Rochester Council Honors 31 Pioneer Knights

"Forces of greedy, materialistic atheism against the inalienable rights of humankind, based on the justice and love of the Christian religion," is the line-up in the world today following the "bloody aftermath" in Poland and on the western front, of the unholy Union of Berlin and Moscow.

This was declared the character of the clash facing civilization today in the address of the Rochester Knights of Columbus at a Columbus Day celebration in Hotel Sagamore.

The speaker, Elmiria newspaperman, K. C. leader, likewise commended the Rochester Council for selecting Columbus Day to pay public recognition and tribute to pioneer members.
