100 YEARS HELPING THE POOR REFUGEES FUND - DEATH IN CHINA

Sisters of Poor Mark Centenary

HY M. MASSIANI PARIS (NC) The Little Sisters of the Paor have colubrated the gentanary of the founding of their Congregation by Jeanne Ju-gan, with His Eminence Emmanu-el Cardinal Suhard, Archiestop of Rheims, presiding.

His Eminance Luigi Cardinal Maglione, Cardinal Protector of the Congregations, had planned to attend the effection at the Motherhouse in St. Pern, but duties as Papal Secretary of State-recessitated his Fernalning at the Vallan.

Vatian.

Tills centenery is particularly significant because of the modesty of the origin of the Little Sisters and the remarkable development of the Congregation. The foundress, a poor woman of the servant class, through pity took a poor old blind worsan into her modest bodging and shared with her the fruits of her hard labor.

Today, throughout the world, 5, 450 Little Sisters of the Poor considuct 800 homes into which thay have received 50,000 ald men arid woosen. In the century of its existence the Congregation has reselved into its ranks 12,000 young women wiso have devoted their lives to caring for more than 800.000 old people;

Jeanne Jugan was the daughter of a fisherman. She was still quite young when she learned find her sainly when she learned find her sainly when she learned find her sainly worked in a ship-wrock. Her mother was left with mayen children, Jahnne worked to help support the others. When she was 18, she telused an elfer of marriage because "I believe that Clod has another mission for me, she that is not yet known, net yet founded." Mie was employed at the servant of an aged woman who did in 1806, leaving Jeanne kome turniture and 400 france.

One day Jeanne heard of a blind woman who was destitute. The woman who had sorted for a priest to Dallanter of Picherman who had worked for a priest to little lodging at St. Servan they brought another unrolling and tanker their they brought another worked and cared for which has been received at Paris, their proteges. Two other working birts clined them. The priest who yisted the old-folk-was the first by the Chinese was indirectly recalled in them. After several probability of his violent death. This was the humble beginning of this now famous Congregation. When it received the appreciation of the Holy See in 1856, there were 56 houses and 800 Heligious. Ten years later, the statistics had risen to 107 houses, 1760 Religious and 18,000 of neones.

Mexico Fund To Aid Spain Fugitives

By CHARLES BETICO

MEXICO CITY (N. C.) President Lazaro Cardenas has instructed the Ministry of Haclenda to set aside a sum of $200,000 to assist the Spanish Center in organizing lecture schedules, etc. that will enable writers, professor and artists among the Spanish fugitives here to support them-solves. The lectures are to be given in the halls of the National University

The Ministry of Gobernacion has been informed that 2,0000 Spaniards from French concentration camps, are stipped the Mexique bound for Mexico. On July 7, there arrived 997 mil ttiamen headed by the Socialis leaders on the Catalan Republic the Spanish Republican Left and the Spanish Republican Union. All arrived at the Vera Cruz docks with clenched flats raised in Moscow fashion. Of the 997 immigrants; 271 are labor members of the U an organization similar to the Mexican C. T. M., and both of them corresponding to the Inter-national Syndical Federation. PLAN TO RETURN

Buring the crossing these Span-ish Communists published a mimcographed paper. Compromise de ntention to preserve their national unity until such time as they could return to Spain as combattants. Jose Loreto Aparicio, formerly in charge of negotiations with Republican Spain, has sent a message to the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Affairs thanking Metico for receiving the Spaniards as "political refugees" and assuring the Mexican Government, in the name of the refugees, that they will not meddle directly or indirectly in Mexican political or social affairs

The Ursula Galvan Peasants Lengue fears that the Spaniards will replace Mexican peasants, isborers and employes generally, and hold Vicente Lombardo Toledano reaponsible for the mass im-migration "for the purpose of strengthening the C. T M. In addition to rumors of immi nent changes in the Cardenas Cabinet it is reported that General Federico Montes will resign as Prethe repairiation of Mexicans living in the United States. In a re-
