struggle in order to raise American feeling against...

"Thirty years ago the Catholic citizens of this country could boast of about 100 religious weekly newspapers..."

"What was needed at the time, and badly needed, as numerous Church leaders of the day pointed out, was a Catholic weekly of national scope..."

Volume One, Number One of the review was issued from the first headquarters in New York's Washington Square...

The object of this review, its first editorial said in part, "is to discuss questions of the day affecting religion, morality, science, and literature to give information and suggest principles that may help to the solution of vital problems..."

The review has done so well that program ever since, although the currents of time have carried it far from some of the curious topics mentioned in its first issue...

America began as an outpost of the old world. A religious magazine which found itself giving more and more space to the moral criticism of secular affairs...

After the Gospel had been chanted in Latin and before it had been chanted in Greek...

Bishops' Program of Reconstruction Is Re-Issued On 20th Anniversary brought peace. But the only safeguard of peace is social justice and a contented people...

The principal recommendations and proposals contained in the "Bishops' Program" were:

(1) Minimum wage legislation; (2) Insurance against unemployment, sickness, invalidity, and old age; (3) A 15-hour minimum week for working children...

The reason why a fundamental scheme for the reconstruction of industrial society was not advocated in the "Bishops' Program" was stated in the following words: "Such an undertaking would be a waste of time as regards immediate needs and purposes..."

CATHOLICS 50 PCT. OF GREATER GERMANY

AMSTERDAM. More than 3,000,000 Catholics of Czecho-Slovakia having been forced to unite with the Catholic population of the Reich has now risen to 50 per cent of its total population...

Last year the relation between Protestants and Catholics in Germany was still 1 to 1. After the Austrian Anschluss this relation changed to 3 to 2, and it has now become 50-50.

Unfortunately, this numerical growth of the Church is somewhat unevenly distributed. Fifty per cent of the Catholics in territories formerly predominantly, and by tradition, Catholic.
