

Tragic Line

ALONG THE WAY' By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J.

I've seen headlines in many cities, but Chicago is the only town I've ever known that could show a newspaper line. Perhaps I've just missed this elsewhere, but...

A Complaint and a Reply

From Jan. 17, 1935, last... Inspired by an article written in the United States by the Rev. Edward F. Garesche, S.J., president of the Catholic Medical Mission Board...

Contrasting the news—the stories in Monday's papers reporting the outpouring of Holy Name men throughout the country...

Chicago South Side Elevated turns from its desolate lane of alleys, backyards and tenements, and flows down an upsway business street, some advertising signs in a well-kept appearance...

Canon... Canon's decision of the Testimonial Dinner to Canon to add its need of praise for a life of devotion for the welfare of the community...

Logic Man Pleas... I got this interesting bit in the letter from a correspondent today. It amuses me. Don't you find it amusing too?

Comment on Bethlehem... The first grade stable was deep in the heart of Christmas, and her retelling of the story of Bethlehem was very graphic...

More Knights of Columbus... No wonder that Bishop Kearney has given the full measure of his blessing and support to the coming drive for members of the Knights of Columbus!

Spiritual Thoughts... God is supreme strength, fortifying those who place their trust and confidence in Him—St. Catherine of Siena.

Clips... God has promised to be a wall of fire around those who rightly believe in Him—St. Athanasius.

Oasis, the Point... The whole point of the anecdote was the competition to qualify as an oasis, a competition...

Feast Days... Sunday, Jan. 21—ST. AGNES, VIRGIN AND MARTYR.

Whatever may be said about Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight championship—this should be said: his little daughter, Joan and Barbara, go to Mass every Sunday with their maid. It is reported that the former champion and his wife are not Catholics, yet they are determined to bring their children up in the Catholic faith...

Knights of Columbus councils throughout the diocese were responding to a call from the Supreme Council to mobilize for Catholic Action. William F. Larkin of New York was chairman.

Warden Joseph H. Brophy of Auburn told more than 200 members of the Holy Name Society of St. Hyacinth's Church, Auburn, why "Crime Does Not Pay" in a Communion Breakfast talk.

We have but the single day of this life in which to save souls and thus give Jesus proofs of our love. St. Theresa of Lisieux.

Let us abandon everything to the merciful providence of God. Bl. Albert the Great.

If we give all our time to God we always find time for our other duties. Blessed Mary of the Incarnation.
