MEXICANS AROUSED OVER SCHOOL LAW PERSECUTION IN POLAND

Proposed Laws Stir Mexicans

Cardenas Flayed In School Issue

BY CHARLES BETICO

MEXICO CITY. — (NC) — The press of the Capital has been officially informed that President Lazaro Cardenas, through the Ministry of Gobernacion, has sent to the Federal Congress a proposed change in the Education Law which is the enabling act of Article 3 of the Constitution.

Public opinion is so aroused over the proposed change that the edition of El Universal containing the text of the message, and an editorial commenting upon it, was exhausted soon after it went on sale.

Article 3, as amended in October, 1934, reads in part: "Education imparted by the State shall be socialist, and, in addition, shall exclude every religious doctrine, shall combat fanaticism and prejudice, and to this end the school will organize its teachings and activities so as to permit the creation in the young of a rational and exact concept of the universe and of social life. Only the State—Federation, States, Municipalities—shall impart primary, secondary or normal education."

There is provision made for private schools if they conform to the socialist curricula of the official schools and meet certain requirements, one of which is that "religious corporations, ministers of any religion, stock companies whose activities are exclusively or chiefly educational, and associations or societies directly or indirectly affiliated with the propagation of any religious creed, shall not in any manner intervene in primary, secondary or normal schools, nor give them economic support."

It is provided also that "the State, at its discretion, can withdraw at any time official recognition of validity granted to studies made in private establishments."

El Universal views one proposal as "a threat against the liberty of education" particularly because it tends to regulate education in the superior brackets as well.

"From the kindergarten through the secondary, normal and polytechnical schools," the editorial states, "education is exclusively under the control of the State which can imprint upon education the modalities of its opinions most conveniently despite the protests of a great popular mass . . . He who investigates, if he thinks, must be convinced or dissuaded; and if he is not free, he neither doubts, investigates, thinks nor concludes. Freedom is the breath of the thinker. And just as it is impossible to fly without air, it is impossible to think except within a sphere of liberty."

Pope Congratulates Hitler On Escape From Explosion

VATICAN CITY. — (NC) — His Holiness Pope Pius XII charged His Excellency the Most Rev. Cesare Orsenigo, Papal Nuncio in Berlin, to convey to the Government of the Reich, in his name, sincere congratulations on Chancellor Adolf Hitler's escape from the explosion in Munich.

German Church Of London To Hear English Sermons

LONDON. — The Rev. Leonard Schnitzler, F. S. M., pastor of London's German church, has ordered all sermons at his church to be preached in English while the war lasts, so as to avoid any offense.

Father Schnitzler was in London during the world war and his church is situated in the heart of London's Jewish colony, Whitechapel.

But his parishioners are mostly old settlers, their everyday language is English, their children born here, themselves naturalised, although it is always in German, says the priest, that they say their prayers and make their confessions.

Perpetual Novenas Arouse Interest of Britons, Irish

LONDON.—The Perpetual Novena idea, imported from the United States, is attracting much attention at the Servite Priory in Fulham-road, here. The novena was planned before the outbreak of war though the first service was not held till after war started.

The Prior tells me that he has had inquiries from towns in 16 counties in England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and that petitions are arriving steadily.

Priest Ordained Near Maginot Battle Line

PARIS. — In an abandoned village in advance of the Maginot Line, the Most Rev. Joseph Heintz, Bishop of Metz, conducted a ceremony in which a young French soldier was ordained to the priesthood, this week.

The rumble of the organ was accompanied by the deeper rumble of guns active on the Western Front. The only persons present in the church to form a congregation were officers and men of the young priest-soldier's regiment, upon whom he bestowed his first blessing.

After luncheon at a neighboring abbey, the young priest went back to war with his regiment.

Fr. M. J. Maher Dies

Los Angeles.—Funeral services for the Rev. Martin J. Maher, S.J., a native Californian and brother of the Rev. Eacheus J. Maher, S.J., Assistant to the Father General of the Society of Jesus, were held here.

Reds Arrest Many Priests In Poland; Some Freed

BREDA, Holland—(N. C.)—From a sure ecclesiastical source, the Permanent International Committee of Catholic Editors has learned that more than 40 Catholic priests in the Protectorate of Bohemia-Moravia were arrested early in September by the Gestapo, but because of the indignation aroused abroad some of the more prominent ones have been released from custody.

At Brno, Monsignor Kratochvil, Episcopal Chancellor, and Monsignor Tenora, as well as some other priests were freed. A few days later, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Johann Martinu, Vicar General of Olmuetz, Canons Frans Jemelka and Frans Svetlik, the Very Rev. Msgr. Frans Cinek, professor at the university, and the Very Rev. Msgr. Johann Lechmann, pastor of an Olmuetz parish, were released from the Stepanov concentration camp.

Monsignor Lochmann, however, was taken from the concentration camp to the military prison at Olmuetz where he was kept 10 days and released under surveillance of the police and on condition that he stay out of Olmuetz.

Other ecclesiastics, including Msgr. Stanislas Zela, were taken from the Stepanov camp to Brno in a car during the night. They were put aboard a special train with destination unknown. It is impossible to state officially or authoritatively where they are at present, but sources worthy of credence are of the opinion that they were taken to the concentration camp at Dachau.

The Rev. Augustin Karl Fandrla, president general of the Orel, Catholic athletic association, and two Dominicans were removed to Germany from Brno after a short stay in the Spielberg prison-fortress.

The German radio announcement that no Catholic priests are in concentration camps in Bohemia-Moravia may be literally true, but apparently is deliberately misleading.

The celebrated orator, Msgr. Theophile Strasek, Canon of Prague-Vyschrad, is still in Pancras Prison at Prague; others have simply been moved to concentration camps in Germany. Furthermore, the German official communique to the effect that only a few Catholic priests were arrested, and only as a simple measure of public security, is equally inaccurate. According to a fairly conservative estimate, at least 70 Czech priests have been arrested since September 9 and comparatively few of them have had any connection whatsoever with political affairs, although they have been active in the fields of education and Catholic Action.

Quite a few of them are actually being held as hostages to assure the "loyal attitude" of the Czechs. Neither Monsignor Zela nor Monsignor Leopold Precan, secretary to the Archbishop of Olmuetz, has ever been connected even remotely with politics.

ANCIENT ORDER HAS FIRST PROFESSION IN IRELAND

DUBLIN.—For the first time in its three and a quarter centuries of life the Order of the Ministers of the Sick (Camillian Fathers) has had a profession in Ireland.

The event took place at the House of St. Camillus, Killucan, Westmeath, when the Rev John Archer, a native of Rush, Dublin County, made his solemn vows.

The Irish house of the Order was established a few years ago at Killucan and hitherto the Irish students on passing through the Juniorate there continued their ecclesiastical courses at the house of studies in Belgium. Owing to the outbreak of war the Irish-professed students will now pursue these studies at Killucan.

New Maryknoll Convent To Be Opened In Manchukuo

MARYKNOLL, N. Y.—Contrary to the opinion prevalent among many Americans that war conditions are curtailing mission activities in the Far East, evidence that the missioners themselves look forward to increased activity is found in such announcements as the opening of a new Maryknoll Convent at T'Ung Hua, Manchukuo.

Here the Sisters will begin a program of home visitation for the purpose of interesting native women and girls in Catholicism, working under the direction of the Rev. Sylvio R. Gilbert, M.M., Maryknoll pastor at Tung Hua.

The Superior of the new mission will be Sister Miriam, a missioner of 16 years' experience.

New Officers Preside At Junior H. N. Meet

GENEVA Members of the Junior Holy Name Society of St. Francis de Sales parish held their first regular semi-monthly meeting since the election of their new staff last month on November 6.

Armand D'Aurelio, the new president, presided. Following the report of the secretary Paul Caralla, a report of the dance committee was given by the chairman, Umbaldo Chima. The Saturday night party to which the Junior Rosarians were invited was highly successful.

Plans were made for a spaghetti supper which will be served on December 6 in the school hall from 6 to 9.30 o'clock. Umbaldo Chima is head of the ticket committee and will present tickets to the members at the next meeting on November 20.
