PARISH NEWS

St. Ann's Parish CROWD AT CHRISTMAS RITES

HORNELL. An unprecedented turn-out of 1,800 of the faithful attended the Solemn Midnight Mass in St. Ann's Church here. The Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, administrator of St. Ann's and he preached the sermon. Assisting were the Rev. John Newcomb as Deacon and the Rev. John P. O'Malley as subdeacon. Father Dissett expounded the Christmas greetings and delivered an eloquent sermon using the Text of St. Luke, "Fear not, I bring you great tidings of great joy. Immediately following the Mass, Father Newcomb and Father O'Malley distributed Holy Communion to about 900 persons. Father Dissett preached at all the other Masses on Christmas Day at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. All the school children, numbering about 700, received Holy Communion at the 8:30 Mass. The special musical program entitled "The Christmas Choir" was as follows: "Silent Night, Fr. Gruber Adeste Fideles traditional Introit Dominus Dixit, Tozer; Kyrie and Gloria, Van Durmo, Terum Principio, Tozer, (Credo, Car. Offerory, Lacerant Coram Tozer. Supplementary Offertory, Adeste Fideles arranged by Rev. J. Petter, Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnes Dei, Van Durmo Communion in Splendoribus Sanctiorum, Tozer. Recessional, Adeste Fideles, arranged by Vincent Novello. Nine hundred children were given a Christmas Party in Federation hall Thursday of last week. There was a Christmas tree, entertainment and other features directed by Father O'Malley for the children. On Wednesday of last week the children of St. Ann's High School gave a Christmas party for Sister M. Rita at which were present the other Sisters, priests of the parish and the school children. The party was held in Federation Hall. A committee of the St. Vincent de Paul Society on Saturday and Sunday distributed 40 baskets of food, clothing and toys to the needy in the community.

Girl, 14, Writes 'Book of Month'

NEW YORK. "The Lonely Dwarf," one of the current selections of the Pro Parvulis Book Club, is the work of a 14-year-old girl. Rosemary Lamkey, the author, illustrated as well as wrote the fairy tale fantasy which has been enthusiastically received by critics, according to the headquarters of the Pro Parvulis Club. "The Lonely Dwarf" is a collection for younger children, the other being "A Christmas Story" by Virginia Pritchard, based on an old Austrian legend of the Christ Child. "Mary Stuart, Young Queen of Scots," by Mildred Criss, is the choice for girls 10 to 14 years old. For boys 10 to 14, C. Walter

Basketball Holy Family Tops Cortland 43-27

AUBURN After a slow start the Purple and Gold basketballers of Holy Family High School registered a 43-27 triumph over the St. Mary's of Cortland at the latter's court. Auburn started very slowly being on the short end of 9-6 score at the quarter. They improved in the next quarter by holding the Cortland quint to a single point and gaining 12 themselves to take over an 18-10 margin. From this point on the superiority of the Flynnmen asserted itself as Quinn tossed in a total of 12 points with O'Hara and O'Connor right behind with nine apiece. Natoli with eight points was high for Cortland with seven and six points. This made it two out of three for Auburn and in each game the hoopsters have shown steady improvement. They play their next game at Auburn against Waterloo High on Jan. 5. Other home games are: Jan. 5—Waterloo High School. Feb. 2—C.B.A. of Syracuse. Feb. 9—King Ferry High School. Feb. 16 Assumption High School of Syracuse. Feb. 23—House of Providence High School of Syracuse. Mar. 8—St. Mary's High School of Cortland. Mar. 15—Aquinas Institute of Rochester.
