IN MEMORIAM

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY of the Heroic Death of FATHER DAMIAN (Joseph De Veuster)

Apostle of the Lepers at Molokai
Martyr of Charity
Born at Tremelo, Belgium, January 3rd, 1840
Died at Kalawao, Molokai, Hawaii, April 15, 1889
Rev. Pachomius C. Van der Maulden, C.S.S.C.
(March 19, 1939)

MARTYR OF MOLOKAI

Not by the rack, the flames, the sword,
Shall thy fulgent crown be won,
O noble martyr of the Lord
Belgium's heroic son!

Not like the Colossus's band,
Victims of Roman lust—
Upon the arena's bloody sand
The prey of furious beasts.

But in the treacherous southern seas,
Where Kalawao lies:
A victim of deceptive peace
Beneath Hawaiian skies.

Far from beloved fatherland,
From kindred, home and friends,
The glory of thy mission grand
In gruesome tortures ends.

O! Virgin holocaust of love!
O! royal sacrifice!
Whose perfumes to our God above
Like rarest incense rise.

Thine be the triumph of the saint!
Thine the Martyr's victory:
No foul corruption's leper's taint,
Can check thy spirit's glee.

For high in mounts beyond the gloom
Of death and dark decay,
To where immortal lilies bloom
In fields of endless day.

Courage brave heart, thy goal is there!
Be long or short, the span
O! suffering life, thou didst share
Thy people's banes and ban.

What time, the frail corroding walls
O! flesh, release the soul
Christ in His fair eternal halls
Shall make the leper whole.

The good Shepherd giveth His life for His Sheep.

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL

National Council of Catholic Women
Office 536 Columbus Ave., Centre 50 Chestnut Street

Our members will appreciate the following message from Sister Mary Claire of the Blessed Archdiocese of Syracuse, N. Y. "My Easter greetings to the National Council through your assembly. May the Risen Christ bless their efforts."

Sister Mary Claire was formerly our own Carolyn Ruth Dorn who has been working in the work of the Council since 1937.

On Saturday, April 15 at 12:30 P. M. E. S. T. Miss Anne Sara (non Hostess) our National Hostess will speak on the Call to Youth hour direct from Vatican City. Miss Hooley who is now in Rome attending the Congress of the International Union of Catholic Women's Leagues will be the first woman ever to broadcast from the famous station.

We recommend this especially to all who have short wave radios. The National Council of Catholic Women has announced a Regional Conference to be held in Dubuque, Iowa, May 18 and 19. It is important news to the Midwestern section of the United States because it is being held especially for the dioceses in that section. But it is important to the rest of the country also cannot sufficiently be stressed.

The Regional Conference is not entirely a new venture for the Council. It has formerly been held several years ago with the Diocesan Council of Catholic Daughters (our St. Joseph 123 Corning N. Y.) Immediate Hostess of Mary and Rosary Society of St. Alphonsus Church Auburn N. Y. Rochester Catholic Charities.

Rosary Society Immaculate Conception Church, Rochester N. Y. Altar and Rosary Society St. Mary's Church Elmira N. Y.
