In the afternoon the Bishop will participate in the exemplification of the Fourth Degree at 3 P. M. and attend the Fourth Degree dinner at 8 P. M. both these events at Hotel Sagamore, Tonawanda.

Immediately following the Mass in the morning the knights will go to Hotel Sagamore for a Communion breakfast.

Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn has appointed Eugene F. Sapp, chairman of the Communion event.

This affair is sponsored by the Catholic Activities Committee of the Council as a program recommended by the Supreme Council.

This will be the first time the knights will participate in a Communion in Columbus Civic Center.

The request that it be held was made by the knights who have an active and interested member of the Catholic lay-press.

The Council will initiate a class in the next degree in the order of the regular council meeting, Chancellor George L. McKay will be in charge of the degree work.

A large attendance at the formal class to be held Saturday evening, Nov. 11, at the Rochester Club is assured, Chairman William J. Miller reports today.

Members of the Rochester Knights of Columbus Chapter No. 1247 will sing at a solemn High Mass, Saturday morning, Nov. 11, at St. Mary's Church. The Mass is sponsored by the Monroe County American Legion, Dr. Joseph F. Browne is the legion chairman.

Sacred Heart Parish OLD-FASHIONED DANCE

The Legion of Mary at Sacred Heart Church will sponsor an old-fashioned dance in the Church Hall on Tuesday, November 21, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Kathryn Reynolds is chairman of arrangements and Mrs. Luanna Manning and Mrs. Josephine LaForte are in charge of the tickets.

There will be music, prizes and refreshments. The parish is invited to attend, and tickets are 25 cents.

The second in a series of afternoon card parties sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association of Sacred Heart School will be held on Tuesday afternoon, November 14, in the school hall. This will be a dessert luncheon followed by cards and will begin at 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Clarence M. Burgess has appointed Mrs. George O'Brien chairman and Mrs. Clarence Page co-chairman of the party. They will be assisted by Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, Mrs. Raymond Malot, Mrs. Herbert Mair, Mrs. Harry J. Murray, Mrs. Charles M. Wm. MacAvoy, Mrs. R. J. McDonald, Mrs. Jennie McDonald, Mrs. James McGrath, Mrs. James Northcutt, Mrs. James Nixson, Mrs. Clarence O'Brien, Mrs. Frank O'Brien, Mrs. Michael O'Brien, Mrs. J. P. O'Connell, Mrs. N. An Armistice Day Program will be held Friday morning in the school hall. The program will be as follows:

I. Seventh grade—boys as soldiers will appear in short skirt. II. Taps and Drums. III. Prayer for Armistice Day. IV. Tunes of Flag from Betty V. Tyneser of Fifth Grade. V. Miller of Eighth Grade to Virginia Reinhardt of the Seventh Grade.

VI. Prayers to the Flag. VII. Song—"God Bless America."

Festival, Supper At St. Salome's

St. Salome's Bavarean Supper and Harvest Festival will be held in the school hall, Culver Road, Genesee, on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 15 and 16.

The Rev. Edward Schirich, pastor, and the Rev. Peter Janikowski, assistant head of the parish committee, are in charge of the festival.

The program will include games and other attractions will be featured.

Mrs. Raymond Donberger is in charge of the kitchen committee. Tickets will be $2.00. The festival will be held from 7:30 to 11:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday. The Rev. Schirich extends a cordial invitation to all friends and members of the parish. Free parking will be provided for all vehicles.

The Teakwita Club will hold their regular monthly supper meeting next Wednesday evening, November 15, in the school hall beginning at 6:45. As this is the final meeting of the club in the Diamond Jubilee Year of Holy Family, members of the club will be invited to all the members of the parish who have been members since its foundation 75 years ago.

Entertainment under the chairmanship of Charles Kleber will consist of songs that everyone likes to hear sung by an act from the Knights of Columbus Choral Society.

A typical "German" Night will be held in the school hall Tuesday evening, December 5, under the sponsorship of the Teakwita Club. Dinner will be served continuously from 5:30 until 8 P. M.

A well-known German Orchestra will furnish music throughout the evening. Entertainment will consist of a floor show presented at different times throughout the evening. Tickets are now available, and may be obtained from any member of the Teakwita Club.

Final plans for the presentation of the Diamond Jubilee Festival are being completed by the Rev. Father, Anthony Hotal, chairman of the festival, reports that all the committees are confident that this festival will be the biggest success of any previously held. The festival will take place in Holy Family Auditorium on Jay Street on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 18, 20 and 21. Admission free. Everyone welcome.

Corpus Christi Parish RELIGIOUS CLUB MEETS

The High School Religious Club reported an active attendance of 73 boys and girls at the meeting held last Monday. The meetings are held every Monday evening 7:15 under the direction of Fathers O'Brien and McVeigh.

Instructions in Catholic belief and practices are given and there is a social hour following the discussion.

The people of Corpus Christi Church will be called upon for the regular monthly school collection on the third Sunday of the month, November 19. Several hundred children are registered at the school and the people of the parish are responsible for their education.

Preparations have been made for the annual novena in honor of the feast of the Immaculate Conception. A Franciscan father will be in charge of the service which will start on Thursday, November 30. This priest will be at the church on Sunday, November 26, to make announcements relative to the novena.

The devotions in honor of the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus continue to be held on Thursday evenings and evening at 5:30 and 8 o'clock. Prayers for the dead are added to the regular novena devotions.

Sunday devotions are held at 2:30 P. M. and consist of Prayers for the dead, religious talk and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The annual Thanksgiving Festival and Poultry Show will be held on Tuesday, November 21. All parishioners are making preparations to have an active part in this affair.

Mass in Rare Places London, Mass has been offered since the war started in many centers which have not had Mass since the Reformation, owing to the presence of the refugees. In many ways the Church will benefit in out-of-the-way places.

Novena Honoring St. Anthony Set

A new Novena of Tuesdays in honor of St. Anthony, "the wonder worker," will begin Tuesday, November 14 at St. Patrick's Church, Plymouth Avenue North at Brown Street.

Services will be at 12:15 P. M. (noon) for workers and again in the evening at 8 P. M.

Letters of recommendation in favor of the novena are being received, the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, pastor of St. Patrick's said today. Wide interest is manifested in this continuous novena.

Services consist of prayers, instruction, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Veneration of the relic.

High Mass is offered every Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock for the intention of those making the novena. Ample parking facilities are available for those attending the novena services.
