CLEVELAND ECHOES

At the recent National Catholic Action Congress held in Cleveland, Catholic women were urged to participate in the apostolate of the laity by an intelligent understanding...

Catholics have the unavoidable duty to permeate and Christianize and bring under the sway of Christ the human beings among whom we live.

We quote the Rev. George Vogt, Supervisor of Religious Public School Education: "The women of your organization have done a fine piece of work for the religious vacation schools, especially in the transportation."

Our Nineteenth National Convention to be held in San Francisco September 3 to 14 will also be an occasion for taking a delightful vacation trip.
