Life of - Madame Rose Lummis

By REVEREND RALPH J. MEYER

These articles are compiled from the Life of Rose Lummis with the kind permission of Burns, Oates, and Washburne L. T. D. of London, England.

He built the home, to which he always returned for peace and rest, where his boys spent their youth and learned to love Sodas Point with that strange fascination which was inherited by their sons...

POINT CAPTURED

In winter the bay presents a fine spectacle of ice. The surface is frozen over, and the ice several inches in thickness...

FIRES IMPRESSION

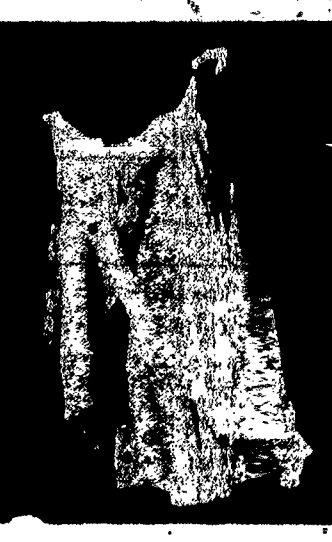

This was the first impression Dr. Lummis received of Sodas Bay. He had left his hurried life at Philadelphia for change and freedom...

WILMA J. TROY Monastery Guild Plans Card Party

Annual May card party, sponsored by the Carmelite Monastery Guild, will be held Wednesday evening, May 11, at the Columbus Civic Center...

Mrs. Benjamin F. Miles, general chairman of the event, and assisting her are Mrs. Frederick L. Hery and Mrs. O. H. Saxeby.

She purchased an estate of six thousand acres, which stretched picturesquely along the lake, and the "Homestead" which is planned and built was a charming retreat, rising amid the forest primeval, and commanding enchanting views of wood and water lake and bay.

Soda talk

Rochester Parish Societies Union Activities By Margaret Worthington

Rochester took a bow of pride this week when news arrived that Virginia Doolittle, a graduate of Mercyhurst College and former member of Mercy High and St. Monica's Sodality was elected by her classmates to rule as Queen of the May...

It was in the days when the celebrated Madame Rue led the Philadelphia world of fashion into the wits and learning of the day congregated in her salon, and when she appeared in the streets surrounded by her admirers...

Any time now Sodality, you can send in your reservations to MARY Caxfield at Genesee 46th St. for Union banquet. The Committee is working hard to make it an enjoyable evening...
