THE LISTENIN' POST

By AL SIBSON An Open Letter to The Listenin' Post FRIEND AL: Radio broadcasting to the technicians does not have the same old thrill that it used to have in the younger days.

The boys have their favorite programs as well as everyone else. We must admit there are plenty of fellows who go on a "mailing" every holiday.

Next week Jack Lee, WHAM Production Manager, takes over the post. Jack has promised us the inside dope on "Why Production?"

Clifton Fadiman, the erudite young man who asks the questions and interviews, please and his two stalwarts, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams.

Ever since Morton Downey joined Eddy Duchin and his orchestra on the Fall Mall program, while cartooning has been delivered to him before each broadcast.

Harry McTigue, WHAM baseball scribe, writes from Winter Garden, Florida, where he is in training with the Rochester Red Wings.

Faith Stories For Little Ones

By REV. HENRY GIBSON The following are examples from Scripture of the terrible and visible judgments, with which God sometimes punishes the sin of disobedience.

When Jeroboam king of Israel was one day starting across the golden calf which he had erected at Bethel, a prophet was sent by God to announce to him the punishment that awaited his impiety.

As the prophet of Juda continued to exhort himself on account of the command which God had given him, the other declared that an Angel had appeared to him and commanded him in the name of God to bring the stranger back to eat with him.

One day when the father reproached his son for his undutiful conduct, the latter in a fit of fury seized his father by the hair of his head and threw him to the ground.

MSGR. SHEEN WARNS Of Spiritual Sloth In 'Catholic Hour'

NEW YORK—Man must beware of spiritual slothfulness if he is to work successfully for a complete life, declared the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Sheen last night in his address on the Sixth Word over the "Catholic Hour."

Our Lord is the die; we must be stamped by it, he said. He said the pattern we must be modeled to is "The Cross is the condition to which we must be suited to."

Not only must we beware of spiritual sloth, the speaker went on, we must work for a completed life. The important word in the struggle against sloth is "finished."

Important Ones Not Essential In the Christian order, he continued, it is not the important things that are essential for those who do great things who are really great. A thing is no nobler in the sight of God than a peasant.
