PARISH NEWS

THE LISTENIN' POST

By AL SISSON

"Vacations Are Over" . . .

Vacations may come and vacations DO go, but work goes on forever, we hope. This week marks the end of the recess period for the staff of WHAM. Everybody is back and ready for more work. That is everybody but one or two that decided that the good old summer time is the time to work and that vacations should be taken when the weather is cool. With a thought that seemed a whiff at the time, your writer went the rounds and quizzed the different members on their annual jaunt to the land of leisure. The results are herewith set down for your reading pleasure and perhaps you can get some ideas what NOT to do with your vacation next year . . .

WILLIAM FAY, General Manager—"I took Bill Jr. for a trip to the World's Fair and then to Canada for a bit of fishing. We caught the big one. Here's the proof." (Picture was forthcoming.)

JACK LEE, Studio Manager—Mrs. Lee and I took our annual trek to Florida and basked on the beach at Miami to watch the blue, blue ocean of which there is none bluer."

CHARLES SIVERSON, Program Director—"New car Buffalo . . . Cleveland . . . Canada . . . points west . . . that's enough."

JACK KENNEDY, Commercial Manager—"Ninety-nine per cent loafing. Did a bit of sailing and swimming. Where? At my camp on Lake Ontario."

ART KELLY, Promotion Chief—"Stayed home and took care of the baby. Gee, she's cute. Got curly hair. Al, you should see her. She's a beauty. We left here with Art still raving."

FRANK SEIBOLD, Librarian—"Took the new boat out for a try. Sailed all over Lake Ontario. Didn't even get my feet wet."

BETTY BOCKLAGE, Traffic Dept.—"I took two trips to the World's Fair. Couldn't make it in one jaunt. The dogs gave out. Had to come home and get new shoes. Gee, it's swell the fair and my feet."

INEZ QUINN, Secretary to Mr. Fay—"Went fishing for a week. (No Canada.) I hope! Then a week in New York."

LOUIS BOYLE, Secretary to Mr. Kennedy—"Back to Madison Wisconsin my old home town. It sure is a grand city."

RUTH BENEDICT, Bookkeeper—"Took two weeks and went to the mountains. Sure had a fine trip. My husband went with me. (How nice)"

DOBOETHY RYAN, Switchboard Operator—"Change of name to Strauss. That ought to be enough for this year."

MARY FREEMAN, Night Hostess—"Spent one week in Pennsylvania with my two sons swimming and hiking. Last week went to the Adirondacks. More swimming and hiking. Lost weight."

BERNICE SNYDER, Secretary to Mr. Siverston—"I had a lot of fun." (Why so brief, Bernice?)

HOWER BLISS, Announcer—"Lots of swimming and tennis. Needed the fresh air."

TOM MURRAY, News Announcer—"Drove, drove and drove some more. Indiana and back in one week and then up to the mountains for a rest. Still looking for the rest. Had fun, tho'."

BILL ROGERS, Sports Announcer—"Hectic—World's Fair—feet sore."

DICK BROWN, Announcer—"Took my annual trek to Auburn, N. Y. No, I'm not on parole. '23 my home town."
