MISS JOAN KENNEDY BURIED

AUBURN. The funeral of Miss Joan I. Kennedy was held Saturday from her home, 125 South Seward Avenue, and in Holy Family Church. A solemn high mass of requiem was sung by the Rev. Francis Harding. The Very Rev. John A. Conway, pastor, was deacon and Rev. John J. Healy was subdeacon. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Bearers were Matthew Doherty, John Connor, Frank Ryan, Hugh Limner, Francis O'Connor and John F. Connors.

AUBURN. The funeral of George Douvarjo, who died Saturday, was held at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Frederick J. Welch funeral parlors, 14 Tuxill Square, with services at 9 o'clock at Holy Family Church. A requiem Mass was sung by Rev. John J. Healy, assistant pastor, and Rev. Leslie Whalen and Rev. Joseph McNamara of St. Mary's Church were in the sanctuary. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, where services were conducted by Fathers Whalen and McNamara. Bearers were William V. Murray, William Lane, John Welch and George H. Otis.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION

AUBURN. The Forty Hours Devotions in St. Mary's Church were brought to a fitting close at the 8 o'clock high Mass Tuesday morning, Dec. 5, which was marked by procession of the priests, altar boys and school children.

The services morning and evening were conducted by Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen, the pastor, and his assistants. The sermon on Monday evening was given by Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, pastor of Holy Family Church and the sermon Tuesday evening was delivered by Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church.

AUBURN -- The Sodality of St. Mary's Church held its December meeting in St. Mary's Hall at 8:30 Monday evening, Dec. 4. The prefect presided and said the opening prayer. Rev. Leslie Whalen, moderator, spoke briefly.

The chairman of the Eucharistic Committee gave a brief talk about the Sodality's Christmas gift to the Holy Father. Each year the Sodalities in the United States hold a Triduum in honor of the Immaculate Conception. All the Masses, Holy Communions and prayers during this time are offered for the intention of the Holy Father in Rome. On Christmas evening the central office cables the combined spiritual offerings as the American Sodalist's gift to the Pope. This year the girls of St. Mary's are offered the Forty Hours Devotion as their part in the Holy Father's gift.

Father Whalen pointed out that "The Council of Trent teaches since the power of conferring indulgences was granted by Christ to the Church, and she has, even in the most ancient times, used this power delivered unto her by God, the Holy Synod teaches and enjoins that the uses of Indulgence for the Christian people, most salutary and approved by the authority of Sacred Councils, is to be retained in the Church."

"This divine power of the Church may be better understood if we compare it with the State's custom of pardoning the whole or part of the punishment inflicted by the civil law upon the criminal. The President has the right to grant a complete pardon to any criminal within the confines of the United States; the governor to any criminal in his state. The state moreover remits part of a criminal's punishment for good behavior while in prison."

AUBURN. Funeral services for George A. Ibbotson, who died at his home, 16 Florence Street, on Saturday were held Wednesday morning at the home at 10:15 and at St. Mary's Church at 10:45 o'clock. At the church a solemn requiem high Mass was sung by the Rev. Joseph McNamara, assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. E. Cowen as deacon and the Rev. Leslie Whalen as sub deacon. After the Mass the burial services were conducted by Father McNamara. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where final absolution was pronounced by Dr. W. E. Cowen, assisted by Fathers Tobin and Whelan. Bearers were Clarence Walter and Edward Dean, Ray Breheny of Rochester, Paul Murdock, and Edward Dean, Jr.

AUBURN. Miss Mary Moran, a life long resident of Auburn, died at her home, 3½ Church Street.

Surviving Miss Moran are three nieces, Mrs. Frank Muldoon and Mrs. John Powers of Scipio and Miss Inez Shotz of Port Byron, one nephew, Harry Flynn of Genoa, and a brother-in-law, Joseph Flynn of Scipio.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 2 Grant Avenue, with services at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery. Friends were invited to call at 12 Grant Avenue.

Miniature Bethlehem Attracts Crowds

Thousands of persons annually visit the small-scale copy of Bethlehem and other Holy Land shrines which has been worked out at St. Francis' Seraphic Seminary, Mt. St. Francis, West Andover, Mass. One of the attractions of this carefully executed miniature is that real water flows in the River Jordan.

325 Elmira Men Attend First K. of C. Retreat

ELMIRA — Deeply impressive was the participation by approximately 325 laymen of Elmira in the first annual spiritual retreat sponsored by Elmira Knights of Columbus, Sunday, December 10, at Columbus Center.

Assisting at Holy Mass at 8:30 A. M., opening the retreat, most of the 250 men present received Holy Communion in a body. They heard a sermon by the Rev. Peter B. Ebner, C.SS.R., of Buffalo, retreat master, in which the noted Redemptorist Father stressed the importance of family life.

At a conference following breakfast, Father Ebner urged the Protestants to lead exemplary Catholic lives and assured them that by so doing they will strengthen themselves to deal effectively with all other phases of life.

From noon until 2 P. M. the men enjoyed a recess, during which they had dinner at their respective homes.

Hits 'Immoral Depravity'

About 325 men heard Father Ebner denounce birth control and the "immoral depravity of the modern world" during the opening afternoon service. Following a period of meditation, the session resumed with Recitation of the Rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Father Ebner described the life of the Blessed Virgin and said that not only should she be the symbol of all womanhood but the inspirational mother of all mankind as well. At the conclusion of the discussion, he bestowed the Papal blessing, embodying a Plenary indulgence.

Fr. Heisel Officiates

The assemblage then marched to St. John's Church for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, at which the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel, Council chaplain, officiated. The Elmira Council, Fourth Degree Assembly, served as guard of honor.

During that impressive ceremony the men sang the responses and hymns and heard a brief talk by Father Heisel. The men also took the Legion of Decency pledge to refuse to attend indecent films and read immoral literature.

All Elmira Catholics renewed those pledges in church services Sunday.

Alumni Group Plans Dance in Grand Hall

AUBURN. The officers and Executive Council of the St. Aloysius Alumni met at the home of the treasurer, Miss Mae Lanahan, to discuss initial plans for the coming semi-formal dance to be held by the organization, Friday, January 19.

This will be the first dance of its kind to be held in St. Aloysius Grand Hall in many years. Miss Mary Agnes Brennan will head the committee. During the past week a group of alumni was conducted through the local police station by Captain William Graney.

Many services rendered by the Police Department and unknown to the majority of taxpayers were explained by Captain Graney.

St. Ann's Parish

TRIDUUM SUCCESSFUL

HORNELL.—Hundreds of parishioners as well as people from the surrounding territories attended the Solemn Triduum in honor of the Immaculate Conception which was held in St. Ann's Church, Hornell, from Dec. 5 to Dec. 8, the Feast Day.

The sermon each evening was preached by the Rev. George B. Fischer, C.S.C. His instructive as well as interesting sermons were a big aid in making the Triduum such a success.

The evening services found a filled church each evening, and many people received Holy Communion and attended one of the three Masses said each morning. The parish "Weekly" commenting on the successful triduum said in part:

"Indeed it was an inspiring sight to see the church filled with people listening attentively to every word that fell from the lips of this young, yet eloquent preacher of the word of God.

"From the comments of those that saw and heard him, we know that all were most pleased at the selection Father Fischer made, when he chose Father Fischer to come and lead us along the way for three days in honoring the Immaculate Mother of God."

On the closing night of the Triduum, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Father Fischer imparted to all present in the filled-to-capacity church, the Papal Blessing. Services closed with Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament with the Rev. William Frank of Cohocton as celebrant, the Rev. John Smith of Dansville as Deacon and the Rev. William Heisel of Wayland as Subdeacon.

Following priests were in the sanctuary, the Rev. William Canan of Hammondsport, the Rev. Louis Witkays of Canaseraga, the Rev. Andrew Dissett, Administrator of St. Ann's and the Rev. John Newcomb, Assistant of St. Ann's parish.

Harry Gill, Prominent Auburnian Dies

AUBURN. - Harry E. Gill, of 51 Hamilton Avenue, a well-known Auburnian, died early Sunday evening, after a brief illness. For many years, Mr. Gill has been connected with the Auburn office of the Metropolitan Insurance Company. Possessed of an excellent singing voice, Mr. Gill has been in demand in local musical circles, and he sang in church choirs.

Mr. Gill's wife, Elinor Gill, died about 13 months ago, while Mr. and Mrs. Gill were in Florida.

Mr. Gill is survived by an uncle, Fred Gill of Auburn, and an aunt, Mrs. W. J. Woodcock, of Brooklyn, a nephew, Forest Payne of Auburn, and several cousins.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 51 Hamilton Avenue and in St. Alphonsus Church Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Most important sacramental of the Church and the one most frequently used is the sign of the Cross.
