

Catholic Courier 1939

With the Approval of the Most Reverend James Edward Kearney, D. D., Bishop of Rochester...

Just How It Happens

By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J.

'ALONG THE WAY' I was sitting comfortably typing next to the window in a streamliner...

Convert's Comment

A book or article that criticizes have labeled "clever," "revealing," "risque," or of a number of epithets...

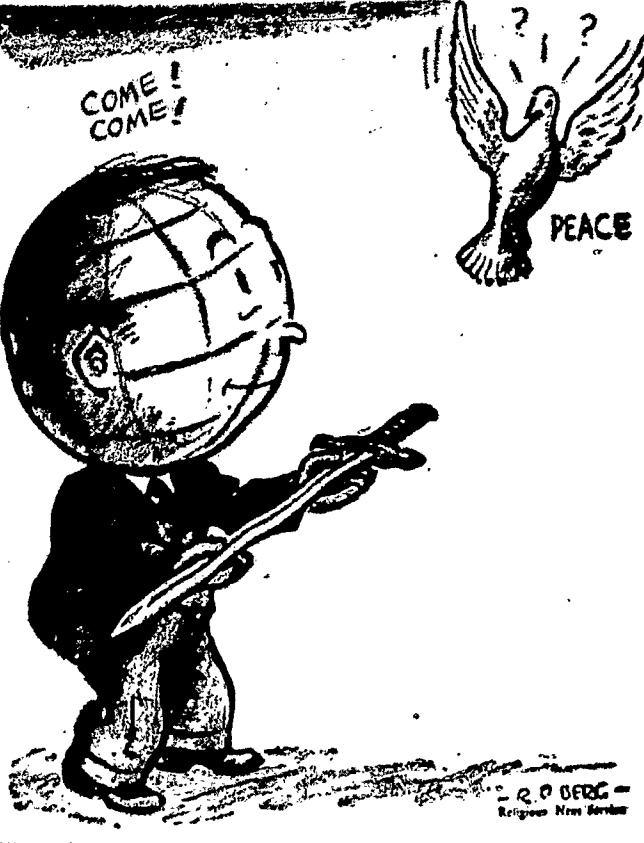

There is a Catholic institution which, though most generally misunderstood, has become of interest to the writer...

A World Republic

Although the fact is not generally realized, the Grand Orient of France has long cherished the idea of a world republic...

A book on the subject, written by Clarence Streit and published under the title "Union Now," even suggests the possibility of the United States of America and the Western European democracies forming a political unit...

NOT TO SUCH A PERCH

Happen Here

As a news photograph showing United States soldiers in other than clerical garb and wearing the national colors may bring a slight smile...

The Little Liberties

By REV. JAMES M. O'LEIN, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

Some of our fellow citizens wax sarcastic, or even go so far as to emit a few sneers when they hear that old phrase from the National Anthem...

Diocesan Recordings

The old-fashioned woodshed was a greater desideratum than any of the new-fangled machine guns and scientific apparatus shown to the state police chiefs last week...

Why Do Catholics Persevere in the Lord's Supper So Often? Catholics commonly speak of the Holy Eucharist as the Blessed Sacrament...

Why?

Why Do Catholics Persevere in the Lord's Supper So Often?

Why Do Catholics Persevere in the Lord's Supper So Often? Catholics commonly speak of the Holy Eucharist as the Blessed Sacrament...

As They Do in Glasgow

Most of us may have been getting fed-up on Scotch Glasgow but the one brought by Patrick Joseph Dolan of Glasgow has a timeliness, freshness and depth that is stimulating...

Most of us may have been getting fed-up on Scotch Glasgow but the one brought by Patrick Joseph Dolan of Glasgow has a timeliness, freshness and depth that is stimulating...

Feast Days

Sunday, Aug. 6.—THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD.

Sunday, Aug. 6.—THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD. Monday, Aug. 7.—ST. CLARE. Tuesday, Aug. 8.—ST. CYPRIANUS AND HIS COMPANIONS. MARYEM.

Talking Over Their Views

A GOOD EDITOR

A good editor is one who has never made a mistake, who never has offended anyone, who is always right; who can ride two horses at the same time...

Five Years Ago

From Aug. 3, 1934, Edition

"In an age when, as never before, men's minds are moulded by the printed word, a 'strong Catholic Press' is needed to make men and to keep us Catholic-minded."

Snickers

"What are you doing, Mildred?" asked a fond mother.

"I'm knitting, mother," replied the sweet young thing. "I heard Jack say the other day he was afraid he'd have to buy a new muffler for his car and I thought I'd surprise him."

Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women at Holy Family Auditorium

Principal speaker at session was the Rev. William J. Cannon, C.S.P., pastor.

Memorial Mass for repose of the soul of the late Rev. John F. Neillan was celebrated at Holy Apostle Church by the Rev. Philip Golding on the 50th anniversary of Father Neillan's ordination.