PEACE WITH SPIRITUAL BASIS

CATHOLICITY IN AUSTRALIA — POLITICS

Pope Lauds Nation's Adherence To Church

By Msgr. Enrico Pucci

VATICAN CITY (NC). — The necessity for a spiritual and moral foundation for peace rather than one of force was emphasized by His Holiness Pope Pius XII this week, when he received the credentials of Casimir Papee, Poland's new Ambassador to the Holy See.

The Ambassador had recalled to the Holy Father Poland's Catholic history and reported with what enthusiasm his country heard the Sovereign Pontiff's appeal by radio for peace based on justice, on honor, and on the liberty of nations.

Pope Pius said that when Poland, looking back over the changing vicissitudes of its history, recalls with gratitude what it owes to the religion of Christ, and the Western civilization that has grown up in its shadow, it expresses gratitude that augurs well for the present and for the future.

Church's Wisdom Indispensable

For His Holiness continued, the more the spirit of materialism gains ground, and the more the hard struggle for existence and for the attainment of one's own aspirations leads individuals and groups to give factors of physical strength an unmerited and, in the last analysis, a destructive priority over sacred ideals of rights, so much more does the educative wisdom and the maternal love of the Church become necessary to the present generation. The Sovereign Pontiff pointed out that the Church, amid the contrast and tension which are inevitable on earth, never tires of announcing to all the world, without distinction as to nation or language, the Gospel and spirit of Christ, in Whose doctrine and in Whose life the ethical foundations of everlasting prosperity and of every real peace are forever contained.

Expressing his delight in the homage conveyed by the new Polish Ambassador, Pope Pius said the representative of a nation which throughout the years and in the face of the most varied trials has remained united to the Holy See by so many and such fine ties could be sure of receiving in the house of the Common Father of Christianity a joyful welcome corresponding to these traditional relations.

Pope Pius XII also told the Polish Ambassador that the homage he rendered to Pope Pius XI of immortal memory, whose venerated figure will always remain engraven in history, and who through tempestuous days was the faithful friend of "Poland restored," found a grateful, and profound echo in his own heart.

Exiled Reds Are New Menace in Mexico

MEXICO CITY.—Fear of a new Leftist danger to Mexico with the presence in this country of prominent refugee Leftist leaders from Spain is voiced in an editorial appearing in Carta Semenal, official organ of the Confederation of National Chambers of Commerce and Industry.

The editorial, entitled "Mexico Trembles as She Faces Communism," declares these refugee leaders are connected in the mind of most Mexicans "with the mobs and barricades, with anarchy and chaos," "In the mind of a majority of our people," the editorial adds, "Communism is the name applied to all those groups of extreme Leftist tendencies and for us Communism is a most terrifying ghost that has arisen on the business horizon in Mexico.

Martyrs' Shrine Anniversary Set

TORONTO. — Pages of history all but forgotten will be re-opened the week-end of August 6 when distinguished Canadians from all walks of life will attend the special inaugural ceremonies at the Martyrs' Shrine, near Midland. Occasion will commemorate the 300th anniversary of the founding of Fort St. Marie.

This one-time outpost of New France, in the Indian empire of the Hurons, held for a decade the destiny of the North American Continent within its walls.

Ceremonies which will continue through the months of August and September will be opened by Hon. Albert Matthews, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. He will unveil a cairn and tablet to the memory of the courageous, black-robed missionaries who built Fort St. Marie and who worked and suffered martyrdom in Huronia.

It was here that the courageous Jesuit priests, Jean de Brebeuf, Gabriel Lalemant, Anthony Daniel, Charles Garnier and Noel Chabanel went forth to meet death at the torture stake and the hatchets of the Iroquois invaders of Huronia. Eventually was won for these hero priests, canonization from Holy Mother the Church which they served so faithfully and well.

Catholics Open 1st Church In Australia's Capital

MELBOURNE—(N. C.)—Termed by His Excellency the Most Rev. Giovanni Panico, Apostolic Delegate to Australia, the "bulwark of spiritual welfare and temporary safety for the individual and the nation," St. Christopher's Church, first Catholic church in Canberra, the National Capital, has been solemnly opened.

Establishment of Canberra as the Nation's Capital was begun only 15 years ago and up to the present Mass had been celebrated in a tent, a public hall and in a convent school building.

A site near Parliament House has been reserved for the erection of a building of Cathedral proportions but construction has been deferred.

Australia's Prime Minister, Robert Menzies, a non-Catholic, attended the opening of St. Christopher's Church and gave a donation to the funds. Former Prime Minister James Scullin, a Catholic, also attended.

Delivering the principal oration Archbishop Panico said:

"It is a great joy to me today to have performed the ceremony of the blessing of the first Catholic church in the Federal Capital of Australia. The event is a historical one, for St. Christopher's is destined to be in future years the mother of many Catholic churches in this the first city of the Commonwealth. But the ceremony is historical for another reason. This church has been blessed in a period in which the world is facing the future with feelings of the deepest apprehension. At the moment much is being said and written about war and peace. In the Church man learns the Gospel teachings which give troubled humanity the only solution for all the difficult problems which afflict the world. Enshrined in those inspired teachings are the doctrines which individuals and nations must know and firmly hold in order to practice Justice and Charity, which are the fundamental principles of true peace and happiness."

40 SWISS MONKS DRIVEN OUT FROM ITALIAN TYROL

GENEVA.—Forty Swiss Benedictine Fathers, all members of the community of the monastery of Murri Gries near Bozen are among the foreigners recently evicted by the Italian authorities from the Italian Tyrol.

No reason for the eviction was ever given, but it is known that the measure is based on a request made by Premier Mussolini personally to Hitler in order to remove all vestiges of German or other foreign influence from the territory assigned to Italy under the Versailles Treaty.

Fifty years of explaining and expounding Catholic doctrine the CATHOLIC COURIER.

Vatican Emphasizes Duties As Citizen

PARIS.—Instructions admonishing the clergy not to neglect civic duties but to refrain from activity in any particular political party, and to impress upon Catholics that the Church must be kept outside of politics, were contained in the degree of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office as it lifted the ban against the journal L'Action Francaise.

Specifically ordered were that directors of Catholic Action must not be directors or propagandists of a political party; that Catholics must fulfill their obligations as citizens, especially in regard to respect for constituted authority.

In their last letter of submission, Leon Daudet, Charles Maurras and other directors of L'Action Francaise express feelings of profound veneration for His Holiness Pope Pius XII "whose Pontificate already is marked by universally recognized signs of justice and peace."

They declare their "most sincere regret" for whatever has been disrespectful, injurious or unjust with respect to the Sovereign Pontiff personally, the Holy See, or the ecclesiastical Hierarchy.

They reject every principle or theory contrary to the teaching of the Catholic Church and promise to edit their journal in such a manner that its readers will find nothing therein to disturb their consciences.

In announcing its return to grace, L'Action Francaise said: "It is with joy that we place at the feet of His Holiness Pope Pius XII the testimony of our most respectful gratitude. This gratitude is addressed also to the holy memory of the Sovereign Pontiff Pius XI who, more than two years before his death, at the time when he made an appeal to all men of goodwill for the defense of peace and Christian civilization, deigned to show us even then signal marks of his paternal bounty."

FIRST WOMAN LORD MAYOR ELECTED IN DUBLIN

DUBLIN For the first time a woman has been elected Lord Mayor of Dublin.

She is Mrs. Tom Clarke widow of Tom Clarke and sister of Eamonn Daly of Limerick, both of whom were executed for their part in the Rising of 1916.

Mrs. Clarke was elected by the casting vote of Alderman A. Byrne, outgoing Lord Mayor who filled that position for nine years.

For many years an active member of Dublin Municipal Council, Mrs. Clarke has proved her great abilities in administrative affairs. She has been keenly interested in the furtherance of welfare movements, particularly in relation to women. It is believed her election will encourage women to take a more active part in public affairs in Ireland.

KIN OF ROBERT BRUCE

LONDON.—A new Canon of Edinburgh Cathedral, the Rev. Michael Bruce, is a direct descendant of Robert Clackmannan, cousin of King Robert Bruce, who learned a lesson from a spider. Through his mother he is descended from St. David I, King of Scotland.
