FIRST

The making of mortgage loans was one of the first and most important services rendered by this Bank to the people of this community.

Our first mortgage loan was made to Thomas Kemphall of the village of Rochester on March 10, 1812. This was not only our first mortgage loan but it was also the first mortgage recorded by any mutual savings bank in the State of New York.

That was 107 years ago. Since then first mortgage loans obtained through this Bank have helped in the purchase or building of thousands of homes in Rochester and vicinity. First mortgage loans have been and will continue to be one of our main services.

We make the mortgage it remains with us and you deal directly with us until you own your home free and clear. Tell our very mortgage needs with us. There is no obligation. We have helped thousands—we can help you.

NATIONAL NEWS 'SPIRIT OF TRUTH'—WOMAN DEAN APOSTOLIC DELEGATION BUILDING

Pope Is Grateful For U. S. Building

BALTIMORE, (NC) A tender expression of his appreciation of the devotion of the hierarchy clergy and faithful of the United States, evidenced anew in the gift of the new Apostolic Delegation building is contained in a letter from His Holiness Pope Pius XII to the Most Rev. Michael J. Curley, Archbishop of Baltimore and Chairman of a Committee of Bishops selected by the American Hierarchy to provide the new headquarters in Washington, D. C.

"With particular pleasure," the Holy Father wrote, "We have learned of the completion of the new residence of the Apostolic Delegation which the distinguished clergy, religious communities of men and women, and the entire body of the faithful of the United States, stimulated by the generosity and encouragement of their Bishops, have caused to be erected and presented to the Holy See.

World's Vital Issue Said Need Of Order

NEW YORK—Transformation of the modern world will be wrought "only by the spirit of truth," the Rev. Martin J. O'Malley, C. S. C., said Sunday at the first of a series of addresses over the "Catholic Hour."

Saying there are only two philosophies of life, Father O'Malley declared "we must make a clear and resolute choice between the material organization of the world and the Christian ideal of the spiritual order based on spiritual faith and animated by charity which is the spiritual will. For God or against God, this is the alternative that decides the destiny not alone of individuals, but determines the destinies of all mankind in politics, in finance, in morals, in the sciences and in every aspect of our civil and domestic society," he asserted.

Prelate Stresses Rights of Workers

Every effort must therefore be made that fathers of families receive a wage sufficient to meet adequately ordinary domestic needs. If in the present state of society this is not always feasible social justice demands that reforms be introduced without delay which will guarantee every adult workman just such a wage.

To lower or raise wages unduly, with a view to private profit, and with no consideration for the common good is contrary to social justice which demands that by union of effort and good will such a scale of wages be set up if possible as to offer to the greatest number opportunities of employment and of securing with themselves suitable means of livelihood.

Pastor Seeks Parishioners

SUMMITER, N. C. What is perhaps as strange an assignment as ever given to a priest in America has been allotted to the Rev. Clarence McIntyre, O. M. I.

Appointed by the Most Rev. Edmund M. Walsh, Bishop of Charlotte, N. C. to be pastor of a Negro parish here Father McIntyre finds himself the only Catholic in his parish. Over 10,000 Negroes reside here but none is a baptized Catholic. It becomes imperative, therefore, not merely to build a church, rectory and school, but to win the converts necessary to use the parish buildings. Although the work as yet is in a preliminary stage many colored have begun instruction Father McIntyre says, like so many other places in the South Sumter presents an aspect indicative of rapid expansion for the Faith, since the Negroes seem ripe for conversion. Despite his lack of funds and any positive means of obtaining them, Father McIntyre has selected a plot suitable for the new undertaking. A room as funds are available a rectory chapel and hall will be erected. Meanwhile the new pastor resides temporarily at the 100-year-old St. Ann's parish rectory of St. Ann's Church.

Fordham Names Woman As Dean

NEW YORK Miss Anna E. Kung for the past five years Associate Professor of Case Work and Director of Field Work in the Fordham University School of Social Service has been named Dean of the school effective at once according to an announcement by the Rev. Robert J. Gannon, S. J., President of Fordham.

She is the first woman to be appointed Dean of a School at Fordham and the first woman to be named Dean of a school in the world. However, stated Father Gannon, it is extremely logical to do so because of the fact that Fordham has 20,000 female students and women students in its various schools the largest such enrollment of any Catholic University in the country. Feminine students are 60 per cent of the total in the School of Social Service.

Miniature Re-enacts Indian Mission Rite

TUMACACORI, Ariz. In the museum of Tumacacori National Monument there is a realistic illustration of the place occupied in the lives of the Indians of the Southwest by the Spanish missions established there in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

A miniature of Tumacacori Mission depicts the celebration of High Mass under conditions obtaining when the mission was at its zenith. The figures dressed in authentic Indian and Spanish robes kneel on the floor of a pebble-chapel in the altar dimly lighted candles flicker and a recorded Gregorian chant is played automatically, heightening the effect.

Negro Parish Averages 100 Converts a Year

NEW ORLEANS An average of 100 Negro converts are received into the Church each year in Holy Ghost parish, one of the best of the city, said the Rev. Peter O'Connor, C. S. S. P., the parish pastor.

In the past 15 years converts have been held in three classes, which have been held three times a week.

The parish was founded in 1913 for a half hundred Negro Catholics. It began with a little altar and 40 chairs in a three-room church and a school of about 500 pupils taught by six Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament and one lay teacher.

Polish Saint Statue In Salt At Fair

NEW YORK A has relief in a salt of St. Kinga, thirteenth-century Polish princess, blessing salt, is one of the principal exhibits at the Polish Pavilion at the World's Fair.

The crystal salt was mined in the deposits of Wierzecka near Cracow. It is an example of the carvings with which pious miners have been decorating the depths of the mines since they began to be worked about 900 years ago. Hundreds of altar chapels and even a cathedral transept adorn the mine.

Jaroslavski Heads Russia's Plan

The Press particularly the local Press Jaroslavski stated, has been giving too little attention to anti-religious propaganda, the provincial Press should give more space to propagating atheism.

In conclusion Jaroslavski warned against the danger of self-satisfaction with what has been accomplished, saying: "We still have a mass of work to accomplish. We are fighting against one of the forms of reaction, the reactionary clergy, and its influence over the masses of workers."

POOR CLARE NUNS

Cloistered Nuns Victims of War in Holy Land

Almsgiver Testa, the Apostolic Delegate in the Holy Land sent us this letter:

"Near Jerusalem is a convent of the Poor Clares. These women lead the cloistered life and never leave their convent. Their rule as you know is very strict. The life of the Poor Clares is a life of poverty and prayer.

"Their convent has twelve professed Nuns. The house is very old but for generations it has had a reputation for the people of the section. It is situated in a district filled with Mohammedans and Jews.

For the past two years, the Nuns have experienced terrible sufferings. The troubles in the Holy Land between the Mohammedans and the Jews have upset everything. The Nuns always depended on the help they received from the pilgrims in Jerusalem. Now all this is stopped. The Mohammedans and Jews will not help them. The Nuns are in want. They cannot accept any young women who wish to join them, because they would not be able to feed or clothe them.

The building it is in need of repairs. It could be put in condition for One Hundred and Twenty Dollars. The Nuns are often hungry. It costs about Five Dollars a month to support one of them. There are twelve nuns—that means sixty dollars a month! I ask you to come to their aid. Do not let these women of God suffer from lack of food. Here in the Holy Land where greed and cruelty and unbelief are so strong, these holy women are needed."
