Spain Reports Now Confirmed

The Catholic Press accounts of the war in Spain were authentic. This is proved in current stories of a noted secular correspondent. See Page 2.

K. of C. Raps 'Time' Slurs

Plans To Register National Protest

SEATTLE—(NC) Time, national news magazine, drew a sharp rebuke from the international convention of the Knights of Columbus, which has just closed here for alleged repeated slurs upon the Catholic Church and members of the hierarchy and clergy.

Foster Supernatural Study, Knights Told

SEATTLE To lend our aid in bringing the world back to a better understanding and appreciation of the supernatural order in the duties of the hour, said the Most Rev. Edward D. Howard Archbishop of Portland in Oregon, in addressing the fifty-seventh international convention of the Knights of Columbus here.

Archbishop Howard preached the sermon at the pontifical Mass in St. James Cathedral, sounding the spiritual keynote for the convention. The Most Rev. Bishop of Spokane, pontificated and the Rev. Leo M. Finn, Chaplain of the K. of C., was assistant priest.

Declaring there can be no lasting peace, prosperity or happiness in the natural order if the supernatural order be neglected, the bishop said: "And in this society, divided as God is continual flux or God is a mental complex, or God is the harmony of events."

Seattle Civic Heads Pay Tribute To Order

SEATTLE (NC) What the world needs to bring back sanity are the things the Knights of Columbus stand for: tolerance and reason instead of emotion and hate; fair dealing and love of country; and the moral principle of the K. of C. international convention.

Knights Aid Strike Truce

SEATTLE The great good will that overflows Seattle for the fifty-seventh international convention of the Knights of Columbus operated to bring a brief truce in the Puget Sound boatmen's strike which has tied up Sound steamers since August 1.

Works For Peace Without Any Let-up Says Holy Father

By MSGR. ENRICO PUCCI

VATICAN CITY—(N. C.)—Appealing again for a settlement of international difficulties without recourse to force, His Holiness Pope Pius XII revealed in an impressive fashion on Saturday, his great preoccupation with the cause of peace.

"We, ourselves, since the first day of Our Pontificate have attempted and do everything in our power to remove the danger of war and to cooperate in the attainment of a firm peace founded on justice, which would safeguard the liberty and honor of peoples," said the Holy Father.
