

INTERNATIONAL PRIESTS' CRUEL MURDER-REGOUNTED MEXICANS AROUSED - SPAIN REPORT

Mexicans Incensed At 'Loyalist' Exiles

MEXICO CITY, (AP) — Although the exact number of Spanish 'Loyalist' exiles who have emigrated to Mexico is not known, it is estimated that at least 5,000 have been authorized by Minister Basco to reside in this country.

Simms' Stories Strikingly Confirm U.S. Catholic Press Reports on Spain

Dispatches which the Catholic newspapers of the United States carried on the recent civil war in Spain have been strikingly confirmed by the stories of the American press commentators on European affairs.

It is suggested that there are atrocities in all wars. Thus the Spaniards readily admitted, but they asked, what about the burning and pillaging of thousands of churches, convents and homes, the killing of hundreds of thousands of priests, nuns and others all over Spain merely because of their political opinions?

They didn't have to take Nationalist Spain's word for it. They had the word of the sincere Spanish liberals like Unamuno and Madariaga and many others like Mendez Pidal. Spain's greatest historian, Perez de Ayala, its most noted ambassador, ambassador Falia, the musician, Zuloaga, the painter, Pio Baroja, left-wing writer and a vast majority of the university professors who happened to be neither Fascist nor Marxist.

Describes Priest's Murder in Germany

AMSTERDAM.—A gruesome report of the torture and murder of a distinguished priest has been received by Der Arbeiter in Polen, published in Katowice, Poland. German-language Catholic weekly Canon Steinwender, a priest well known for his meritorious work on behalf of Catholic Germans residing abroad, has been brutally shot at the Nazi concentration camp of Buchenwald, near Weimar, the paper says.

REPORT 'OSSERVATORE' SEIZED IS PURE FICTION

VATICAN CITY.—Some foreign papers published reports that the Osservatore Romano had printed news of an act of high treason, supposed to have occurred at Quindia, center of Italian aviation, and that consequently Osservatore was seized and its reporter, called Giovanni Colonna, was arrested. All this is completely false and invented.

The attitude of the Mexican people toward these Spanish 'Loyalist' exiles may be ascertained by the protest of important groups, such as the Anti-Communist League, National Action, the Student Democratic Front.

Writing from Madrid that what surprised me in that both North and South Americans here are almost unanimously agreed that a Franco defeat would have meant the victory of the Spanish Republic.
