Adoration Society To Mark 10th Year

Beating peace and the return of the world to Christian peace, the members of the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society will mark the observance of the 10th Anniversary of its founding Sunday evening, September 10, at 7:45 o'clock, at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

In 1928 William Wynn received the inspiration to establish a Nocturnal Adoration Society in Rochester. While attending the Laymen's Retreat in June of that year he explained his desire to the other laymen. No more fertile soil could have been selected.

The first vigil was held September 28, 1928, at St. Patrick's Cathedral. It has met at St. Patrick's every month for ten years. From a membership of 150, the organization has increased to 400 men, and an aggregate of 53,000 hours of adoration has been offered in those ten years.

Old St. Mary's To Hold Novena The Rev. John H. Healy, O.P. of New York, famed throughout the state and particularly in this diocese for his preaching, will conduct a Retreat in honor of Our Mother of Sorrows at Old St. Mary's Church Washington Park beginning Friday evening, September 8.
