Family Exhibit Set
 During this month of the Holy Family we are glad to share with our members a talk given on the Feast Day by Rev. John Lynch, C. S. S. R.
 "And He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject to them." (Luke 2)
 In the Holy Family of Nazareth we have a perfect model of a Christian home. Man and wife made after God's image and God himself was his preceptor. God was his model and it was his privilege to acquire and seek to obtain the perfection of his model. But man was made for society and the unit of society is the family.
 Now the model for the family is the Blessed Trinity. While the individual can aspire to the perfection of Divinity the family finds its archetype in the relationship of the Three Persons of the Adorable Trinity.
 Our Saviour was the most perfect of men and the most perfect of fathers. He came down from heaven to earth that he might be for us a model so that in our striving after divine perfection we might have Him to follow. He is the one who has left us an example.
 But man in his family relations finds a model not in the individual Christ but in the life of the Holy Family. The Holy Father and the Holy Son and the Holy Spirit are one. In Christian marriage we have something of this mystery. The Holy Father and the Holy Son are united in Christian wedlock as ONE. The Holy Spirit is the love which binds them together as one. The Holy Spirit is the love which binds them together as one. The Holy Spirit is the love which binds them together as one.

Religious Instruction Plans
 BOSTON Religious instruction plans in the public schools of cities where such systems are in operation will be studied by the Boston School Committee, according to a report taken by the Committee here.
 Chairman Henry J. Smith said the need of religious training is apparent in every part of the world.
 He contributed his full share to the frugal support of the Holy Family. Let us remember that all blessings come to us in answer to prayer. If we would be perfect, we must pray to be perfect. If we would be strong, we must pray to be strong. If we would be true to God and true to ourselves we must pray to be true.
