BAZAAR PREPARATIONS

Bazaar preparations are rapidly nearing completion, as the time draws nigh for the affair. Only two weeks remain for all the work that must precede any successful Bazaar. There will be a meeting of all workers in the Church Hall Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. July 28-29 are the dates set for the 1939 Bazaar, and parishioners are showing an active interest in making it register as a social and financial success.

Novena devotions on Thursdays continue as usual during the summer. The shortness of the service appeals even during hot weather: one-half hour of prayer and meditation with the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus is within the power of every devout Christian. The afternoon service starts at 3:30 and the evening service at 8:00 o'clock. Prayers to the Little Flower and to Our Lady of Perpetual Help form part of the service, and all the congregation join in the public recitation of the prayers.

Sunday devotion is incumbent on Catholics as a matter of Divine Law. The good Catholic starts for church prepared with prayerbook and rosary to be devout during Mass. The Bulletin contains each Sunday the Proper of the Mass, enabling the reader to go over the special prayers and readings from the Scriptures that make up the Proper, and to enter into the spirit of the Church Liturgy for that Sunday. The prayerbook will have the Ordinary of the Mass. Catholics will profit by hearing Mass with these helps.

School collection for July will be received at the Masses Sunday July 16. School offerings come from all who believe in Catholic education, from all who appreciate the fine work of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Presentation of a Parish Testimonial Purse was made to Father Keleher last Monday by the people of the parish through a Committee that met at the rectory as their representatives. His many friends at Corpus Christi wished this to be a token of the goodwill and esteem they have for him, and of their good wishes as he inaugurates his pastorate at the Church of St. Charles Borromeo.

The August pew rent quarter is near at hand, and pewholders are making payment of outstanding amounts on their pew rent account. A campaign to secure more pewholders is on during 1939, with the goal expressed by the slogan "Every Parishioner a Pewholder."

The memorial baptistry will soon be complete and will be solemnly dedicated in a short time. The baptistry is in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Naughton and is the gift of their children. It is located in the front vestibule of the church, and is the work of Mr. Herman Butler.

MEN'S PICNIC SUNDAY

By MARGARET MILES

The St. Boniface Men's Club will hold its annual picnic Sunday, July 16, at Buckholtz Glen. A steak and chicken dinner will be served at 12:30. Arrangements for the meal are being made by Mr. Golbach.

The following members are serving on the committee: Harry Utter, Frank Vogel, Andy Ehmann, Don Drees and Red Moran.

Vacations are the highlights of interest these days. Guests at Conesus Lake for a week are Mary Claire Haering and Geraldine Hayes.

Jack Miles spent last week on a camping trip at Lake Placid.

Billy Clare and Thom White will leave next week for a two-weeks' stay at Camp Stella Maris.

The Knights of St. John journeyed to Buffalo Sunday to be entertained by the Knights of that city.

Rev. John S. Randall
DIRECTOR

We're back with you for just a moment today. There are a few loose ends that must be caught up before the final curtain is rung down on our mission performance for the year. Permit me to say that a great job was done. Our report, covering our activities from January 1st, 1939 to the close of school in June, is most encouraging. Yes, in fact it is as good, if not better than last year. And that, just by the way is saying a lot. For a time it was feared that we wouldn't be able to keep up the hot pace which we had set for ourselves. But now that the smoke of the battle has been lifted even our most skeptical can rest peaceably. You came through with flying colors and you have kept the schools of our diocese way out in front.

I had considered printing this report here in the column next week. However I've decided to hold it back until school reopens in September. More of you will see it then and encourage your efforts for another year.

I feel that it is almost unnecessary for me to continually repeat my thanks to you all. You realize certainly how very, very much I appreciate all your good work. And once again to all you boys and girls and to our good Sisters a billion carloads of thanks. You and you alone have done a swell job and finished in a burst of glory. Three cheers for the boys and girls of the Diocese of Rochester; they take a back seat for no one when it comes to mission work.

Newsweek

Now to report the final activities of a couple of schools that just slipped in under the wire this week.

Here's an interesting letter from Blessed Sacrament, Rochester.

"We would like to ransom four Chinese babies coming from the following grades: John Baptist from the Sixth and Seventh Mary Josephine from the Third Fourth and Fifth Thomas Francis from the First and Second and Rita Marie from the Seventh Grade. Also please find enclosed the balance of our dues, $1.17.

Well that's the way to do things boys and girls. More power to you and we'll look to you to accomplish even greater things next year. How about it?

Well now, will you feast your eyes on this? It comes from our good friends at Holy Rosary, Rochester. First of all they are reporting two adoptions one from the Second Grade a Chinese girl named Mary Magdalen and another little Chinese baby from the boys and girls of the Third Grade who have decided to name her Marie.

Yes and that's not all. They forward $100 as the balance of their dues and another $170 which is to be added to our Chapel Fund. That winds up the season from these people and one fine job they've done too, if you ask me.

A Vacation Thought

I quote from a letter received only yesterday. It comes from Sister Mary of the Good Shepherd Orphanage in Shanghai, China. Thinking that you might be interested, I'll give you some of the facts which she recounts.

Sister's convent is located in the French Concession at Shanghai and therefore is supposed to be neutral grounds. Anyone taking refuge there is protected against the fighting force. Nevertheless as Sister Mary reports, you don't miss seeing the damage and destruction that rains out of the sky. She says, for about a week the Concession was entirely surrounded by fires. And the homeless Chinese rushed in to fill every available corner. Not a very pleasant picture, is it?

Then Sister goes on to speak of the children and that's the part of the story in which you are most interested. I give it to you just as Sister has written it. "Many poor children whose father and mother were killed in a bombardment, or have since succumbed, in the camps are seeking admission in the charitable institutions. Our House is terribly overcrowded. Daily we are obliged to refuse a shelter to the Christ-Child in the person of these poor Chinese children because we haven't a place to give them. Truly there is no room in the inn, and how can we refuse Christ's poor. Further in her letter Sister tells of a little girl that they admitted into the orphanage. Three days after a bombardment our doors were opened to a girl of thirteen. A piece of shrapnel left a deep wound in her head. Mud was put in the wound to stop the bleeding. In those three days the poor child hadn't had a thing to eat. After some time she asked to be baptized and now belongs to the One True Fold."

The only comment I care to make at this time is to encourage you boys and girls to pray every day during vacation for the little children like the ones whom Sister has described. They need your prayer. Am I right? Moreover you might stop to think of them while enjoying yourselves during the summer. Maybe you could save a few pennies from little pleasures to take back to school with you in September. What a good beginning that would be!

And now I'll say so long until next September. I'll be remembering my mission workers every day at Mass and counting on a prayer now and then from you for me. Here's hoping that the summer vacation is the best ever.

THE LISTENIN' POST

By AL SISSON

Presenting Three Swing Favorites

For your summer dancing or listening pleasure WHAM is fortunate to be able to present three of the outstanding dance bands in the country. Not only are they termed dance bands but also they give out with a real program of variety entertainment. We list them and a bit of chatter about them.

First let's talk about "SENSATIONS and SWING."

Larry Clinton's Musical Sensations, a lively new 30-minute variety show featuring "The Old Dippy Doodlers" orchestra, vocal soloists, a singing group and a news dramatization, launched a summer season over WHAM Monday evening. It is sponsored by the P. Lorillard Co. in the interest of Sensation Cigarettes and Muriel Cigars.

Larry Clinton, whose own sudden dash out front among the bandleader favorites in the country was a sensation, presents a new find, Mary Dugan, 18-year-old New Jersey girl as a vocalist in addition to Ford Leary. Miss Dugan was professionally unknown until she first sang with the Clinton orchestra at a popular New York night club on May 17 last and scored an immediate hit.

In the brief dramatization of the news sensation of the week a cast of professional radio players are used. Sensations and Swing really are "Sensational" from start to finish. Don't miss it. WHAM every Monday at 7:30. Second on our list is "THE CAMEL CARAVAN."

Benny Goodman's blazing hot swing band opened a new Camel Caravan series over WHAM last Saturday at 10:00 P. M. The program, featuring one of swing music's greatest figures, is sponsored by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. in the interest of Camel cigarettes.

The gay show's NBC debut marked the addition of five new musicians and two new arrangers to the talent roster and the introduction of Bert Parks, 24-year-old announcer, singer and comedian as master of ceremonies. It's a gay time for everyone who set their dials to WHAM every Saturday night at 10:00 o'clock . . . For our third and last presentation its HORACE HEIDT.

Horace Heidt and His Musical Knights, versatile company of thirty entertainers will begin a new series of sponsored programs over WHAM next Monday, July 17 at 9:30 in the evening. The sponsor is the Lewis-Howe Company, makers of Lums.

Soloists and small units are featured throughout the Heidt program. The orchestra now has three girl violinists. The featured members of the organization include the Three Queens and a Jack vocal quartet, Larry Cotton tenor, Henry Russell, baritone with Mystic Music, a little band within the larger band, Lisbeth Hughes contralto and Fred Lowery, blind whistler.

Heidt's orchestra, organized in California several years ago, is well in the forefront of big name American orchestras with individual styles of music. Liberal use of the harp, the amplified steel guitar and chorus brasses are recognized features of the orchestra. For Horace Heidt and his Musical Knights program tune WHAM Mondays at 9:30 P. M.

Cross Country Currents

NEW YORK. KARL SWENSON, NBC's Lorenzo Jones, is one radio actor to whom an invitation for a real home-cooked meal means nothing. He much prefers to eat in restaurants. Says it's because he likes to be able to order just what he wants when and where he wants it. And believe it or not the unpredictable Swenson enjoys going to the dentist; likes the sound of the drill.

Recently one of the radio columnists carried a short item that had the NBC NORSEMEN doing a lot of explaining. It stated that a member of the quartet had become a father of a six pound baby. Friends started calling the boys and they in turn started questioning each other. Finally they got together and issued a blanket denial.

DAVE TELMAN, conductor of NBC's Hobby Lobby, gets hundreds of letters each week from hobbyists all over the country. But Dave says he has no trouble recalling the most startling. It began: Under separate cover I am sending you a bomb. The sender was a collector of weapons of war. The bomb was a dud.

PAUL LAVAL, brilliant new NBC conductor, is the only saxophonist in the world who can boast that he played under Toscanini in the NBC Symphony orchestra. Toscanini drafted the diminutive Laval last year for one performance.

Whenever a baby's voice is heard on some NBC dramatic serial it is pretty sure to be a young woman by the name of MADELINE PIERCE. Miss Pierce specializes in children's roles from a few weeks to ten years old. Says she just seems to have a knack of imitating babies. To give that muffled sound of an infant crying in its crib, Miss Pierce holds a tiny pillow to her face and sobs into it.

SS. Peter and Paul's

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PICNIC

The young people of the parish are planning a picnic on July 23 at Powder Mill Park. All the young people are invited to have a good time at this get-together planned for the Sunday so that it is convenient for all.

Elaborate preparations are underway for the big parish bazaar which will be held on the 27, 28, 29 of July. Books of tickets have been distributed throughout the parish and with this much of a start, results should be gratifying. Anyone who has not received a book of tickets may have one by calling at the rectory.

Every society in the parish is planning to cooperate to the fullest possible extent. This bazaar will have to offset many of the expenses incurred during the year and only with full cooperation will this be achieved.

All kinds of stands are planned which will have all the regular bazaar offerings, plus a variety of refreshment booths which will handle hot dogs, soft drinks, candy, etc.

Fred Miller, the general chairman of the event called a special meeting of all those who will be able to give a little of their time to the bazaar for Friday evening, July 14. All members of the parish are invited.

Auxiliary No. 44, Knights of St. John of SS. Peter and Paul's Church will hold its annual picnic in conjunction with the District Auxiliary on Thursday, July 20, at Ontario Beach Park, Grounds No. 3.

Mrs. Florence Herzog, general chairman, has appointed the following committee to assist her: Mrs. Teresa Ganster, Mrs. Georgina Weissensel, Mrs. Camilla Hatzlauer, Mrs. Ann Lamphier, Mrs. Amelia Hack and Mrs. B. Fila-Harris.

Cards may be played in the afternoon, and the sports program will begin at 4 o'clock. Supper will be served at 6 P. M.

Members and friends of the Auxiliary who plan to attend must make their reservations before Tuesday, July 18, with Mrs. Weissensel.

Social Centers' Activities

Genesee Institute

Furniture, particularly chairs, tables and lamps, is wanted at the Genesee Institute, 10 Dake Street, to furnish the various parlors and rest rooms. Anyone having any used furniture which he would like to donate for this cause, may call Stone 4830. One of the workers at the settlement will be glad to call for it.

Last Monday the Boys' Day Camp of the Genesee went on two special educational trips, and visited the Rochester Telephone Company and the Rochester Gas & Electric Plant.

Sewing and cooking classes play a lead in the settlement's summer classes. Besides the regular Thursday night groups, there is also a sewing group meeting on Wednesday afternoons under the direction of Mrs. Cora Johnson. Cooking class for mothers is held on Wednesday afternoons under Mrs. Leonnen, and the Girls' Supper Clubs meets on Wednesdays from 5 to 8.

The Genesee Institute Senior Softball League Schedule for the coming week:

Falcon Jayvees vs. Vampires at Franklin Field.
Sanders vs. Clairmonts at Coleman Terrace.

Wednesday, July 19—
