making possible that "He shall reign from pole to pole."

To us stay-at-homes" such acts of heroism are indeed inspiring. Sitting in the comfort of our homes, we sympathize with these priests and sisters. Have we ever thought of giving expression to that sympathy? Or is it just so many words quickly forgotten? Nothing so signals our appreciation of their lives than membership in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. May we then, collect your love of Christ and His valiant missionaries in such an enrollment?

Help: I am forced to beg for Mass stipends. Please show mercy to me and my missionaries. I have no more stipends for my twenty-four missionaries and stipends are the only means to keep us. As you know, we are entirely cut off from our German homeland and cannot get even one cent from there. I beseech you to send me Mass stipends as soon as it is possible. We shall reward it to you with our prayers and sacrifices. Thankfully yours in Christ.

Theodore Breher, O.S.B., Bishop de Yenli.

Mass stipends are the life blood of our missionaries. Frequent them and starvation. When arranging your Easter Mass stipends, keep this office in mind. We are literally besieged with such appeals, all of them deserving. But without you, it is not possible to offer them relief. Our Mass stipends will be immediately allocated to our missionaries, both home and abroad.
