EDITOR
JAMES R. KEARNEY, Bishop of Rochester

Published by CATHOLIC COURIER and JOURNAL, Inc.
Rochester, N. Y.

Established 1922 Journal Established 1880

CATHOLIC COURIER has my most enthusiastic approval. A journal of the highest quality and interest. It is a must for every Catholic. The CATHOLIC COURIER should be read by every Catholic home in his diocese. I find it hard to remember any Catholic who is not interested in it. It is a journal that speaks to the heart of the Catholic people. Let us support the CATHOLIC COURIER in every Catholic home.

Formal Protest
ALONG THE WAY

By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

If I were a restaurant manager to a job with which I find, by the way, as a youth I should have on my wall a number of colanders. There would be a colander of all Catholic feasts and fasts and another of Jewish feasts and fasts, and a third for any sizable group that eats or does not eat in a special way at certain times.

No Regard
For the End?

By REV. JAMES M. GILLIS, C.S.J., Editor, The Catholic World

According to Reginald J Dingle, author of "Russia's Work in France," Dr. Murron who is one of the most distinguished biologists in Europe, can fairly be said to be a Liberal. With Perez de Ayala and Ortega y Gasset, he formed the Republican Association under the Spanish monarchy, and was imprisoned under the Directorate for his resistance to dictatorship when he was the most prominent socialist leader was receiving a salary from the Government.

They Do It Every Time
Sursum Corda

An Englishman dropped in to see us not long ago, sat at our table and discoursed volubly about Australia.
He had just come from a trip and he seemed to know a bit about the land Down-Under.
In fact, I marvelled that he could have sided up to a strange land so quickly and so surely. As he proceeded with his analysis and synthesis of the good and the bad in England's most distant possession, the marvel grew.
Oliver Goldsmith said in regard to the omniscient schoolmaster Of course we all had to agree We knew no better. We had never seen Australia.
