St. John Evangelist's
150 ATTEND BANQUET

Using as his topic "True Christian Mothers," the Rev Daniel Fraher addressed a gathering of over 150 at the Mothers and Daughters banquet held last Wednesday evening at St John's parish. Highly in keeping with national Mother's Day celebration, Father Fraher illustrated his fine talk with many examples of sacrificing motherhood.

In turn, Kathleen Martin, toastmistress of the banquet then introduced Father Sullivan and his two assistants, Father Maloney and Father Leary

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Browncroft Grill orchestra, the "Dark Cloud Trio." The evening's entertainment was climaxed with a comedy skit on college life entitled "Seven to One."

Included in the cast were Shirley Collins, Marguerite Gruntler, Fern Smith, Joan Jempel Mary Lou Cleary, Ruth Vogt, Catherine Williams and Arlene Mostyn.

Jim Barry chairman of the softball committee of the Holy Name Society announced the formation of a four team league Games will be played on the parish field every Wednesday and Friday evening at 7 P M

Sodality Union Elects Rita Doolin President

Climaxing an active career as a sodalist of Our Lady, Rita Doolin was elected to the presidency of the Sodality Union last Monday evening by delegates of all parishes assembled at St. Monica's Hall

Anna Phillips of Holy Rosary parish was again elected to the office of secretary of the Union because of her fine work in this capacity. She was president of her parish Sodality

She had been elected treasurer last year but by unanimous choice she was made secretary to complete the office vacated by Ann Brennan of SS Peter and Paul's parish

Miss Doolin was prefect of the Sodality at her parish church, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, where she also edited the Sodality paper She was an active Sodalist throughout her four years at Nazareth Academy.

In her Junior year at Nazareth College, she was elected secretary of the Sodality She then went on to win the office of prefect in which capacity she served throughout her senior year.

As president of the Sodality Union, Miss Doolin succeeds Margaret Larkin who ably held this position for two years Formal installation ceremonies were held Wednesday evening at the Union banquet at the University Club at which His Excellency, the Most Rev James E Kearney, was the guest speaker

Approximately two hundred were present at the banquet, including sodalists from Newark, Auburn, Corning Webster, Elmira, Cold Water and Brighton.

Music Day Program

Folk Song "All the Birds Are Here Again" was well handled

Rev. Albert Simonetti presented the Junior Boys Glee Club which included boys from St Ambrose St Anthonys St Mary's Home and St Stanislaus Father Simonetti showed how these boys with changing voices or voices that have changed may well be used in choral work The group carried out well the points made by the leader as they sang "The Keeper" an English Folk Tune "A Viking Song" by Geoffrey O'Hara and "A Lesson in Philosophy" by Stuart Van Norman Mr John Bogaski was the accompanist

The sixth grade of St John's School gave a demonstration in Chant work Under the direction of Sister M Edwina of the Sisters of Mercy this group carried out the Church's plan for teaching her music The general tuning up was followed by the Veni Creator the prayer to the Holy Ghost Mode III was the basis of the lesson and the children learned from sight a hymn in Mode III the Pange Lingua which was their first introduction to it

The final number of the program was choral work done by sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils of St Michael's St Boniface SS. Peter and Paul's and Holy Family School The audience was very appreciative of the one-two-part and three part numbers sung by a large group of children Their first number was M Haller's "Star of the Sea" which was followed by "Air Mail" the work of Michael Foster "Joy of Spring" by A Geibel preceded the final number, "Praise Be to Thee" by Sister M. Rafael B V M. Under the leadership of Rev Benedict Ehmann this group showed excellent training and fine voice quality Mr Philip Kreckel accompanied this group

At the conclusion, Bishop Kearney congratulated those who had planned and directed this Music Day He urged that the fine work in music done up to the present be continued in the schools, so that music is actually a part of the children's every day lives.

13 Laymen Qualify

NEW ORLEANS Thirteen laymen have passed examinations as members of the Catholic Evidence Guild and will be permitted to speak on the subjects in which they have been examined

The examinations were conducted by three boards of priests of three members each.

The "graduates" are not to undertake public work immediately, but are available for bookings The group includes three lawyers and two senior law students of Loyola University of the South Another class of candidates will be examined in June.

Holy Childhood Association
Rev. John S. Randall
DIRECTOR

And what can this load be Catch a hold there and let's have a look Oh now I know. I've seen such a pack like this before It's from St Margaret Mary's, Rochester. I'll bet Right again. Now for a closer look just to see what's actually included.

We have just ransomed a pagan baby named Mary We are ahead of the boys right now We hve started on our next baby The boys named their baby Peter because of the first Pope "

Jane Bopp, Secretary.
Fifth Grade

We are fast approaching our goal and we hope to reach the ten babies Enclosed you will find our Seventh and Eighth ransoms Both are to be Negro babies The boys have decided on the name Mary Carroll and the girls selected Mary Bernadetta "

Donald Becker, Secretary.
Sixth Grade

Hold on there, now! Don't rush off so fast, because the Second Grade of St Margaret Mary's not to be outdone by the older children have picked the name of our late Holy Father, Achille Ratti for their Negro baby

Au Revoir!

That about winds up the story for this week and a big one you'll agree except to say that Holy Childhood dues were received from the following Holy Ghost, Coldwater, $5.00 Third grade North St. Andrew's, Rochester, $3 10

Important

Check the last issue of the Holy Childhood Annals Important news We'll comment on it next week

If you are going to honor the Queen of May with a gift, absolutely the most pleasing to her would be a mission baby Only a few days remain. We'll be looking for your ransom this week

Discussion Clubs End 30-Week Radio Series

DETROIT - Discussion study clubs of the Archdiocese of Detroit have just completed a series of 20 radio programs over WJBK. The programs were conducted in the manner of round-table discussions. Approximately 100 discussion club members participated. Sixteen of the programs were occupied with the explanation of the Holy Mass, the Archdiocesan study club topic for the current year Other programs dealt with social questions and other matters of interest.

SS. Peter-Paul's Parish
PASTOR MARKS FEAST DAY

Rev. Robert Fox, assistant at SS. Peter and Paul's Church, attended the annual May Day celebration at St Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, last Sunday, May 21

Following the crowning of the May Queen, who was chosen from among the Sodalists, the new members were received into the Sodality of Mary

High Mass was sung at SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Wednesday, May 23, by the pupils of the school, in connection with the Music Demonstration Program being sponsored by the Catholic Education Office.

Several of the students also participated in the Music Day which was held at Immaculate Conception School on Edinburgh Street.

SS. Peter and Paul's Church had as its guest speaker last Sunday Father Kramer, who is particularly interested in the propagation of the faith among the Negroes.

Father Kramer, an alumnus of the North American College at Rome, has been collecting funds for this Negro work throughout the various states in the country.

Rev. J. Emil Gefell, Pastor of SS. Peter and Paul's Church, celebrated his feast day Monday, May 22.

To fittingly commemorate this event, there was a special Mass said Friday morning, May 26, at 9 o'clock.

The school children assisted at this Mass with a special group singing the responses.

Sacred Heart Parish
130 ATTEND SCOUT BANQUET

More than one hundred thirty Mothers and Daughters attended the Girl Scout Banquet Monday evening, May 22, at Sacred Heart Hall.

The three troops which participated in this affair were: The Brownie troop, under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Boylan and Miss Claire Shaughnessy, the Intermediate troop, with Mrs. M. Ryan, Miss Ruth McGregor, and Miss Helen Remzi at its head, and the Mariner troop, directed by Miss Grace Duffy

Mrs. Mary Bailey was in charge of the program She introduced Miss Ruth Maxwell of the Girl Scout Executive Office, who gave an illustrated lecture on the Girl Scout Camp at Beechwood.

Miss Maxwell also presented the Mariner troop with the American flag donated by the Doud Post of the American Legion

Rt Rev. George V. Burns, Rev. John O'Brien and Rev. Earl Ritz, were also present at the dinner.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Weldgen of 12 Seneca Park Circle, and John Driscoll, 170 Goodwill Street, was solemnized Tuesday, May 23 at 9 o'clock at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, pastor of Sacred Heart, performed the wedding ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Miss Evelyn Weldgen was maid of honor, for her sister, and Patrick C. Reagan was best man for Mr Driscoll

The School Music Day Mass was celebrated at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral Wednesday, May 24, at 10 o'clock.

Holy Family Parish
FIRST COMMUNION CLASS

By Gerald Lenhard

On Sunday May 28, the boys and girls of the second grade will receive their first Holy Communion at the 8 00 o'clock Mass. The Communicants will be accompanied in their procession to the Church by the Knights of St. John and the Ladies' Auxiliary Drill Team under the leadership of Captain John Braun

The Holy Name Society will hold its Annual Parish Picnic this year on Sunday, June 11, at South Park, on Picnic Grounds No. 2, Simon Viza, Chairman of the Sports Committee, will present a new and varied sports program. The feature of the day will be a ball game between members of the Holy Name Society and the Tekakwitha Club.

The Tekakwitha Club was very fortunate to have as the speaker at its Supper Meeting last week, Dr John Norris of the Kodak Medical Staff. Dr Norris' talk proved to be very interesting and educational to the members of the Club

Through the auspices of the Community Chest, sound pictures on health preceded Dr Norris' talk.

The Picnic Committee, under the chairmanship of Sonny Young, is making plans for a Club picnic to be held Sunday, May 28, at Russer's Cottage at Conesus Lake.

The Summer Pinochle Club, consisting of sixteen members of the parish, meets every Monday night in the school hall. Five games are played each week for a period of twenty weeks. Suitable prizes await the winners at the close of the contest. As this issue goes to the press, Bernard Dailey leads with a percentage of .800. George Stahl and George Klueber follow him closely with a percentage of .700.

Urge Strong Neutrality Laws

Alexandria, La.—The Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters of America in their joint state conventions adopted a resolution urging the President and Congress to pass the "most stringent legislation to the effect that the United States remain out of any foreign war."
