Filmy white blouses and peeping petticoats being as fashionable as they are, an ingenious device for suit wearers is to be found in a novel combination of the two. Here is a two-in-one idea which combines a new Paris fashion (the lingerie petticoat) with an accepted one (the lingerie blouse). From a practical viewpoint the blouse and petticoat cut in one is desirable because it "anchors" the blouse, preventing constant tucking in of the top worn under the suit skirt.

APPEALS FOR BIRTH CONTROL ARTICLES

Are Exposed To Public As 'Inspired'

CHICAGO. The current number of Hygeia, published by the American Medical Association and edited by Dr. Morris Fishbein, tells of several hundreds o. letters received, asking that it include articles on birth control. The number contains also a fac-simile of a letter from Mrs. Margaret Sanger, president of the Birth Control Clinical Research Bureau, New York, in which recipients were urged to write to Hygeia asking for publication of articles on birth control.

"During the past few months," the article say, "Hygeia has received several hundred letters from persons, particularly in the eastern part of the United States, who have urged the publication in this periodical of articles discussing birth control from various points of view. Soon it became apparent that these letters were being stimulated by some agency which the writers failed to name. Eventually came a copy of the propaganda now being circulated by the Birth Control Clinical Research Bureau asking those who received the letter to request such an article in Hygeia.

Goes To School Children

"Hygeia was established by the American Medical Association to educate the public on health. In fulfilling this purpose, it discusses medical progress, being careful in every instance, however, to indicate that which is established and that which is still in process of experimentation. The periodical contains a vast amount of material directed to students in the grade schools, the high schools and the colleges. In at least one State, arrangements have been made to supply Hygia to every elementary school, where it is used as a part of the course of instruction in public health. It is not considered that discussions of devices for birth control are suitable to such an audience.

"At a recent meeting of the American Medical Association, the House of Delegates, which is the representative body of the organization, authorized the formation of a special committee to deal with the problems of contraception and to arrange for the publication in The Journal of the American Medical Association of articles which discuss 'disastrous results of false reliance on products for which misleading claims are made to the public.' The material published is thus available for reproduction in any periodical addressed to that part of the general public interested in birth control. There would seem to be no reason however why a periodical reaching great numbers of school children and adolescents should carry this information to them or should discuss some of the highly controversial aspects of contraception as a social phenomenon.

"It will be interesting to the readers of Hygeia to learn that a careful investigation of the persons who wrote to this periodical requesting that it devote its columns to birth control indicated that apparently they are much more interested in birth control than they are in general since less than 10 per cent of them were actually subscribers to the magazine."

The letter from Mrs. Sanger said:

"Dear Friend:

Hygeia is the monthly magazine published by the American Medical Association to give medical information to those who are not physicians.

Letters Requested

"This far it has not discussed birth control in its columns. It is possible that this is due to failure to appreciate the importance of the problem to readers.

"It is therefore suggested that you write to the editor of Hygeia, 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

"Either

"1. Inquire about the safety or effectiveness of one of the proprietary brands of contraceptive materials about which you wish information.

"Or

"2. Suggest that an article on birth control would be of great interest to you and the lay public.

"Hygeia has an excellent opportunity to safeguard its readers from the possibly disastrous results of false reliance upon products for which misleading claims are made to the public."

Our Lady of Good Counsel

April 26 is the feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel, our Patroness. We call attention to this feast at the present time with the hope that all our members may join in a nation wide novena of prayer to Our Lady that she may direct and guide our work.

This year we would add a special petition for the work of the National Catholic School of Social Service. Expanding the activities of the school increasing the enrollment and providing for the additional accommodations necessary will make imperative considerable increase in expenditures.

We feel sure that our Blessed Mother will not fail to lend her aid in a work which is of vital importance in the face of present day conditions.

May we hear about your May Day plans for the school?

We are happy to announce the final publication which had been unavoidably delayed of the list of Sustaining Members of the Rochester Diocesan Council N C W.

A new booklet is mailed to each of our contributors.

We will appreciate having our attention called to any errors or omissions.

Party To Aid Camp Set for May 2

Annual card party for the benefit of Camp Stella Maris, the Catholic boys camp on Conesus Lake, will be held in the Columbus Civic Centre Auditorium Tuesday evening May 2.

Mrs. Ronald MacDonald is general chairman. Her committee aids will be announced soon.

Proceeds of the party will be used for repairs and needed facilities of Camp Stella Maris. The camp is run by the Division of Social Action of the Rochester Catholic Charities, and seminarians from St. Bernard's Seminary serve as counselors.

Tickets for the coming party may be obtained at the Camp Headquarters, Columbus Civic Centre, Stone 1492.

Holy Redeemer Young Folks Planning Easter Party

Young people of Holy Redeemer Parish are enthusiastic over prospects for an Easter dance they will hold in the parish hall, 938 Clifford Avenue on Monday, April 10.

The newly organized Holy Redeemer Youth Association and the Young Ladies Sodality have combined forces and are making every effort to stage a gala affair with plenty of enjoyment for everyone. The music makers for this event are to be the "Geneseeans" and dancing will be from 9 to 12.

Joseph Weber of Edison Tech High and Dorothy Reeves of Carter Street are acting as co-chairmen and have appointed the following committee: Amelia Weber of Nazareth College, George Bopp of Aquinas Institute, William Seyboth and Helen Weber of Franklin High School, Marie Leinberger of Nazareth Academy, Margaret Snyder of Washington High School and Don Schuls and Virginia Psyk of St. Joseph's Commercial School.

Florence Flannigan of St. Ambrose writes that a cordial invitation is extended to all of the Sodalists of the city to attend their Easter Dance to be held at their hall, Culver Rd. and Empire Blvd. on Thursday, April 13.

The Probationists of Holy Rosary Sodality are right in and doing already. They took over the work of conducting a cooked food sale sponsored by the Sodality in April, and did a grand job of it. Dona Blind (not a "probie") was chairman.

SODALTALK

By Margaret Worthington

One of the things we enjoy the most during the year is extending the sincere wishes of the joyous Easter season from Father Fox, Marg and all the officers and cronies of the Union to every spiritual director and Sodalist in town and around. No greeting is more sincerely spoken than "cheers to you. They've asked us to say to every Sodalist of Our Lady May your Easter be glorious with the Risen Christ."

* * *

We are about to witness the greatest drive that has ever been driv" in the Sodality, and this with the good ole Catholic Truth Committee holding the reins. They are going to get every Sodalist in town using a Missal at Mass. You'll be hearing the details at your April meetings and lots more about it here. If you aren't already in the good habit, cheer up, you will be! There's a new Queen's Work pamphlet out, by the way, heaven-sent and custom built for our Missal drive. "A Layman Looks at the Mass," by Art Kuhl. (In headquarters, or speak to your C. T. C. chairman.

Gala, gay and gorgeous is the post-Easter parade of Sodality social events. First of all, there's the Immaculate Sodality's first formal dance scheduled for Easter Monday in the school hall. Rita Koesterer is general chairman, with Marg Kenny acting as Arrangements chairman.

* * *

Out in East Rochester, St. Jerome's are having an Easter Monday dance, too. Dave Silver's Band has been engaged, and we're all invited, with the admission set at 75 cents a couple.

* * *

If by any chance, your Sodality is one of those, St. Ambrose

Checkers party held at the various homes charge 25 cents and serve refreshments." Sounds like an enjoyable evening and of course the 25 cents fees will come in handy too.

* * *

Sunday, April 16 attention will be focused on St. Monica's Silver Tea. The little silver tea pot invitations read "Three to Five April 16 at St. Monica's Hall. Chairman Helen Toner, decorations Mildred Schenkell and Ellen Muir, invitations, Grace Collins, entertainment Helen Zimmer, publicity Betty Meng, refreshments Ruth Butler and Doris Toomey.

St Andrew's Sodality writes to tell us that they are doing some splendid work with their new Moderator, Rev Elmer Heindl. After a lapse of three years, the Sodality will publish its first paper on Easter Sunday. The staff includes Evelyn Constable as Editor, Margaret Ward, Assistant Editor, and Ruth Mutter, Anne Zeigler, Kay Oliver, Thelma Henderson, Marie Streb and Lucille Bates taking the various other responsible offices on their shoulders.

And this idea, we think, is good and should be carried out more often. A combined parish affair. Very shortly the Sodality and Junior Holy Name Society from St. Andrew's will join the Sodality and Junior Holy Name Society from St. Michael's in holding an informal dance together.

Madam President wishes me to extend for her a hearty and sincere thanks to every Sodalist who cooperated in the selling of the Passion Play tickets. The Sodality did one grand job of it, and the Knights of Columbus think we're
